

EX-ALD. PATTULLO HAS ACCEPTED NOMINATION

BIG PUBLIC MEETING IN WESTHOLME OPERA HOUSE TONIGHT: PROMINENT SPEAKERS

RALPH SMITH AND DUNCAN ROSS WILL SPEAK TONIGHT

PUBLIC MEETING TONIGHT INSTEAD OF TOMORROW, AS ADVERTISED—MR. SMITH IS ONE OF CANADA'S BEST SPEAKERS AND DEBATORS.

The advertised public meeting for tomorrow evening at the Westholme Opera House will take place this evening, as it is absolutely imperative that Mr. Smith, who is president of the Federal Investment Co. of Vancouver, one of the largest financial institutions of the Terminal City, returns to the south as soon as possible. He will leave on the boat in the morning.

Everything indicates that when Mr. Duncan Ross and Mr. Ralph Smith take the platform this evening the theatre will be packed with interested ladies and gentlemen, who are anxious to hear the important questions of the day discussed.

Mr. Ralph Smith has been a prominent figure in Canadian politics for the past fifteen years and is accounted one of the best debaters and public speakers in the country. He represented Nanaimo in the Dominion House for many years, being elected as Federal representative for Nanaimo district at the general election of 1900 and continuing last year. Previous to entering Dominion politics, Mr. Smith was member of the Legislative Assembly for Nanaimo from 1898 to the time of his entering Federal politics. He is a very pleasing speaker, with a rich, clear voice with just a smack of North of England accent.

Mr. Duncan Ross is known to everyone in the district, and throughout the country, as a clear-cut, manly speaker, who tells plain truths in a plain, straight-from-the-shoulder manner.

The meeting opens at 8:30 sharp. Ladies are cordially invited to be present to hear the questions of the day, which are as important to them as to the sterner sex, discussed.

T. D. PATTULLO ACCEPTS NOMINATION FOR OFFICE OF MAYOR OF THE CITY

Committee Waits upon Mr Pattullo With Petition Bearing Several Hundred Names and he Accepts the Nomination as Mayor

In response to a petition by J. Dennis Allen and several hundred citizens, Mr. T. D. Pattullo last night signified his willingness to accept nomination as mayor in the forthcoming municipal campaign. While Mr. Pattullo's name has been mentioned for some little time as a possible candidate for the office of mayor, it was not until last night that he gave his answer, which, in view of the very large and representative petition asking him to accept the nomination, could only be in the affirmative.

A committee of the citizens waited on him last night and received a verbal answer, which was later confirmed in writing.

Mr. Pattullo has an excellent public record and is known as a thorough business man. It is possible that he will be elected by acclamation.

In according to the request of the petitioners, Mr. Pattullo wrote as follows:

Prince Rupert, Nov. 13, 1912.
Mr. J. Dennis Allen.
Dear Sir,—I have before me the petition of yourself and other citizens requesting me to accept nomination for the office of mayor of the city of Prince Rupert, for the year 1913.

In view of what seems to be an imperative desire upon the part of the citizens generally, and in view of the fact that the condition of municipal affairs is undoubtedly acute, I feel it my duty to accept nomination as requested.

You are good enough to couple your request with no exaction of pledge or promise upon my part. I appreciate this denotation of your confidence and I shall spare no effort to meet your expectations.

With the wish that the year 1913 may be fruitful of good, I beg to remain, dear sir, faithfully yours.

T. D. PATTULLO.

The petition presented to Mr. Pattullo was as follows:

Prince Rupert, Oct. 8, 1912.
To T. D. Pattullo, Esq.,
Prince Rupert, B.C.:
Dear Sir,—We, the undersigned electors of the City of Prince Rupert having in view the necessity of a progressive economical and able city council to meet the needs of the municipality and believing that this can best be secured by your assistance, we therefore respectfully solicit you to allow your name to be placed in nomination at the proper time for the office of mayor of this city for the year 1913.

Trusting that you will co-operate with us to this extent in the duties of good citizenship, we are yours respectfully:

J. Dennis Allen.
C. H. Handesdyde, Jr.
D. C. McRae.
John McRae.
J. J. Sloan.
Victor J. Tompkins.
E. O. Rietchel.
R. W. Cameron.
W. J. McCutcheon.

PROMINENT BUSINESS FIRM CHANGES NAME OF CONCERN

ONE OF PRINCE RUPERT'S LEADING BUSINESS HOUSES WILL HEREAFTER BE KNOWN UNDER ANOTHER NAME, BUT WILL STILL BE A STORE OF QUALITY.

Announcement is made today in the advertising columns of The News of a change of name for one of Prince Rupert's leading retail establishments. The clothing and gents' furnishing business on Sixth street, for the past year conducted under the name of Sloan & Company, Ltd., will in future be known as Bryant & Company, Limited. Mr. Bryant, who has been president and managing director of Sloan & Company, Ltd., since May 1st, holds the same position in the company under the new name.

For the past year or more this establishment has been building up a reputation as a store for people of dress and clothing. This reputation comes as the result of a policy to handle nothing but goods of the very highest quality in every line, goods which have a world-wide reputation as being standards of excellence, such as Dr. Jaeger's woolen goods, Christie's hats, Lowndes' Twentieth Century clothing, etc. Purchasers of such well known goods have the satisfaction of knowing that they are getting full value for their money and run no risk of getting inferior goods of doubtful quality. In every department of their business, right down to the most trifling articles of men's wear, Bryant & Company, Limited, are discriminating buyers. By carrying out such a policy the name of "Bryant & Company, Ltd." becomes synonymous with "The Store of Better Things" as far as clothing and gents' furnishings are concerned.

Beginning November 15th, our drivers will not leave sacks with coal, and we request our customers to provide place to receive their coal as all coal sacks must be emptied and returned.

STORM DELAYED PRINCE RUPERT

Big Boat Eight Hours Late on Account of Storm—Brought Big Passenger List.

After one of the roughest passages ever experienced by any of the officers or crew in these waters, the Prince Rupert arrived from the south yesterday afternoon about 5:30, some eight hours late owing to her having to anchor for just that length of time during the storm the day before yesterday at Namu Pass.

Carrying a particularly large passenger list for this season of the year, as well as a number of head of live stock in the shape of horses for Jack Lindsay, the transfer man, Captain Barney Johnson had his hands full, but on every side was heard praise by the passengers for the able and masterly way he handled the ship.

From the accounts of several of the passengers, officers and stewards, for a time during the roughest part of the trip the scene must have resembled many that are often enacted while crossing the Atlantic. Women shrieking and in hysterics, children crying, stewards rushing wildly up and down, with the horses below stamping and neighing, caused an old-timer of Atlantic travel to smile to himself.

The Prince Rupert carried altogether 218 passengers, 61 saloon and 187 deck, as well as 145 tons of freight. The deck passengers were almost entirely composed of laborers for construction work up the line of the G. T. P. for Foley, Welch & Stewart. Below is the list of first class passengers:

William Clemen, F. Sandston, W. C. Broughon, F. Schneider, Vance Rorece, O. Rorece, John Rich, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lancaster, Mr. and Mrs. R. Snelgrove, Miss Dorothy Mitchell, Miss Frances Mitchell, Lillian Griffith, Miss J. Fehr, Roy Frazier, Roy Haug, Mrs. T. Fleechman, S. N. Griffith, Claude Bennen, Mrs. A. E. Chard, H. Dow, William Reilly, Mrs. F. Evans and son, Miss Marshall, M. Olson, P. Bingham, Frank Barkshare, Mrs. M. P. McCaffery, Mrs. M. H. Craig, W. McVior, A. Harvey, D. McLean, Ralph Smith, Duncan Ross, Mrs. J. Miller, J. M. Waller, Rhomas Forsight, Dr. and Mrs. McNeill, Miss Rose Tetrolle, Miss J. Tetrolle, B. S. Connolly, A. B. Stevenson, Mrs. A. J. Walters, H. S. Carmen, C. Prichard, H. C. Walby, Mrs. Calhoun, Mr. Hunter, J. Storey, Mr. T. Rorvik, Miss Rorvik, J. McByer, F. Tait, J. Lindsay, M. Kasky, C. Kasky, M. Toney, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Martin, Mr. Williams, James Corley, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Potter, E. Hatfield, Mr. Keisting, A. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Gross, M. Kemp, John B. Doig, Mrs. Frank Albert, Mrs. C. Kemp, Gladys O'Brien, L. E. LaBelle, H. G. Ferguson, Georgia Pettit, R. H. Windstom, J. C. Challender, Miss N. C. Blanchard, Mr. and Mrs. Russell.

Helgeson-Moore.

A Bangor (Maine) paper received in the city bears the announcement that among other marriage licenses taken out at that place was one for the marriage of Henry Helgeson of Prince Rupert and Miss Margaret Agnes Moore of that city.
