Devil's Food Layer Cake

½ cup butter
1½ cups sugar
3 eggs
1 cup milk
2½ cups pastry flour (or 2 cups and 3 tablespoons of bread flour)
¾ teaspoon salt
3 teaspoons Magic Baking Powder
1 teaspoon vanilla extract
3 sq. unsweetened chocolate, melted

Cream butter thoroughly; add sugar slowly. Add beaten yolks; mix thoroughly. Add flour sifted with baking powder and salt, alternately with milk; add vanilla and melted chocolate. Fold in stiffly beaten egg whites. Put into 3 greased layer cake tins and bake in moderate oven at 350° F. about 30 minutes. When cool, put together and cover thickly with Chocolate or White Icing (recipes are in the Magic Cook Book).

Miss Gertrude Dutton tells why she makes her

Devil's Food Layer Cake

with Magic Baking Powder

"I know from experience," says the cookery expert of Western Home Monthly, "that Magic makes most baked dishes look and taste better. Its uniform leavening quality gives dependable baking results."

And Miss Dutton's praise of Magic is seconded by the majority of dietitians and cookery experts throughout the Dominion. They use Magic exclusively because they know it is pure, and always uniform.

Canadian housewives, too, prefer Magic. In fact, Magic outsells all other baking powders combined.

For luscious layer cakes, light, tender biscuits, delicious pastry—follow Miss Dutton's advice. Use Magic Baking Powder.

If the city council is unable to do the work, property owners of Section Two will finance the building of roads and sidewalks themselves, it was decided at a meeting with C. W. Peck in the chair and Lee Baker acting as secretary. Many houses would be under construction in that new section of the city if only roads were built.

NEW YORK BAVARIAN

Occupation of Colony By British Prevented Deal Going Through, Archives Show

MUNICH, April 26:—New York might have been a Bavarian town had the British not occupied New Amsterdam at the decisive moment and forcibly made the Dutch settlement an English colony, ancient documents incidentally discovered in the Munich archives disclose.

In 1664, the documents show, negotiations were under way between the Bavarian elector, Ferdinand Maria, and a group of Dutch diplomats, for the sale of Manhattan Island and the surrounding territory, which the Dutch had possessed since 1626. The British move upset their plans.

A scheme of Dr. Johann Joadhim Becher, Bavaria's financial adviser, provided for the acquisition of colonies and the creation of a Bavarian navy. His efforts were warmly advocated by the Elector Ferdinand Maria.

Bavaria's search for colonies was born out of th thirty years' war which had ravaged the country and exhausted the treasury. After Manhattan had been lost to it, Bavaria turned to South America. A trip to Guiana convinced Dr. Becher of the advantages of that continent. In a report to Munich he described its wealth and climate glowingly.

"The yield of gold, silver and other precious metals could make Bavaria rich," the report reads. "Sugar, rubber, dyestuffs and other products could provide a comfortable living for at least 50,000 Bavarians."

According to the documents, the Dutch were quite willing to sell part of their possession to Bavaria but the colonial scheme passed into oblivion for some undivulged reasons. The reports rested in the archives almost 300 years. A general house cleaning brought them to light again.

Legion Confirms Football Entry

Canadian Legion Has Special General Meeting—Members in Hospital Doing Well

The Canadian Legion, at a special general meeting last night, confirmed the entry of a team representing the organization in the Senior Football League this season. Jack Judge was chosen Legion delegate to the executive of the Prince Rupert Football Association.

Reports were received that William Wilson, Joseph Jorgenson and Jack Eastman, members of the Legion, who are receiving treatment in Shaughnessy Military Hospital, Vancouver, were doing well, Mr. Wilson being expected home soon.

There was a good attendance at the meeting which was presided over by D. C. Schubert in the absence of the president, William Wilson.
