MRS. T. A. JOHNSTONE PRESIDES

Mrs. A. Logan installed head of King Ed PTA

Mrs. T. A. Johnstone, past-president of the King Edward Parent-Teacher association last night installed Mrs. Arthur Logan as association president, succeeding School Principal, R. G. Moore.

Others installed to office for the forthcoming term were A. M. Bishop, vice-president; Mrs. Rupert Holkestad, secretary; Mrs. Alex Cembella, treasurer; Mrs. E. T. S. Moore, membership; Mrs. B. G. Simundson, program; Mrs. J. S. Lindsay, historian; Mrs. William Wasyk, representative to PT Council and J. C. Wells, safety.

In the membership's thanks to the retiring officers, particular mention was given to Mr. Moore, who filled the president's chair when it was vacated last term.

Mrs. Logan in her opening address, emphasized the need for greater co-operation and effort on the part of the membership for successful PTA operation.

During the business session the sum of $50 was voted to be given the PT Council Bursary fund.

It was decided to hold the annual Students Sports Day during the last week of school, on which ever day the weather is most favorable.

Delegate Mrs. B. G. Simundson gave her report on the Parent-Teacher Federation convention held in Surrey last month.

In his report on school activities, Mr. Moore requested that all Grade 1 pupils for next year's term be registered by May 15 and asked that parents bring birth certificates for registration purposes.

He also asked that all next term's Grade 1 pupils be at the school on June 21 at 1:30 p.m. to be given supply lists and assigned classes.

Refreshments served in the school library concluded the session.

To revisit Scotland

Pioneer retired city contractor John Currie and Mrs. Currie of 618 McBride Street leave by Canadian Pacific Airlines Monday on their way back to visit their Scottish homeland.

The Curries will fly by jet airliner to Los Angeles and there embark on a Swedish Airlines jet plane for Copenhagen. From Sweden they will fly to Prestwick, Scotland.

The last time Mr. and Mrs. Currie visited Scotland was in 1954. They will be visiting Aberdeen and Keith, Banffshire. They will be returning August 15.

STEWART ROUTLEDGE has been appointed assistant treasurer for Columbia Cellulose Company Limited and Celgar Limited, and treasurer of Columbia Pulp Sales Limited, it was announced here today by T. N. Beaupre, president. Mr. Routledge was assistant senior accountant at Columbia Cellulose Company Limited, Watson Island before moving to head office in Vancouver in 1960 as assistant to the treasurer.

Bible school principal to speak here

The principal and founder of the Prairie Bible Institute, Three Hills, Alberta, Rev. Leslie E. Maxwell, will be guest speaker at the Evangelical Free church, Monday, May 15 through to Thursday, May 18 each night at 8 o'clock, local pastor, Rev. Harold Foster said today.

Founded some 39 years ago with an enrollment of eight students, the Institute in the past years has risen to an enrollment of 1,000 students, many of whom upon graduation have gone as missionaries to practically all parts of the world.

Bible teaching is included in the accredited high school curriculum, it was announced.

Mr. Maxwell is recognized as an exceptional Bible teacher and has much experience at large conferences both in North American and foreign fields and will in his talks be able to give much helpful and practical advice in regard to youth problems of today, Mr. Foster said. Five of Mr. Maxwell's seven children are also on the mission fields.

Mr. Foster urged all interested persons to attend these special meetings next week.

FRANCOIS LAKE—There must have been a good many sighs of relief on Sunday morning when the electric cable was safely laid across the lake two and a quarter miles.

Fortunately there was no wind although it did get squally at noon after the job was completed. The cable was put on the ferry this side very early in the morning and taken to the other side, attached there and then unwound as they came this way.

It was a terrific weight (19 tons) and two trucks loaded with gravel were parked on one end of the ferry deck to help balance the boat. Hugh and the children and I drove up the lake to where the cable will be connected this side and watched the ferry come in and saw a small boat drag the end ashore.

It was very heavy and I could hardly lift the very end off the ground. Nicholson's tug steadied the ferry on the trip. Now the folks across the lake will be counting the days to when they have their homes connected to the Burns Lake Power.

When the electric cable was left in front of our ferry cottage for some weeks it was covered with a tarpaulin. Underneath was a fine cave for the children to creep in and play and presently, according to small four-year-old Mark, bears moved in as well!

There were two baby bears, a mother bear and Grandpa bear who was enormous and growled alarmingly every time you came near. Ithink he managed to scare himself with his imagination for when he and I walked past he sidled along, although when the other children were with him he was bold enough. I explained this to the engineer from Victoria, superintending the cable laying, and he said he'd warn the men to be careful not to rile the bears

Alec Gillis was working in the woods half a mile from the Monkman home at Grassyplains when he broke his leg. The bones were severed and one was piercing clean through the skin. This happened at about 4 o'clock and he managed to get to the Monkman home with the help of two pieces of wood which he used as crutches. He knows that he passed out several times on the way with the pain. Unfortunately the Monkman family was away from home and it was 11 p.m. before they returned to find Alec stretched out on one of the beds. He was taken to Southbank and brought over the lake on a special ferry after midnight to Burns Lake hospital. He will have to stay there for at least three weeks.
