Rates too high

VANCOUVER (CP) — A University of B.C. professor said today electricity, labor and freight rates are too high in B.C., investment possibilities poor and the strength of unions excessive.

R. E. Boston, assistant professor of mechanical engineering, criticized "B.C.'s apathy" toward industrial development.

He was addressing the B.C. Association of Real Estate Boards.

The bidding:

South	West	North	East
2 ♠	Pass	3 ♠	Pass
4 NT	Pass	5 ♦	Pass
6 NT	Pass	Pass	Pass

Opening lead; Eight of ♠

My good friend and associate John Gerber of Houston gave a skilful exhibition of card reading in today's hand, taken from the Men's Pairs in the National Championships recently held in Denver.

North's direct raise to three spades is somewhat of an overbid inasmuch as he held only five points in support of partner. Sounder tactics would have dictated the negative two no trump response to be followed by a forward going move later if the opportunity presented itself. However, no issue is taken with the final contract which was a reasonable venture. Gerber's decision with the South cards to play the slam no trump was dictated by the superior match point result that is given to the higher scoring no trump contract.

West considered the opening lead a doubtful privilege and led a spade directly into the bidder. The declarer took due note of his opponent's unorthodox lead and decided to play him for the missing high cards. He proceeded to run off his top tricks in the major suits with the intention of projecting an end play on West.

The six spades were cashed first on which two clubs and one diamond were thrown from dummy. West was able to spare two clubs, a diamond and a heart but as the hearts were run he found it increasingly uncomfortable to discard. On the third heart he threw the jack of diamonds but, on the fourth heart after Gerber had shed a diamond, West was forced to blank himself to the lone ace of diamonds in order to protect his king of clubs.

A diamond was led at trick 11 and West was put in to surrender the last two tricks to declarer's ace-queen of clubs.

The defender could have made matters much more difficult for his opponent by discarding the two, six and jack of clubs early, and without any visible signs of discomfort. One West actually managed to defeat the contract two trick by this strategy when an unsuspecting declarer took the club finesse at trick 11. West produced the kind and then dropped South's blank king of diamonds with the ace and claimed the last trick.

Goss shares PCL hitting with 20 RBIs

SAN FRANCISCO (CP) — Rangy centre fielder Howie Goss of Vancouver Mounties continues to be the most productive Pacific Coast League hitter with 20 runs batted in to his credit. Goss, playing his second season with Vancouver, also shares the PCL home run leadership with ex-major leaguer Ray Jablonski of Hawaii Islanders. Both have seven. Over-all Goss is batting .278, about 100 points behind leader Stan Johnson of San Diego, but still high enough to make the top 20.

Francois Lake News

Saturday. He seems to have enjoyed helping stoke the fire beside the corral to heat the branding irons, but when the animals bawled as the hot metal burned them he felt badly.

We had a worrying time on Saturday when we lost Nigger, a Labrador. She is our watchdog and has been faithful to us for 10 years now and stays fairly close to home. She did not come in for her breakfast with us as usual but we did not become alarmed until after noon as we thought that she might possibly be away in the woods with the children.

When we couldn't find her we phoned the police office in Burns Lake to ask them to watch for her, as she was stolen several years ago by a man who took her to Burns Lake. We phoned neighbors and asked them to watch out for her and we drove the roads calling her. At about five o'clock young Edward Gatacre rushed to the store to say that he had heard something crying in the bushes back of the Remanda house on our ranch and he had gone up to find Nigger caught by her foot in a trap.

We rushed there and released her, and she was surely happy to see us and get help. Her foot was badly cut and bleeding and her mouth was very sore and bleeding from trying to bite herself out of the jaws of the trap. Nigger is a great favorite with everybody around here and is just like one of our family, so we were surely happy to have her back home again. Her foot is very sore and she cannot walk on it yet. The trap has evidently been set for a long time and forgotten.

NEW POSTAGE STAMPS

Four new postage stamps were issued by the Norwegian post office in March to celebrate the 100th anniversary of the Norwegian Sports Federation.

City swimmers going south

A city swimming team of three will be taken to Vancouver tomorrow by Civic Centre pool director, Ronald Gilchrist to compete in a Vancouver Swimming Club meet at the Crystal Pool.

They are Vito Dunford, Gordon Eby and William Turcotte. The team will return May 16.
