Members of the local branch of the Canadian Legion and the Women's Auxiliary are expected to turn out in force tonight to celebrate the tenth anniversary of the formation of the Legion. The local branch will also celebrate the burning of the bonds which they issued some two years ago in connection with the rebuilding and modernizing of their headquarters.

Some alarm was felt by the parents when two son of Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Anderson, aged 16 and 15, failed to return last night when they were due back from a week-end visit to Wolf Island for which they left Saturday afternoon. The provincial police boat P. M. L. 8 went out this morning and found them safe, bringing them home. They had been afraid to venture across the harbor in their small boat owing to the storm.

Milk Puddings

"When making milk puddings I cook the rice and tapioca first; then add Pacific straight from the can. It makes a fine flavored pudding. No added flavoring is needed."
