Quits Boston Braves

BOSTON, June 3.—Babe Ruth quit the Boston Braves in a huff yesterday after having been with the club as vice-president and assistant manager only since this spring. The forty-one year old Home Run King said that he did not intend to retire from the game. Following a dispute with Judge Emil Fuchs, president of the Braves, Ruth announced his resignation. The Judge later announced that an unconditional release had been given.

BABE RUTH

Ruth, in announcing his intention of going on the voluntary retired list, explained that he had asked Fuchs' permission to go to New York but, despite a sore leg which would not permit him to play, he said he was ordered to report to the playing field. He would not accept such treatment, Ruth said.

Opening of Lawn Bowling Season Delayed by Rain

The opening of the 1935 lawn bowling season on the Canadian National Recreation Association's green was to have taken place yesterday with a match tournament between rinks skipped by the president, F. S. Walton, and vice-president, A. R. Nichols, but the rainy weather necessitated its being called off. If weather permits, it may take place on Sunday next.

The King Edward High School Bowling League has suspended activity for the season, the plan being to resume play in the fall. Twirlers were winners of the Girls' League with Aces in second place. Twirlers were also winners of the Boys' League with Buckaroos runners-up.

LEGION IN BALL WIN

Veterans Squeeze Out Close Victory Over Canucks in Baseball League

With uncertain skies overhead and an ordinary sized crowd present, the Sons of Canada and Legion fought out a close battle in the Senior Baseball League yesterday, the Sons finishing on the short end of a 6-5 score.

The Legion took the field first and Smith, the veterans' mound artist, struck out the first three Sons to face him. The Sons' hurler, Lindsay, however, was nicked for two runs in the first and another pair in the second while the Canucks failed to mark the new score board in either the second or the third innings. The fourth inning, however, saw a decided change for Smith issued three passes to the Canadians and topped it off by hitting Johnson with a pitched ball. The result of this inning was two runs for the Sons. The Legion gained another run in the fourth when Pierce scored but in the fifth, with two men on bases, Jack Yager poled out a two-bagger, scoring both men and the Legion led now by one scant run. In the sixth both teams garnered another run but the Sons failed to score in the first of the seventh and the "Sweatshirt Gang" walked off the field with their first victory of the season.

NEW TEAM ON SCREEN

"Wedding Night," Stirring Drama, Marks Debut of Cooper And Sten

A stirring and romantic drama, the love story of a sophisticated New York author and a New England farm girl, comes to the screen of the Capitol Theatre the first of this week in "The Wedding Night," in which Gary Cooper and Anna Sten appear for the first time as a romantic team.

Cooper proves that he can be just as convincing and thrilling a lover as he is a soldier and fighter, and the fair Anna Sten sheds all traces of her Russian birth and training, emerging as a full-fledged American star.

Cooper is the author and Helen Vinson his wife. Together they return to his country home because his finances are low and he vainly is seeking an idea and background for a new book.

He finds, unexpectedly, the color and theme for his manuscript in the lives and customs of the neighboring tobacco farmers. After he sells a tract of land his wife insists upon returning to gay New York but he remains in the country. He meets a neighboring farm girl, played by Anna Sten, and she offers to care for his material wants, cooking his meals, tidying the house. Each finds keen interest in the other because they are from entirely different worlds. Against this background is told the dramatic love story. She realizes that she loves the author and that he loves her. But both know there is a wide social chasm between them, that he is married and she betrothed.

Siegfried is a harsh, stern father who clings blindly to the traditions of his native land and his ancestors; Ralph Bellamy is the sturdy young tiller of the soil selected to marry the girl.

Bishop Thurber, son of Capt. and Mrs. J. D. Thurber of this city, was here Saturday afternoon aboard the steamer Princess Alice bound from Vancouver to Dawson. He will spend the summer with a federal Geological Survey in the Yukon.
