Toastmistresses enjoy supper of Japanese foods

A menu of Japanese food provided the Prince Rupert Toastmistress club with a gala supper hour Thursday night hosted by Mr. and Mrs. F. St. John Madeley in their home on Fourth Avenue West.

The fish course was Tempura and the meat course was Sukiyaki.

Japanese chopsticks were provided with Mr. Madeley offering instructions on their use.

Mrs. J. E. Bateman presented an authentic touch to the affair by wearing a brilliantly colored Japanese kimono complete with an obi.

Guest attending was Mrs. Sarah Graham.

Following the supper, topicmistress Mrs. B. H. Craft, displayed the topic item, a fan, while Mrs. W. L. Hitchcock read interesting articles on Japan, describing its people, customs and country.

Each member read a passage from Shakespeare during the educational period.

President Mrs. O. R. Green chaired the meeting, timer was Mrs. B. B. Milnes, general evaluator was Mrs. T. F. Bennett. Next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Milnes on June 8 at 8:15 p.m.

IODE parley in session

CALGARY (CP) — Scholarships totalling $18,000 for graduates of Canadian universities and an additional $29,300 for others was approved Monday by delegates attending the 61st meeting of the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire. More were to be announced today.

Materials for a community hall at Tuktoyaktuk are firmly frozen in the Mackenzie River at Waterways, said Mrs. R. C. Latimer of Toronto, chairman of the Canadian Eskimo Fund. The log cabin recreation hall is to be built in the Northwest Territories, across from the Alaska border, when the ice goes out and the materials can be delivered.

This will be the second recreation hall provided for the Eskimos by the IODE. The first was opened last July at Frobisher Bay on Baffin Island.

Mrs. Latimer told delegates there had been no commitment to extend the program but said in an interview she hoped the work would continue.
