DAVE WILLIAMS COMPANY CAPTURED VICTORIA

Theatrical Combination That is to Visit Prince Rupert Drew Big Crowds During Their Stay in the Capital—Warmly Praised by the Press

The Dave Williams Dramatic Company which is to open at the Empress Theatre on Wednesday has received the endorsement of the Victoria people. In a long article full of warm praises, the Victoria Times says, referring to the two month's engagement which the company filled in that city, before leaving for Prince Rupert:

"Most cities are compelled to hunger for histrionic talent until the calendar has swung round to the fall, but in the case of Victoria the general state of coma has not been allowed to exist.

"The dramatic organization which has thus rescued Victoria from the woes of an empty summer season is the Williams Stock Company The company opened last night in that old and much-favored piece "Friends," and when the curtain was raised last night upon the opening scene everyone of the large audience felt that the venture would meet with all the success it merited.

"All the members of the company proved to have a perfect mastery of their respective parts, and the ease and grace with which the production moved from start to finish,betokened not only a general understanding of a high character, but an individual histrionic ability not often found throughout a combination of players."

While in Prince Rupert the company will present several of the plays with which they scored such a success in the capital city.
