Sergeant Robert G. Pickrell, world's revolver shooting champion and member of the Canadian National Railways police department, gave a talk and display of marksmanship at today's regular weekly luncheon of the Prince Rupert Rotary Club. Peter Lakie was in the chair and there was a good attendance of members and guests who took a keen interest in the proceedings.

There were no new developments to be reported at the police station this morning in regard to the burglarizing of the government liquor store here last Sunday night. The same night the Canadian National Railways powder house was broken into but this is believed to have been the work of drunken prowlers and not associated with the liquor store burglary in connection with which tools belonging to the railway were used.

For riding the rods on the Canadian National Railways, Gunnar Waldack was fined $10, with option of five days' imprisonment, in city police court. Graham Morrison, for a similar offence, was fined $5, with three days' option.

Major Laycock Has Been Fine Army Officer

Major Eva Laycock, who is being transferred to New Westminster in the Salvation Army service, has been in charge at Prince Rupert for more than three years and has given splendid service. On the occasion of the visit of the Commissioner she was promoted to her present rank from that of adjutant. She says she has had a very happy time in Prince Rupert.

Word has been received that Brigadier William Kerr, formerly of Prince Rupert, is being moved to Calgary from Edmonton.

Timely Recipes

CHOCOLATE CRUMB COOKIES

Two squares unsweetened chocolate, 1 1-3 cups (1 can) sweetened condensed milk, 1 cup toasted bread crumbs, few grains salt, ½ cup walnut or pecan nut meats, 24 walnut or pecan halves (optional).

Melt chocolate in top of double boiler. Add sweetened condensed milk and stir over boiling water 5 minutes or until mixture thickens. Add toasted bread crumbs, salt and nut meats which have been chopped. Blend thoroughly. Drop by spoonfuls on buttered baking sheet. Press half a nut meat into each cooky, if desired. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 10 minutes, or until brown. Remove from pan at once. Makes about 24.

INSECT INVASION

LONDON, August 26: (CP) — A family of eight in a farm house near Lydd, Kent, was driven out by a plague of weevils. They came from sacks of grain stored in an adjoining building.
