Hawks riding high in NHL atop long unbeaten streak

By The Canadian Press

A rampaging Stan Mikita, a healthy Bobby Hull and a brilliant Glenn Hall have Chicago Black Hawks riding high in the National Hockey League.

The trio figured prominently again Wednesday night as the Hawks stretched an unbeaten streak to eight games by coming from behind to tie Detroit Red Wings 2-2 on home ice.

The third-place Hawks, who had won seven straight before Wednesday night's tie, now are eight points out of first place in the league standings.

Montreal Canadiens lead the pack with 53 points and Toronto Maple Leafs are second with 51. The Hawks have 45 points and the Red Wings are fourth with 41.

MIKITA SCORES EARLY

Mikita, 20-year-old sophomore centre, got the Hawks rolling in the first period when he scored at 44:33 while Detroit's Alex Delvecchio was serving a minor penalty.

The goal marked the eighth consecutive game in which Mikita has scored at least once. He now is only one game shy of the record set by Montreal's retired Maurice Richard in 1944-45 and tied by Canadiens' Bernie Geoffrion earlier this season.

Hull, 22-year-old left winger championship last season scored his 20th goal of the 1960-61 who won the league scoring campaign at 16:47 of the third period to tie the game after Detroit had gone ahead with two second-period goals.

Hull, forced to sit out several games during the Christmas holidays with a bad knee, now has scored in each of his last four games.

Hall had another great night in the nets. The agile goaltender was forced to make 39 saves.

Detroit's two goals — by Norm Ullman and Allan Johnson — were the first the Wings had scored against Hall in four games.

Detroit's Len Lunde was cut under the left eye by a stick midway through the final period and was forced to leave the game. The cut took 14 stitches to close.

Canucks in usual place after edging Flyers 6-5

By THE CANADIAN PRESS

Vancouver Canucks moved back in a familiar position in the Western Hockey League standings Wednesday night: two points behind league-leading Calgary Stampeders.

Canucks had to go into overtime with seventh-place Edmonton Flyers before gaining a 6-5 victory in the second game of their Prairie tour.

Seattle Totems, also on a Prairie visit, became Winnipeg Warriors' third straight victims as Warriors gained a 4-2 win to move into a tie with Edmonton.

At Portland, the hometown Buckaroos continued—on a percentage basis at least—to be the league's hottest team.

They moved one point behind third-place Spokane with a 4-1 victory over the Comets.

Buckaroos, who have played fewer games than any other team in the league, are seven points behind Calgary and have five games in hand.

CYR WAS HERO

Veteran Ray Cyr was the Vancouver hero in Edmonton. He scored the winning marker after five minutes of overtime when he blasted a 30-foot shot past Edmonton goalie Dennis Riggin.

Other Vancouver marksmen were Dave Duke and Bruce Carmichael with two each and defenceman Ralph Keller.

Lloyd Haddon got two for Edmonton while Ray Brunel, Ed Joyal and Chuck Holmes got the others.

Winnipeg disorganized Seattle's attack with tight checking, and held much of the territorial play.

Winnipeg scorers were Al Nicholson, Gerry Brisson, Gordie Redahl and Lorne Duvis. Don Chiupka and Tom McVie scored the Seattle goals.

Fine goaltending by Seattle's Bev Bentley held down the score.

Portland led all the way in the rough game with Seattle.

Gordie Haworth and Gordie Fashoway put Portland ahead 2-0 but Steve Witiuk came back to make it 2-1 before the first period ended.

Arnie Schmautz got the only goal of the second period and Art Jones sewed it up in the final minute when he scored into an open net.

Ketchikan here on weekend for hoop series

Prince Rupert basketball fans are in for two days of top - flight basketball this weekend as the Ketchikan Senior All Stars battle the local Savoy All Stars at the senior high school.

Under coach Bill (Mouse) Morrison, the Savoy squad hopes to make a clean sweep of the two-game series before heading to Ketchikan January 18 for that city's Junior Chamber of Commerce four-day international Basketball Tournament.

As an added feature to this weekend's series, the Terrace All Stars will appear to tangle with Sunrise in a preliminary game Saturday night. Friday's preliminary contest will pit New Royals against UFAWU's "fighting fishermen."

Both preliminary games should prove to be an added highlight to the Ketchikan-Savoy series.

For the benefit of anyone who doesn't know, the Prince Rupert Senior High School is located behind Algoma Park.

If the series is half as exciting as the Metlakatla series, it will be well worth your while to see it.

Tickes, $1 for aduls and 50 cents for students, may be purchased at Jaffray's Sports & Trophies, New Royal Hotel, Old Empress Hotel, Savoy Hotel, Universal, Don's Men's Wear, Civic Centre, Grotto Cigar Store and at the door.

Game time is 7 p.m. for the preliminary and 8:30 p.m. for the main contest, both Friday and Saturday night.
