17 of May celebration, Monday at 8:30, Moose Hall. Program, refreshments and dance. Adm. 50c.

The Salvation Army tag day on Saturday proved very successful, the sum of $102.84 being collected on the streets. This was slightly larger than last year.

Gordon H. Jolliffe left yesterday aboard the commercial boat Caribou on his return to Queen Charlotte City after a visit of a few days in the city.

Dr. H. A. Whillans, formerly of Stewart and now located in Victoria, arrived on the Catala last evening from the south and will proceed by this evening's train to Hazelton where he will be for a time.

G. A. Clothier, former resident mining engineer here and for some years located in Vancouver, was a passenger aboard the Princess Louise yesterday bound for Juneau enroute to Chicagoff Island where he will take charge of a mining property which he and his brother, R. L. Clothier, have become interested.

Assigned to campaign Skeena and Prince Rupert ridings on behalf of the C. C. F. candidates in the provincial election, T. C. Douglas, M. P. for Weyburn, Saskatchewan, arrived at Hazelton on Saturday from the prairies and was met there by John Doney of Terrace, C. C. F. candidate for Skeena. Mr. Douglas is to speak at Terrace before coming on to Prince Rupert.

Additional jurymen summoned for service at the session of the Supreme Court Assizes here last week in addition to the original list were Leslie Setter, Louis Mazzei, Harry Menzie, George W. Pohle, Douglas Duncan, Norman L. Freeman, S. E. Parker, Leonard Charles Griffiths, W. H. Shortridge, William Joseph Scott, George Mathers, J. G. Anderson and F. O. Cole.

Robert Welch, son of Rev. W. R. Welch, former United Church minister at Terrace and now located at Bella Bella, arrived in the city on the Cardena Saturday morning from Seattle, where he has been engaged in theological studies for the past three years, and sailed yesterday on the Princess Louise for Juneau out of which city he will engage in marine mission work. On the way north from Seattle Mr. Welch stopped off at Bella Bella to visit with his parents.

WHIFFLETS
From the Waterfront

On a regular voyage to Skagway, C.P.R. steamer Princess Louise, Capt. S. K. Gray, arrived in port at 9 o'clock yesterday morning and sailed an hour later for Alaska points whence she is scheduled to call here southbound Thursday afternoon. The vessel had on board 123 passengers including four who disembarked here. Nine went aboard at this port for the north. Through passengers included a number of officers of White Pass & Yukon Route river steamers among them Capt. John MacDonald and Chief Officer Frank Waller of the Atlin Lake steamer Tutschi, Capt. Joseph S. McCann, master of the steamer Yukon which plies between Dawson and Nenana, and Capt. Ralph Newcombe.

With a fair-sized list of passengers, Union steamer Catala, Capt. James Findlay, arrived in port at 6:15 last evening from the south and sailed at 8 p.m. for Stewart, Anyox and other northern points whence she will return here tomorrow southbound.

C. P. R. steamer Princess Adelaide, Capt. Henry Anderson, arrived in port at 6:10 Friday evening from the south and sailed at 10 p.m. on her return to Vancouver and waypoints.

Ole Molver, well known American halibut fisherman and son of Capt. Dan Molver, owner and skipper of the Urania, lost his life Thursday night at Salmon Bay near Seattle when he fell from a wharf, struck his head and, becoming stunned, went into the water and was drowned. Half an hour later his body was found but all efforts at resuscitation proved unavailing. Molver is survived by a widow and two children.

The Ketchikan motorship Beloit was in port this morning with one carload of fresh halibut for transshipment East over Canadian National Railways.

Mrs. Arthur Brooksbank leaves on this evening's train for Kansas City where she will pay a visit with her sister.

THAT EXCELLENT THING UNIFORMITY

Mrs. H. in a valued letter says the outstanding thing to her about Pacific Milk is its uniformity. "It never varies. Always the same very marked richness and flavor. Always the same result in whatever way used. Always sure to give nourishment and satisfaction to the baby. It's always Pacific Milk." Many thanks, Mrs. H.
