UNITED IN MARRIAGE

Interesting Nuptials Last Night Of Miss Lillian Lowe and George Peters

An event of outstanding interest uniting a very well known and widely popular local couple took place last evening in First United Church, Rev. C. D. Clarke officiating, when Miss Lillian Marguerite Lowe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Lowe of this city, became the bride of George Edward Peters, son of Mrs. Isabel Peters, formerly of this city and now residing in Victoria. There was a large congregation in attendance at the nuptials. Four generations of the bride's family were present at the rites.

The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion and the bride entered the church upon the arm of her father, by whom she was given in marriage, as Miss Swana Olafson played the Wedding March. The bride was lovely in a beautiful gown of white satin cut in Princess lines with Victorian lace collar and veil caught up with a wreath of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of Ophelia roses and lilies-of-the-valley.

The bridesmaid was Miss Ella Steen who had a dainty gown of yellow net with hat to match and carried a bouquet of mauve and yellow stocks.

The matron of honor, Mrs. E. P. Smith, sister of the bride, was lovely in a gown of green net with hat to match and carrying a bouquet of carnations.

Tommy Fraser was best man.

During the signing of the register "All Joy Be Thine" was sung beautifully by Mrs. J. H. McLeod.

Ushers were Lee Gordon, H. G. Kennedy and W. M. Watts.

Reception Follows

Following the church ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Fifth Avenue West. The happy couple received congratulations and best wishes beneath a white wedding bell which was suspended from an arch of yellow and white. The bride's mother, who assisted in receiving, wore an attractive gown of delph blue with hat to match and corsage of pink roses.

The toast to the bride was proposed by Rev. C. D. Clarke and the groom responded suitably. The toast to the matron of honor and bridesmaid was proposed by W. M. Watts and responded to by the groomsman.

Telegrams of congratulations from relatives were read.

The bride's table was lovely, centered with a three-tier wedding cake which was cut by the bride. There was a lace cloth with yellow tapers and white hearts. Mrs. J. Fred Ritchie and Mrs. G. W. Nickerson poured. Mrs. James Batt cut the cake and serviteurs were Mrs. T. W. Brown, Mrs. J. DeCarlo, Mrs. William Rogers, Miss Anne Boddie, Miss Ruby Krikevsky and Mrs. T. Fraser.

Following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Peters sailed on the Prince Rupert for a month's honeymoon trip to Vancouver, Victoria and as far south as Los Angeles. The bride's going away costume was a rust ensemble with brown accessories and corsage bouquet of cream roses. On their return here the couple will reside on Fifth Avenue West.

Mr. and Mrs. Peters will have the hearty congratulations and best wishes of numerous friends. The bride has lived here since girlhood and for some years has been a member of the office staff of the Rance and Hardy grocery. The groom is in the service of the Canadian National Railways.

Invited guests were:

Miss Anne Boddie, Mr. and Mrs. J. Batt and family, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Blackstock, Mr. and Mrs. C. Campbell, Miss Ethel Christy, Mrs. R. "RAINBOW ON RIVER"

Bobby Breen Picture Featured At Capitol Theatre This Week-end

A lavish musical drama boasting a strong story plot, a fine cast, elaborate settings and a group of songs by the talented nine-year old star, "Rainbow on the River," featuring Bobby Breen, comes to the Capitol Theatre here as the feature offering this week-end.

The play presents Bobby as a waif raised in the southland by a devoted negro servant, Louise Beavers, until he is taken away to live in New York by his grandmother, May Robson. In the new environment, Bobby yearns to be back with the colored mammy and the simple life he had led. Finally, after a number of dramatic sequences, there is a reunion in the great city which leaves everyone happy.

In addition to the theme song "Rainbow on the River," negro folk songs by Stephen Foster, spirituals and some well known favorites are sung.

The cast also includes Charles Butterworth, Alan Mowbray, Benita Hume, Marilyn Knowlden and Henry O'Neill.
