Magnus Brown Of Kitzegukla Dies

Well Known Sportsman of Interior Village Passes Away

KITZEGUKLA, May 18:— Magnus Brown, a well beloved citizen of Kitzegukla, passed away on Sunday morning last about 11:45. He died peacefully after having been ill for over a year.

Magnus Brown was an athlete and a friend of all sportsmen. He leaves to mourn his loss two brothers and a sister.

Funeral services were held Tuesday at 11 for deceased, who was a son of the late Isaac and Eliza Brown. Services were held in the home, in the United Church and at the graveside.

An old friend of the family, Joshua Ridley, drove the wagon and greys which bore the casket to the church. Many beautiful flowers, gifts of many friends, decorated the casket. The local band preceded the mourners, playing suitable marches.

At the graveside the young people sang a beautiful hymn from the Salvation Army Song Book.

Rev. B. Black, assisted by Alfred McDames, Peter Mark and Captain J. H. Johnson, conducted the services. Pailbearers were Arthur McDames, Peter Mark, Captain Johnson and Bert Russell. After the ceremony the people all gathered in the McDames Hall and the usual dinner with eulogistic speeches was entered into by the friends and relatives continuing an age long custom.

Deceased is survived by two brothers, Ed. Brown and Peter Brown, also one sister, Mrs. J. H. Johnson.

SUCCESSFUL CONCERT

The concert held by the Kitkatla Band in the Exhibition Hall last Thursday night drew a large and appreciative audience. An excellent program was rendered by the native bandsmen. W. M. Brown, chairman of the Coronation Celebration committee, acted as chairman and there was a brief speech by F. A. MacCallum.

KITSEGUKLA

S. Maltinson of the Babine Indian Agency was in Kitzegukla this week attending to business connected with his department.

Bert Russell this week purchased in Smithers a brand new car.

Most local natives spent Coronation Day celebrating in Hazelton. However, two of the more ambitious, Ed. Wesley and David W. Milton, went to Prince Rupert. Mr. Wesley hopes to join his wife and family there.

Union steamer Catala, Capt. James Findlay, returned to port at 9:30 this morning from her regular voyage to Stewart, Anyox and other northern points and sailed at 1:30 p.m. for Vancouver and waypoints.

USK

A very enjoyable program to procure a gramaphone for the school was held recently in Lee's Hall. Community singing was led by Mr. Hewson of Terrace and several dramatic recitations were given by Mrs. Hewson. Colored lantern slides, depicting scenes from Halifax to Victoria, were shown by Rev. Adam Crisp.

A Mother's Day service was conducted by Rev. Adam Crisp in Marsh Memorial Church. The building was beautifully decorated with flowers for the occasion. A baptismal service was held and eight candidates were received.

In spite of rain a cheering truckload of school children left here to participate in the Terrace program on Coronation Day. Reminiscent of covered wagon days, the truck was covered with canvas and the occupants had a merry and jubilant time though in somewhat limited and cramped quarters.

The first of a series of weekly softball games between the local girls' team and the school team "Uskids" was held last Saturday. The game was won by the school team.

The Skeena Highway road camp some two miles east of here, has re-opened. It is hoped the work will continue during the summer.

The first Liberal meeting of the present election will be held tonight. The principal speaker will be George Nickerson of Prince Rupert.

Douglas Lay and Dr. Joseph T. Mandy, district mining engineers, have been here during the past week.

A special patriotic program was held in the school on the day preceding Coronation Day. The children were presented with Coronation badges and souvenir booklets. Messages from Lord Tweedsmuir, Lieutenant-Governor E. W. Hamber, Premier Pattullo and Hon. Dr. G. M. Weir were read. A sports program was held in the school playground. Songs interspersed were "The Maple Leaf," "These Things Shall Be," "God Save the King."

The usual fortnightly church service on Friday was conducted by Rev. C. A. Hinchliffe on May 14. An inspiring and thoughtful address on "Be ye doers of the Word and not hearers only" was given.

Autobiographical talks by two new members, J. H. McClinton and J. O. Williamson, will be given at the regular weekly luncheon of the Prince Rupert Gyro Club tomorrow. Mr. Williamson will also be initiated.

Harvey Davies, Smithers hotel proprietor, and his daughter, Mrs. M. C. McDonald, who were here as witnesses at the session of the Supreme Court Asiszes last week, left by last evening's train on their return to the interior.

ZIEGFELD DEPICTED

Great Musical and Dramatic Spectacle Here at First of Week At Capitol Theatre

Replete with melodious music, specialty features and a heart-gripping double romance, a colorful musical comedy spectacle, "The Great Ziegfeld," based on the life of the noted entertainment producer, opened at the Capitol Theatre before a large and appreciative audience last night and will be presented again tonight and tomorrow.

The story opens in Ziegfeld's youth in the dazzling Chicago World's Fair of 1893. It progresses with the career of Ziegfeld, showing how he masses fortunes to lose them and build others. Always in the background are his spectacular musical comedy productions.

William Powell plays the part of Ziegfeld and turns in a fine performance. The role of Anne Held, the great producer's first wife, is taken by Luise Rainer while Myrna Loy plays the lovely Billie Burke, Ziegfeld's second wife. Such other luminaries as Fannie Brice, Harriet Hoctor, Frank Morgan, Virginia Bruce, Nat Pendleton and Reginald Owen are also included in a distinguished cast.

Not only does the picture unfold the life of Ziegfeld but it presents a cross-section of the American theatrical world for the last quarter of a century. The settings are most spectacular, rivalling anything which has been offered in previous pictures along this line.

The Ketchikan motorship Beloil was in port again this morning with another carload of frozen halibut for transshipment East over Canadian National Railways.
