BPOE lodge setting for "Bluebird Ball"

"Bluebird Ball" chairman, E. H. Knight announced today that the Prince Rupert branch of the Canadian Arthritis and Rheumatism Society will be the guest in the Benevolent Protective Order of Elk's lodge for the fifth annual ball to be held February 24.

BPOE Exalted Ruler, Harley Lewis has consented to act as master of ceremonies for the gala social highlight to be staged from 9 p.m. until 2 a.m.

The executive of the Women's auxiliary to CARS are preserving a discrete silence about phoposed table decorations, Mr. Knight said.

"But it is confidently anticipated that it will again surprise and delight everyone with its ingenuity," the chairman announced.

Tickets which include refreshments and dancing to the "Hartly Bay Five", are available from CARS executive members, and all proceeds will be allocated to CARS current campaign funds to make up the present deficit.

The BPOE each year donates its lodge free to CARS for the use of the Bluebird Ball and this year the Order of the Royal Purple will supervise the refreshments.

The Hartley Bay Five also each year provides its music free as a customary donation to CARS local campaign funds.

Drawing for the beautiful ceramic table, which has been on display in Prince Rupert stores, will take place during the ball.

Girl Guide LA tea event supports work of movement

One of the main functions held each year by the Prince Rupert Girl Guide Local association to support the work of Brownies and Girl Guides in the Prince Rupert district is the sponsorship of a late winter tea.

This year the social function will be held February 18 in St. Andrew's Anglican Cathedral hall.

"If anyone has been missed in the door-to-door ticket selling campaign, being conducted by Brownies and Girl Guides, tea tickets may be obtained at Cook's Jewellers or Mitchell's Flower and Gift Shop," LA chairman Mrs. B. B. Milnes said today.

General convener for the afternoon affair is Mrs. R. E. McKeown.

Asked to preside at the tea cups are Mrs. Richard Farmer, Mrs. Graham Alexander, Mrs. J. R. Ayres and Mrs. George J. Brown.

Mrs. W. A. Shultz will be in charge of hall decor and tea tables.

In charge of the home-baking table is Mrs. Ralph Johnston.

Directing the kitchen is Mrs. W. C. Turner.

Mrs. A. M. Rivett will handle the door tickets.

Mrs. Milnes, who will receive at the door, today extended an invitation to the public to attend the LA tea.

Four new members given corsages at WOTM session

Mrs. Jake Anton, Mrs. Mary Horn, Mrs. Bobo Pakozdy and Mrs. Margaret Levine were presented carnation corsages of welcome Wednesday night when they were received into the Women of the Moose Chapter No. 211 at the chapter's regular meeting.

Chairman of the night's program for the Hospital committee, Mrs. Matthew Garbelya presented the corsages and gave an interesting talk on the work of the committee.

Mrs. Peter Brass and Mrs. Michael Karasosky volunteered to represent the WOTM student bursary committee to meet with the Prince Rupert high school principals.

In other business, Mrs. George Shenton reported that the "House Bingo" staged by the Childcare committe was successful.

Mrs. John Kasper was named chairman of a pledge fund to raise money for the building fund. A meeting at her home was set for Sunday night.

Presiding Senior Regent Mrs. Thomas Thomas announced that the convener of the spring bazaar, Mrs. Michael Munizaba had met with various chapter development committee chairmen to make further plans. She asked members to save and embroider the tea towels available in some soap packages, to be turned in for the bazaar.

The bake sale being held by the Moosehaven committee to raise funds for bedspreads for Moosehaven will be held in Baxter's Prince Rupert Florists and not Gordon & Anderson's as previously mentioned.

Plans are set for the Publicity committee's Valentine Frolic, to be held February 17 in the Moose hall.

All members of the ritual team were asked to attend the practice set for Monday, February 27 at 7:30 p.m.

Members were reminded of the rummage and auction sale taking place tonight in the Moose hall and sponsored by the Library committee with Ted Thomson in charge.

Mrs. William McCallum's name was drawn for the lucky draw and winners of the Hospital committee raffle was Mrs. Yvonne Smith. Bingo and refreshments concluded the session.

RN's hold elections March 1

A nomination committee, headed by public health nurse Miss Marguerite Perry, was named Wednesday night when the Prince Rupert branch of the Registered Nurses association of B.C. held its regular meeting in the Nurses' Residence.

President Mrs. Victor Pick was in the chair and announced that the next meeting March 1 will be election of new officers.

Toni White, well - known interior decorating consultant was guest speaker at the session.

In her most interesting address Mrs. White stressed the use of wall coverings. She also explained how to contrast types of drapery and chesterfield coverings, in relation to the wall and floor coverings.

Refreshments were served to conclude the meeting.

Pupils urged to complete projects

Mrs. W. C. Peterson, Civic Centre junior program director and Joy Himan, Arts and Crafts director make the following appeal to parents:

"Don't let your child start a class if he doesn't intend to stay with it."

This is costly to the Civic Centre in time and material. All Junior Ceramic and Craft students who have started projects are asked to go back to their class and finish projects that they've started.

Saturday Art class students are asked to attend regularly and on time. These classes are from 9:30 to 11 a.m. on Saturdays for the six to eight year-olds and from 1 to 3 p.m. Saturdays for the nine to 13-year-olds.

The older class has gone out doors to draw for the last two classes. Whenever the weather is dry and warm this is done as often as practical. So parents, send the boys and girls warmly dressed in old clothes and with boots to protect their feet.

CHRISTIAN DISCIPLESHIP"

"Padre," said some one on the street the other day, "how can I become a real disciple of Christ?" And prayerfully, searching for a simple, challenging answer I replied: first you must get to know your Leader, Jesus Christ, by acknowledging him as the Divine Son of God. The Saviour of all mankind, but especially "your" Saviour—then begin by giving as much of your life as you can to as much of Him as you understand: Live up to as much faith and light as you have.

Now this involves a decision. Last summer I talked with a brilliant intellectual undergraduate, and seemed to make little or no impression upon him. Later on however, he came to be in great trouble over a situation that had arisen between him and his fiancee. He did not understand it, and was afraid of losing her. This is, perhaps the darkest and yet greatest day of your life, I suggested.

Perhaps through this experience you will find God and real life — most of us, you see, like to move directly upward from ordinary life to a kind of superior life. God offers through Christ — but generally that is not how it happens. Christ did not go up directly from Palm Sunday to Easter, He went down from Palm Sunday to Good Friday and then up to Easter.

The depth of that abyss may be where we feel our full despair, and yet find God. Some one has said that the downward movement forms the V that is the real victory which overcomes the world.

He turned his life and his problem over to God, and, a few days later I met them both in church together. He was smiling when he said "I feel so much stronger in every way, even though I am just learning to walk, to be a disciple of Jesus Christ."

Second, begin using the means of Grace which Christ gave us to keep in touch with God. Regular prayers, consecutive Bible reading and attendance at your church, which are three things no Christian is able to get along without. They begin to be living and real when we have made a determined start on Christian discipleship—We shall also need the help and the prayers of other Christians, do not try to do it by yourself. For a Christian is one who has been born into a family of believers.

And finally, keep asking God's will for your life day by day. Get Christ in on the big decisions as well as the little ones. Christian discipleship is the same definite, exacting allegiance as it always was—just as much in conflict with the world, the flesh and the devil in Prince Rupert as it was in Palestine for the first disciples, but it's just as great an adventure, and joy and satisfaction. Don't miss it!

Sonja Ladies birthday fete February 18

Mrs. Henry Wahl was welcomed as a new member Wednesday night when the Sonja Ladies held its regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Peter Lien with president Mrs. Anton Strand presiding.

Plans for the group's 30th anniversary banquet were completed to be held February 18 with Mrs. John Pedersen convening. Anyone wishing tickets for the birthday fete may telephone Mrs. Pedersen at 4269.

A bake sale will be held in the Co-Op Centre March 30 with Mrs. Jack Strand as converer.

Mrs. Pedersen won the chair prize and the lucky draw was won by Mrs. Fritz Mostad. Next meeting March 8 will be held at the home of Mrs. Rayner Montgomery.
