Decoration Day Observed Here

Ceremony Yesterday at Cenotaph And Cemetery

About fifty persons were present at the Decoration Day ceremonies at the Cenotaph and Fairview Cemetery yesterday afternoon. The ceremony was conducted by the Queen Mary Chapter, Imperial Order of the Daughters of the Empire, assisted by the other chapters of the I.O.D.E., and by the Canadian Legion and Women's Auxiliary.

A wreath was laid on the cenotaph by Mrs. D. Orchard McLeod, regent of Municipal Chapter. Those present then proceeded in cars to the cemetery where a brief but impressive service was conducted by C. V. Evitt, who spoke of the spirit of comradeship among the soldiers and that this spirit should be kept alive by the returned veterans.

The "Last Post" was played by Bugler Rance. The hymns were accompanied by George Brown.

During the service the graves in the soldiers plot were decorated with flags and flowers.

ADDRESSES CLUB HERE

Regional Official From Victoria Is Heard by Womens Canadian Club

On Saturday afternoon Mrs. A. Carmichael of Victoria, vice-chairman of the Regional Council of the Women's Canadian Club, addressed the members of the local club at a tea in the Boston Cafe. The speaker was introduced by the President, Mrs. F. N. Good.

Some years ago, Mrs. Carmichael explained, those interested in the work of the Canadian Club realized that something more should be done to help the smaller clubs of the Province to get speakers to address them than was possible for the National Council at Ottawa to do. So the regional council was formed. This council sits two years in Victoria and two years in Vancouver alternately and its officers are elected for two years. There are no paid officers. The small amount of five dollars a month is allowed for stenography. No other province in the Dominion has a regional council. The national council remits 50 percent of the affiliation dues paid by the clubs of the province to the regional council. Mrs. Carmichael promised that the regional council would endeavor to place more speakers with them than had been done in the past.

Mrs. Carmichael then gave a talk on some outstanding personalities which had impressed her very much. Among others she spoke of Dr. Y. C. Yen and his wonderful educational work among the lower classes in China, of the outstanding achievements of Madame Curie in the discovery of radium, and of the distinguished Nyro, scientists of Tuskegee Institute, Dr. George Washington Carver, renowned for his chemical wizardry.

Mrs. Carmichael left by the Prince Rupert in the evening for her home in Victoria.

Typos Honor President On Leaving City

Gathering at the office of James M. Campbell Saturday afternoon, members of the Prince Rupert Typographical Union honored their president, Harry G. Kennedy, on the eve of his departure for Prince George where he will take up future residence. On behalf of the union, A. O. Franks, the secretary, presented Mr. Kennedy with a fine pen and pencil set. Suitable sentiments were expressed by Mr. Franks in making the presentation and by Mr. Kennedy in receiving the gift.

Surprise Party Saturday Night

Presentations Made to H. G. Kennedy at Affair Saturday Night

Some forty or so friends gathered Saturday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Nickerson in a surprise party in honor of H. G. Kennedy prior to his departure for Prince George to reside. The feature of the evening's proceedings was the presentation to Mr. Kennedy of a handsome vegetable dish, rose bowl and silver candlestick holders. The presentation was made by G. W. Nickerson who voiced suitable sentiments, Mr. Kennedy responded appreciatively. Cards were played during the evening and delicious refreshments served.

WHIFFLETS
From the Waterfront

The date of the closing of the halibut fishing season in Area No. 2 on July 28 is thirteen days earlier than last year. It was expected that the closing would come earlier this year in view of the more intensive fishing.

There were 176 passengers aboard the steamer Princess Charlotte which was in port Saturday afternoon southbound from Skagway to Vancouver. One person disembarked from the vessel here while three boarded her at this port for the south.

Southbound from Alaska to Vancouver, C. N. R. steamer Prince Robert, Capt. H. E. Nedlen, arrived in port at 9 o'clock Sunday morning from the north and sailed at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. The vessel had on board a total of 317 passengers. Two disembarked here.

Dr. R. H. Bedford and O. C Young of the Prince Rupert Fisheries Experimental Station staff who sailed on the Princess Charlotte Saturday afternoon for Vancouver, will proceed from Vancouver to Montreal with an experimental fish-laden refrigerator car embodying new refrigeration equipment and technique which the local station has been working upon for some time. This shipment will be along somewhat similar lines to another which was made last summer under the personal supervision of Mr. Young.

Sockeye gillnet boats outside of Finlayson Island last week report having brought up their nets covered with a greyish ooze-like silt. The occurrence was somewhat unusual and suggests some disturbance or phenomenon out of the ordinary in the water. It was only in the one locality that it was reported.

The co-operative packer Azurite delivered 3,000 pounds of coho salmon and 1,000 pounds of spring salmon from Zayas Island and 2,500 pounds of spring salmon from Dundas. The troller Donna, Capt. Emil Jensen, delivered 300 pounds of coho salmon and 300 pounds of spring salmon and the troller Sea Stoirm, Capt. A. Hanson, delivered 500 pounds of coho and 500 pounds of spring salmon. The troller La Paloma delivered 400 pounds of spring salmon and 800 pounds of coho. The advanced prices were 9c and 6c for spring and 5c for coho.

Two Alaska tourist liners were in port this morning, both arriving at 9 o'clock. The C. P. R. steamer Princess Louise, Capt. S. K. Gray, was in from Vancouver, sailing at 11 a.m. for Skagway. C. N. R. steamer Prince George, Capt. Edward Mabbs, arrived from Skagway and sails at 3 p.m. for Ocean Falls, Powell River and Vancouver. Both vessels have full passenger lists. There were 223 aboard the Princess Louise including 162 round trippers and three who disembarked at this port. Four left here for the north aboard the vessel. There were 199 passengers on the Prince George, eight disembarking here.

The eKtchikan motorship Beloit was in port this morning with one carload of fresh halibut for transhipment East over Canadian National Railways on this evening's train.

COMEDIES FEATURED

"Walking on Air" and "The Holy Terror" at Capitol Theatre At First of Week

An hilarious musical comedy, "Walking on Air," starring Gene Raymond and Ann Sothern, and a rollicking mirth provoker "The Holy Terror," featuring Jane Withers, comes to the screen of the Capitol Theatre here on a first of the week double bill.

"Walking on Air" relates the experiences of two young college men who advertise for positions as secretary and bodyguard, when they find themselves without work and destitute. Unbeknown to each other they are hired by a millionaire and his temperamental daughter respectively. The complications which develop and the final denouement combine to provide fast-moving entertainment. Henry Stephenson and Jessie Ralph are other important members of the cast. Popular song hits are introduced into the action as radio episodes. Settings are smart and modern.

In "Walking on Air" Jane Withers is the pet of a naval air base. She gets into such mischief that a sailor is assigned to look after her. The sailor becomes the habitue of an inn which turns out to be a spy hang-out. Considerable excitement develops and culminates in a rapid-fire climax. Anthony Martin and Leah Ray, a new romantic team, head the supporting cast.
