Mahaffey strikes out 17 Cub batters

Falls one short of major record

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Young Art Mahaffey of Philadelphia Phillies struck out 17 Chicago Cubs Sunday, falling only one short of the major league record, in the outstanding development of a busy baseball day.

Mahaffey pitched a four-hitter as the Phillies added a 6-0 shutout to Frank Sullivan's 1-0 job in the opener.

Los Angeles remained in the National League lead with a 5-1 victory over Cincinnati when San Francisco had to settle for a split with St. Louis. The Giants won the first 2-1 and held a two-run lead going to the ninth inning of the second game before the Cards came up with five runs and won 7-4. Warren Spahn of Milwaukee beat Pittsburgh 3-1 on his 40th birthday.

Detroit ran its winning streak to seven and stretched Los Angeles' losing string to seven by taking two games from the Angels 3-1 and 3-2 in 11 innings. The two victories put the Tigers a half game ahead of the Minnesota Twins in the American League, despite the Twins' 1-0 decision over Washington Senators on Jack Kralick's four-hitter.

BIRDS BOUNCE YANKS

Baltimore roughed up the New York pitching for 13 hits and a 4-1 victory with Brooks Robinson and Jackie Brandt each getting three hits. Mickey Mantle's fifth homer provided the only Yank run off Chuck Estrada.

Boston beat Chicago 4-3 behind Tom Brewer in the opener but the White Sox came back to take the second 7-1 as Bob Shaw scattered nine hits. Cleveland finally downed Kansas City 10-8 on a wild pitch and a throwing error in a two-run ninth inning rally. Each team used seven pitchers, the total of 14 tying the major league mark and setting a new high for the American League.

Mahaffey, a 22-year-old right hander who built up a 7-3 record last year after he was brought up from Buffalo, struck out nine in the first four innings and went into the ninth with 16. He fanned the first man but that was it.

Bobby Feller of Cleveland set the major league record of 18 in 1938 and Sandy Koufax of Los Angeles Dodgers tied it in 1959.

Pender decisions 'gallant' Basilio

BOSTON (AP) — Paul Pender — a convincing decision over gallant Carmen Basilio behind him —has picked England's Terry Downes as the next challenger for his share of the world middleweight championship.

Pender, sprawled on a dressing room table after his two-knockdown, 15 - round decision over former champ Basilio Saturday, said he will fight Downes in London July 3 for the title recognized in Massachusetts, New York and Europe.

He said he will go to England in June and train there for a second bout with the tough young belter he stopped in seven rounds in Boston January 14. He didn't mention any figures but previously had said he had a $100,000 guarantee for the fight.

Pender, his left eye cut and swelling, said Downes was much the same type of fighter as Basilio, adding: "Downes doesn't know as much, but he's a lot stronger."

He said the fight, viewed by a Boston Garden crowd of 12,168, went just about as he had planned:

"Let him come to me, wear himself out, then take it. I thought I had it from the fifth on and could breeze on in."

Sports Shop dumps Bob Parker's to take lead in final puck series

A third-period rally gave Sports Shop a 15-8 victory over a tired but game Bob Parker's club in the first game of the senior floor hockey championship Saturday night at the Civic Centre.

The win gave Sports Shop a 1-0 lead in the best-of-five series to determine the senior champions.

After being held to a 3-3 draw at the end of the first period, Sports Shop pulled slightly ahead in the second and held a 6-4 lead entering the final period.

Many of the Parker players were recruited from the junior ranks and had just finished playing in the first game of the junior championship between Van's Bakery and Philpott Evitt when they had to go at it again for Parker's.

The strain showed in the second period and became an obvious factor in the third frame when the boys simply ran out of steam and Sports Shop ran all over them.

The game was fast and rough but few penalties were called.

Sports Shop picked up nine penalties while Parker's received only three.

Parker goalie Ray Windle handled 61 shots and played a fair game. But he was hampered by the fact that his defence had reached the exhaustive point.

Gil "the cat" Gowdry played a solid game in goal for Sports Shop and handled 57 shots.

Gordy Cameron and Tom Tanaka paced the Sports Shop attack while Larry Atchison, Phil Gurney and Bob Johnson each had two goals for Parker's.

In the junior game, Van's edged Philpott 18-17 to take a 1-0 lead in their best-of-five series for the junior championship.

Van's had roared into a 7-1 lead in the first period and it looked like another slaughter.

But paced by the nine goals of Robert Ericksen, Philpott bounced back into contention, tied the game up and even held the lead towards the end of the game.

Entering the third period, Philpott was down 13-10. They scored one and gave up one.

Then with the score 14-11, Philpott proceeded to pump in four straight goals and hold a 15-14 margin.

Because of the huge lead that the bakers held at the end of the first period, Van's coach Moe Dean decided to pull regular goalie Ray Windle and rest him up for the senior game.

Larry Atchison handled the netminders chores for the second period and part of the third.

But with Van's losing and less than six minutes left to play, Dean pulled Atchison and Windle returned in the face of much argument. It was argued that a golie couldn't be replaced in the third period except for injury. But Dean won the argument and Windle stayed.

Atchison marked his return as an offensive player in fine style by scoring the tying goal.

Skip Cronck and Jack Martin gave Van's the lead again, but Ericksen and Taki Omori tied it up 17-17.

Cronck scored the winning goal with 16 seconds left to play. He took a pass from Martin and blasted a shot from just inside the centre line which tabbed the corner.

Besides Ericksen's one - man effort for Philpott, Taki Omori and Peter Holland tallied three goals each for Philpott.

Cronck pumped in seven goals for Van's while Jim Murdoch added three.

The two Van's goalies handled a total of 59 shots while Philpott goalie Ernie Baines also handled 59.

Majors take series

TORONTO (CP) — St. Michael's College Majors Sunday won a berth to the Memorial Cup final after a whirlwind series that left the opposition shaking their heads in bewilderment.

The Majors wrapped up the best-of-five series in the minimum number of games by bombing Beavers 11-2, the same score as in Wednesday's opener. In between they eased off for a 6-2 victory.

Montreal's Geoffrion chosen to all-star team

MONTREAL (CP) — Montreal's Bernie (Boom Boom) Geoffrion, who played in the shadow of former teammate Maurice (Rocket) Richard for 10 years, reached another milestone Sunday in his spectacular hockey career by being chosen to the National Hockey League's 1960-61 first all-star team.

Geoffrion polled 177 of a possible 180 points for top spot at right wing, a post shared by Detroit's Gordie Howe and Richard during the previous 14 seasons.

BOOM BOOM GEOFFRION
. . . . reaches milestone

Geoffrion scored 50 goals in winning the league scoring championship this season—tying Richard's long standing record set in a 50-game schedule in 1944-45.

BROKE MONOPOLY

Detroit's Marcel Pronovost was the only player to break the Montreal - Toronto monopoly on the first team. He was chosen for a post on defence.

Beliveau collected 170 points; Mahovlich 175; Bower 156; Harvey 169 and Pronovost 104.

Named to the second team with points in brackets: Glenn Hall, (113) Chicago Black Hawks, goal; Allan Stanley (68), Toronto and Pierre Pilote (53), Chicago, defence; Henri Richard (51), Montreal, centre; Gordie Howe, (102) Detroit, right wing; Dickie Moore (93), Montreal, left wing.

Each member of the first team will receive $1,000 from the league while second team members get $500.

WHL votes California expansion

By JIM PEACOCK
Canadian Press Staff Writer

VANCOUVER (CP) — The Western Hockey League has expanded into California in what league governors describe as the first giant stride toward achieving major league status.

Addition of Los Angeles and San Francisco and dropping of Victoria was approved Sunday at the league's annual meeting.

Directors said they believe the move will lead to a challenge within three to five years for the Stanley Cup.

The NHL took over sole possession of the Stanley Cup in 1927, 10 years after the league was formed. Between 1917 and 1927, the NHL and the old Pacific Coast League played off for Lord Stanley's famed trophy.

Al Leader, re - elected president of the WHL and given a three - year term, said the league will seek exemption from the NHL player draft so WHL clubs can protect their roster.

NHL WILL SETTLE CHANGE

NHL clubs now may draft any number of players from WHL clubs for $20,000 a player. The WHL will seek a change to this during the NHL annual meeting in Montreal June 11-13.

The WHL will determine its approach to the NHL when directors meet in Calgary June 8.

The California move was the major item of business during the league's two - day annual meeting here.

Jim Piggott, Saskatoon businessmen who operated Victoria Cougars during the season just ended, was given permission to transfer his franchise to Los Angeles, where his club will play out of the new 14,000-seat coliseum.

Coley Hall, Vancouver hotel owner and hockey promoter here since 1945, won the San Francisco franchise over a bid entered by Jack Perrin, owner of Winnipeg Warriors. Hall will put a brand new club into San Francisco's 12,000-seat Cow Palace where he also must raise more than $200,000 to install an ice plant in time for the 1961-62 season, scheduled to open October 13.

Maroons in running

KITCHENER, Ont. (CP) — Winnipeg Maroons found the Kitchener ice much to their liking Sunday and blasted their way back into the running for the Canadian senior hockey championship.

They scored two first - period goals and made them stand up for a 2-1 victory over Galt Terriers in the third game of the best-of-seven Allan Cup final which Galt now leads 2-1.

Mounties top Islanders

By The Canadian Press

. . . Palm trees, sunshine and pineapples are synonymous with Hawaii, but before the 1961 Pacific Coast League baseball season ends a bumper harvest of home runs could well be produced.

The Hawaii Islanders, the new entry, combined with Vancouver Mounties to clout 24 round - trippers in their inaugural series, a five game stand that the Mounties took by winning the deciding contest 14-3.

And as was the case in the first four games, the big bat spelled the difference between victory and defeat, the Mounties tatooing out 17 hits, including two home runs by hard-hitting Howie Goss and another by rookie Denis Menke.

The Islanders, who finished with 13 homes in the series, had two in the final Sunday, Ray Jablonski getting his third and Rae Slider his second.

The real noise for the Mounties came in the final inning when they doubled their score by pushing across seven runs. Eddie Charles with four hits, Goss with four runs batted in and catcher Charlie White with three hits were the power behind Vancouver's victory.

Fred Besana got the win with relief help from southpaw Fred Baczewski, while Tom Baker took the loss.

In other games, San Diego Padres edged Seattle Rainiers twice 6-5 and 4-3 scoring the winning run in each game in the last inning; Tacoma Giants whipped Spokane Indians 5-1 and Salt Lake City took a 3-2 decision from Portland. The Padres twin victories gave them sole possession of first place in the team standings, as the clubs switch around today for new series. Vancouver goes to San Diego, Portland to Tacoma, Seattle to Salt Lake City and Spokane to the home run paradise in Hawaii.

Why Stay in School?

All teen-agers capable of absorbing an education should stay in school until they graduate. The problem often is to convince them why. Sun Life's leaflet, "Why Stay in School?" explains the challenge, the tremendous promise and the increased future income that are theirs with a completed high school education. If you have teen-age children, you should get a copy of this booklet for them. "Why Stay in School?" and other booklets in the Values in Education series, offered as a public service by Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada, are available without charge or obligation.
