MISS ZANA VAUGHN

GYMNASIUM HAS BEEN FITTED AT WINDSOR

Billy Wright, Proprietor of the Windsor Has Fitted up a Gym. for Young Fellows

Placed in the position which this city is at present in regard to the opportunity the youth of the community have for indulging in any form of outdoor athletics, anything that offers in the shape of an indoor game is welcomed with open arms.

"Billy" Wright, the popular proprietor of the Windsor Hotel, in making practical arrangements in the spacious basement of his hotel for a gymnasium, where boxing, fencing, bag punching, wrestling, and other healthy and manly sports can be indulged in, has earned the thanks of a large number of the boys of the city.

At a considerable amount of expense to himself he has fitted up a Turkish bath room, and hot and cold shower douche; so that the lads after having a set to with the gloves or wrestling bout on the mat, can have a rub down and massage, thus get in the very best of shape and trim, equal to any professional in the game.

Great interest is being taken by the boys in the practice of the noble art of self defense, and there is every likelihood of some youngster or other suddenly turning out to be a "hammer," who will be able to uphold the fame and honor of Prince Rupert in the athletic world.

"Billy" also has a string of "kiddies" on hand, who are shaping marvellously, little chaps from nine to thirteen years of age. He is taking particular care and interest in them devoting a lot of time in the afternoons to coaching and training them. There is no roughness or horse play allowed, the lads having to get the consent of their parents to allow them to visit the gymnasium before they are eligible to "Billy's" juvenile boxing class.

Mr. Wright is a first class allround good fellow and sport, a Klondiker of the '97 brand, and known to nearly everyone who ever went over the White Pass into the land of gold, and the Midnight Sun.
