What to serve that's different?

The question "What to serve that is different?" has plagued housewives for ages. But the smart housewife who shops at the CO-OP has little difficulty planning real variety into her meals. The variety of merchandise carried in the CO-OP CENTRE is the answer to "what to serve for dinner". Quality meats, fresher by far produce and oh! so many different kinds of canned foods. Yes indeed the houseswife who shops CO-OP has more time for herself because shopping at the CO-OP makes meal planning easy.
