CLEAN THE STREETS

A vast improvement could be made in the appearance of the streets of Prince Rupert if a little attention were paid to this matter. For some weeks past the up-turned top of a delivery wagon in a most dilapidated condition has been allowed to be in the roadway on one of the principal thoroughfares of the city. It is not only an eyesore to the public, but an actual danger to vehicles, as it is within a very few feet of the travelled portion of the roadway. The sidewalks on the principal business streets are unnecessarily used for the storage of all kinds of merchandise.

The police officers should be instructed to look after such matters, using the discretion that is due to the peculiar conditions of a new and growing city.

MR. W. MANSON INCORRECT.

According to the report of William Manson's speech at the Conservative meeting last night he attributed to Messrs. Ralph Smith and Duncan Ross the statement that when the Mother Country wanted help she would ask for it. Mr. Manson must know, as well as anyone who was at the Liberal meeting last week, that neither of the two gentlemen mentioned any such thing. What was said, and Mr. Manson heard it as well as anyone was that the Mother Country had never asked for any help, in the way of a cash contribution, but had intimidated through her experts repeatedly that the colonies would effect a greater Imperial good by protecting their own trade and shores than by direct cash contribution.

It really is too soon after the Liberal meeting to start ascribing false sentiments and statements to the speakers for political capital.
