East came up with a neat bit of card reading in defence of today's hand.

While the final contract was reasonable enough, the method by which it was reached can hardly be approved as a model for the student. South did not disport himself in a manner to conform with the high traditions of his position. The rebid of two no trump does not fit his holding either as to shape or size. A jump rebid in no trump by the opening bidder should be based upon a high card count of 19 points and South's proper rebid, therefore, was merely one spade.

The two of spades was led and the queen forced the ace. South then cashed the ace and king of diamonds and followed with the deuce of clubs to dummy's queen which was taken by East's ace. On this trick West followed with the seven of clubs, a fact which had not escaped the attention of our alert Mr. East. It was reasonable to assume that declarer had the jack of clubs which marked the seven as a singleton, since there would be no point to West playing the higher of two worthless clubs in this situation.

At this juncture, it became clear that West's distribution was 4-4-4-1. The reasoning is very neat. The opening of the two of spades marks him with exactly four of that suit. The fall of the club seven marks him with only one. His eight red cards are divided evenly. There are two clues to this. First, the manner in which declarer played the ace and king of diamonds to clear the suit suggested that declarer had only two. Secondly, if West had a five card red suit, he would probably have opened it in preference to a four card spade suit. So it becomes clear that declarer has only two hearts.

The natural inclination for East would be to return a spade but a moment's consideration will reveal that declarer must have the suit stopped again because, if West had either the K-J-10-2 or K-10-9-2, he would probably have made the opening lead of an honor instead of the deuce. On this line of reasoning, East returned the ten of hearts and declarer was helpless to fulfill his contract. Declarer went up with the king in an effort to preserve the queen as a winner. The trick was taken by the ace and the four of hearts came back. Declarer had to go up with the queen. He could not afford to let East in to come through the spade. His hope now rested with the club suit. When that failed to break he was held to eight tricks, and East was properly rewarded for a neat bit of diagnosis.

Fashion Footwear atop women's softball loop

Fashion Footwear moved into sole possession of first place in the Prince Rupert Womens' Softball league last night with a convincing 18 to 11 victory over Wahl's Boatyard.

Playing before a capacity holiday crowd at Gyro Park, Fashion hammered two Wahl's pitchers for a total of 18 hits, seven of them in the top of the seventh inning which produced six runs and all but put the game out of reach as the store crew opened an 18-9 lead.

	W	L	Pct.
Fashion	2	0	1.000
Wahls	1	1	.500
High School	1	1	.500
Savoy Hotel	0	2	.500

Wahls came up with a three-hit attack in their half of the seventh inning after two were out, and with the help of a Fashion error, could only muster two runs.

In the top of the third inning with Wahls leading 6-3, Fashion scored six runs on three hits, two errors and four walks off hurler Carol White, to take a 9-6 lead which they never lost. Wahls, however tied the score 9-9 in the bottom of the fourth on four hits and one Fashion error.

Fashion regained the lead in the fifth with two hits, a walk and two Wahls errors.

Winning pitcher Frances Doanne gave up 18 hits, walked none, and struck out none.

Losing pitcher Carol White in three innings gave up six hits, walked eight and struck out one. Relief pitcher Frieda Johnson in four innings gave up 12 hits, walked two and struck out one.

Afield both teams left 10 runners on the basepaths, Fashion committed five errors, Wahls were charged with eight.

Fashion's Bernice Prier and Wahls Jean Billing both enjoyed a perfect night at the plate batting four for four.

Umpires were Mike Karasosky behind the plate and Verri Dexter at first.

Linescores:

Wahls	330	300	2	11	18	5
