TEAM MAY PAY VISIT

Effort Being Made To Get Vancouver Maple Leafs To Prince Rupert

Basketball fans are in for a fine Christmas present this year if plans of the local Standard Oil basketeers materialize. They will see in action the famous Vancouver Maple Leafs, former Canadian Senior Men's titleholders and Canada's representative on an extensive tour of the Orient last summer.

The team is due on December 28 for two games, on the 28th and 29th, travelling C. N. both coming and returning. The team itself comprises the pick of the Senior men in British Columbia and is considered top favorite to recapture the Canadian championship which they lost to the Victoria Dominoes last winter. In all there are five men who formerly played on Canadian championship squads and each and every one is a veteran at the hoop game.

Definite word of their visit will not be announced until the promoters satisfy themselves as to their ability to raise funds to make this series possible. There are to be no donations asked of anyone although there is a plan whereby the public can be of great help in financing the games.

Realizing that, when anything of a public nature comes up that could stand any financial support, it is left to the business men to furnish the capital, the ball players have hit on a plan definitely different.

To have this team come up the coast there has to be a guarantee set aside in the form of a certified cheque, though said cheque need never be cashed. To get this money together the plan is to borrow it from anyone who cares to trust the team with the money. If enough money can be borrowed it will be deposited and paid back as soon as the money comes in at the gates. There is definitely no danger of anyone losing on their goodwill to support this movement as the records of former series up until last season fully warrant the guarantee offered.

Basketball Next Month

Plans are now being made for New Metlakatla and Ketchikan basketball teams to visit Prince Rupert early next year with the locals going north on a return excursion later. Tentative arrangenents are going on for the series to take place next month. As far as games in Prince Rupert are concerned everything is dependent upon a suitable venue for the playing of games being obtained. Possibly permission may yet be obtained to use the Armory. Meanwhile local all star players are keeping in shape to make a creditable defence for Prince Rupert whenever the opportunity presents itself. Next Friday Standard Oil squad will meet a team representing Canadian Scottish and Irish Fusiliers in an exhibition game at the Armory.

SPORT CHAT

Professional hockey made its New York debut 14 years ago last night with more than 19,000 Gothamites in attendance. Montreal Canadiens, an "original" team of the National Hockey League, showed up the still green New York Americans with a 3-1 score.

Ending a brief but hectic career, "Battling" Siki, Sengalese negro fighter, was found dead in New York's "Hell's Kitchen" 14 years ago tonight. The little boxer, who had won the light heavyweight title from Georges Carpentier in Paris in 1922, had been shot. Mike McTigue won the crown from Siki in Dublin in 1923.
