SATISFACTORY CELEBRATION

The procession and the raising of the flag celebration yesterday proved a very satisfactory event carried out well. It was not exactly a civic affair although a civic holiday had been proclaimed. Many of those who would have contributed largely to such an event were away in Victoria taking part in the celebration there. As the Royal Couple did not come to Prince Rupert and had been in Canada for a week or two the celebration lost much of its force. All that was intended was to give the children something to remember and to take the place of what they lost by not going to Vancouver or Victoria. In that respect it filled a need.

THE LONDON TIMES

One of the British newspapers that is giving a great deal of publicity to Canada is the London Times. It devoted a whole special number of large dimensions to telling about Canada and its resources with many fine illustrations, picturing particularly people and places that the King was to see. From a newspaper of the standing that this paper holds in the British Empire it must prove splendid advertising for the country. It should help to popularize Canada as a tourist resort for people of the British Isles.

To Their Majesties— From British Columbia

By WINIFRED O. BRASS

Out of the deep they came, from the troubled shores of the Old Land,
Out of the shimmering sea with its menace of fog and of ice-floe,
Till the broad St. Lawrence bore them home on tender and turbulent bosom,
A King to the land that is his; A Queen, to the hearts of her people.

Ah! How the signal fires leapt up on hilltop and headland,
Flaming (as in old days) the joyous news "They are coming!"
Ah! How the grey shores smiled, the very mountains were ringing,
Till all of Canada seemed one voice, a mighty paean of Welcome.

So, from the East to the West, sweeps onward the royal procession,
Leaving a golden trail of ancient glory and splendor,
And that which dwells in all hearts, two gracious and beautiful people,
Youthful and gentle and kind, God bless and protect them forever!

Long live the King—the Queen! White peaks of our British Columbia
Echo the shout that swells to the sweet May skies in their honor;
Homage of heart and soul we bring, 'mid scenes that live through the ages;
Our fervent prayer "God guard them home to the Motherland and their loved ones!"

Are Three Games Ahead in National League—Yanks and Red Sox Meeting in Crucial Series

ST. LOUIS, May 30: (CP)—Cincinnati Reds and St. Louis Cardinals finished up their crucial series for National League leadership Sunday with the Reds on top by a margin of two games. Honors in a double-header were split yesterday after Cincinnati had won on Friday and Saturday. Yesterday the Reds gained another full game by defeating Chicago while St. Louis was shut out by Pittsburg, now in third place.

In the American League it still looks like a runaway for the world champion New York Yankees with the ending yesterday by the Boston Red Sox of a remarkable winning streak. Both teams cleaned up on double-headers Saturday and won single games Sunday over Philadelphia Athletics and Washington Senators respectively. Yanks and Red Sox started a crucial series yesterday with the Yanks winning six to one. Memorial Day double-headers scheduled for today are as follows:

National—Chicago at Cincinnati, Boston at Philadelphia, Pittsburg at St. Louis, Brooklyn at New York.

American—New York at Boston, Philadelphia at Washington, Detroit at Chicago, St. Louis at Cleveland.

New York 6, Boston 1.
St. Louis 9, Detroit 10.

FOOTBALL AT HIGH SCHOOL

Alpha Outplays Bet In Junior—Beta Wins Senior Game

On Saturday afternoon in the Booth Memorial High School inter-house football league games, the junior Alpha team completely outplayed the Beta team to win by a score of six goals to nil. Alpha House played nice football with clever combination of half backs and forwards and a strong defence. The Beta team deserved its sound trouncing. Scorers for Aloha were Eby, Wilson, Lee, and Postuk (2). Bird deflected one through his own goal.

The senior game between the same houses was a much better game. It was well contested from start to finish and ended in a victory for Beta by a score of four to three. For Beta, Judge scored two goals and Helge Holkestad and Bussey scored one each. Nelson scored twice for Alpha, the other goal coming from an opposing player in a scrimmage around the Beta goal.

Referees were W. W. C. O'Neill and J. Clark.
