NEW BISHOP ONCE BOXER

Held InterCollegiate Title While Attending University

WINNIPEG, June 30: (CP)—Canon Henry D. Martin of the Anglican Church, Bishop-elect of Saskatchewan diocese, has a record in church work known through Canada, but a disjointed thumb on his right hand reveals a side of his life not so well explored.

The six-foot, square shouldered clergyman, Canon of St. George's Church in Winnipeg, wrecked that thumb in the boxing ring. He held the intercollegiate crown during his student days at Wycliffe College, Toronto.

"Oh yes," the middle-aged Canon said modestly, "I used to play nearly every game."

His favorite sport, he recalled, was one of the roughest of the day, soccer football. He still has medals he won for prowess on the soccer pitch while in college.

Canon Martin was elected to the Bishopric of Saskatchewan at bi meetings of the Rupert's Land Synod in Winnipeg June 15.

Canon Martin's introduction to Saskatchewan will be no new experience. He was an ardent missionary in drought areas in his early years as a clergyman. "I worked as a student missionary in construction camps and know Saskatchewan well," he said.

The athletic Bishop-elect, who succeeds Bishop Walter Burd, was born in London, England. He began his studies at Glasgow, Scotland, and graduated from Wycliffe. He was first associated with St. James Cathedral, Toronto and later St. Luke's Church, Saint John, N.B. He came to Holy Trinity Church, Winnipeg, in 1914 and two years later transferred to St. George's. He was created a canon in 1932.

THE HARD WAY

BIRMINGHAM, Eng., June 30: (CP)—A 20-year-old, wanting to be a boxer and hoping he would be sent to a reform school where boxing was taught, had himself arrested for breaking and entering. He later retracted, establishing an alibi.

The Royal Agricultural Society plans to ask the Australian government to consider assistance to horse breeders because, if Australia went to war, "all motor vehicles would be commandeered and there would be a shortage of farm horses."

Cyril Heppleston, Bradford cyclist, cut his own record for the 350-mile run from Edinburgh to London by 16 minutes, covering the distance in 18 hours, 57 minutes.

Noel Ryan, Australian swimmer, and Ron Masters, diver, have returned home from an exhibition tour of South Africa. Ryan won every race and made records for distances from 22 yards to a mile.

Perhaps fo...all officials of Australia are being morbid but they are asking insurance to cover possible death of a player during a game.

After losing two £50 ($187.50) notes at a greyhound track, a race patron had £98 returned to him. The finder had lost the other £2 on a bad tip at the track.

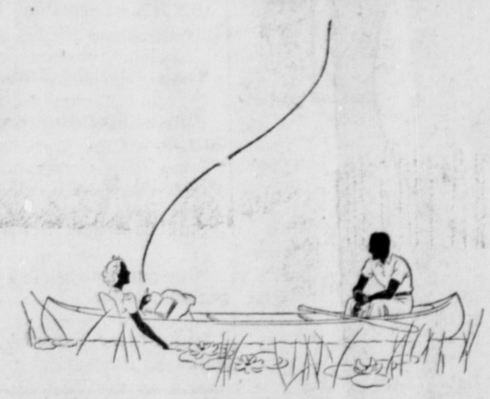
Opened as a national memorial, the cottage of Izaak Walton, author of "The Compleat Angler," at Stafford, England, will be a museum for relics of Walton.

Arthur Heina established a world swimming record of seven minutes, 13 seconds for the 500 metres breast stroke at Capetown. Previous record of 7:18.8 was held by J. Higgins of the United States.

John Foot, 13-year-old grammar school boy, broke his arm in three places—below the shoulder, near the elbow, and in the forearm—after "throwing in" a ball during a school cricket game at Newport, England.

ADVENTUROUS CANOES

LONDON, June 30: (CP)—Dodging barges and tug boats, a fleet of the canoes of the Camping Club paddled the Thames to Greenwich and back again to Putney. Treacherous eddies around the new Waterloo Bridge made navigation troubles.



"Do you tell that to all the girls?"
"Only the ones who bring Sweet Caps."
