FRITZ KREISLER, the man who could make a violin sing or cry or laugh, is 85 today. New York City was scheduled to honor him at a city hall ceremony, giving him a medal and a scroll summarizing a career that for half a century made his name synonymous with the violin. Age has weakened his hearing and vision but, he is still alert and his stalwart frame, massive head and shock of white hair give him a dauntless look. He says | ment;" his durability is "a present from God."
