Maroons dump Czech army team 4-0

Dibley records second shutout

JIHLAVA (CP)—Winnipeg Maroons, missing two of their regulars, defeated a reinforced local army team 4-0 Monday night in one of the toughest encounters of their Czechoslovakian tour. "They really played to win this one," said the Maroons' playing coach, Gordon Simpson, after the game. "And we had our trouble containing their attacks—especially in the second period."

The shutout was the second in a row for goalie Gordon Dibley who has allowed only 15 goals in nine games for a 1.6 goals-allowed average. The Maroons have won six games, tied two and lost one.

They were without the services of forward Tom Rendall, who suffered a shoulder separation in a game Sunday at Burno. He remained in hospital there but is to rejoin the team in Prague for the trip home.

JUZDA RESTS

Defenceman Bill Juzda, favoring a minor leg injury, decided to forego Monday night's game, but he is expected to play Wednesday in the last game of the Maroon's Czech tour at Pardubice. The club is resting today.

The Jihlava Duckla army team, in last place in the Czech first hockey league, were strengthened for Monday night's encounter with five players competing for spots on the Czech national team. Other Czech teams the Maroons have met have been similarily bolstered.

The Canadians' hard forechecking gave them their biggest advantage over the Czechs—and Dibley in the nets was unbeatable.

Reg Abbott opened the scoring at 11:04 of the first period when he found himself in the clear after taking a pass from defenceman Tom Marshall.

Sixty-one seconds later Lloyd Orris stole the puck from a Czech player at centre ice, drew the goalie out of his net and slipped the disc in behind him.

The host club gave the visitors their worst time in the second period, to the enjoyment of the 8,000 fans, but still were unable to score.

At the 2:28 mark Jim Mackenzie made it 3-0 for the Maroons by firing home a goal on a three-way passing play from Larry Winder and Doug Monroe.

The Czechs dominated play for the balance of the period but Maroons opened strongly in the third. After six minutes and 58 seconds Tom Marshall trapped the puck inside the Czech defence and scored the game's last goal.

The Maroons' total of 43 goals in the nine games is almost three times as great as the scoring against them. After their last game in Pardubice, they are to fly to London from Prague and then back to Canada by way of Amsterdam.

Ingo laughs at Moore's talk

STOCKHOLM (AP) — Ingemar Johansson, former heavyweight world champion, laughed Friday at Archie Moore's efforts to picture him as a cringing boxer.

"Let him talk," said Johansson. "He needs all the publicity he can get."

The Swede is preparing for a third title fight with Floyd Patterson March 13. In an interview Moore hinted Johnsson lacked self - confidence and would cringe when Patterson struck. Johansson should talk, said Moore, or people won't buy tickets for the return fight.

Johansson said:

"The guy is nuts. I don't need to boost my self-confidence by talking. Maybe I would, if I had been knocked down as many times as he has."

The Swede looked extremely fit in the ring during a workout. Weighing 206 pounds, he is determined not to weigh less than 198 for the Miami Beach fight. He says weighing only 191½ when Patterson dethroned him in June was a big mistake.

Edmonton continues losing streak

By THE CANADIAN PRESS

Edmonton Flyers are suffering a hangover only partly due to their activities on the holiday weekend.

The Alberta club, which many selected as pre-season choice for first place in the Western Hockey League, lost two games on the coast Sunday and Monday. The losses extended Edmonton's losing streak to eight straight and its 12th defeat in 13 games.

Portland Buckaroos edged the seventh - place Flyers 4-3 New Year's Day before a WHL record crowd of 9,843 Victoria Cougars added to Edmonton's miseries with a convincing 6-1 win Monday.

In other WHL holiday action, Seattle Totems blasted Spokane 8-4 Sunday but the Comets came back Monday night to defeat Vancouver Canucks 5-4 in overtime.

Last-place Winnipeg Warriors were poor hosts to Calgary Stampeders, edging the Cowboys 4-3.

The league standings were relatively unchanged by the weekend results. Vancouver and Calgary are tied for first place, while Spokane and Seattle are six points back in a third-place tie. Buckaroos trail their American counterparts by one point, while Victoria are two behind Portland.

Defenceman Frank Arnett earned himself an indefinite suspension in Seattle Sunday when he clouted an official on the chin. Arnett, given a penalty, took a swing at referee Lou Farelli and hit linesman Pete Wywrot instead.

Bill MacFarland led Seattle's attack with two goals and three assists, while Tommy McVie also got two goals. Guyle Fielder, Don Chiupka, Rudy Filion and Ed Ehrenverth added single goals.

For Spokane it was Bob McCuskor, Ching Johnson, Bev Bell and Steve Witiuk.

Veteran Colin Kilbuurn got Spokane's overtime winner in Vancouver after three minutes and 43 seconds.

Bell, McCuskor, Johnson and Forbes Kennedy were the other Spokane marksmen. Vancouver scorers were Frank Roggeveen, Dave Duke, Larry Popein and Bruce Carmichael.

Leafs, Hawks grab points in weekend hockey action

By The Canadian Press

Toronto Maple Leafs and Chicago Black Hawks celebrated the New Year's weekend holiday in great style, picking up four out of four points in the National Hockey League race.

The Black Hawks who skidded from first place in the league standings to a poor fourth, shut out Detroit Red Wings twice with identical scores and raised themselves into a third-place tie with Detroit in the league standings. Toronto clipped New York Rangers 2-1 and 4-1 in a home-and-home series.

Goalie Glenn Hall was the star for Chicago, kicking out 27 shots in Detroit Saturday night while his teammates could manage only 15 on Hank Bassen in the Red Wing net, and handling 37 shots Sunday night in Chicago.

The shutouts raised Hall's league-leading total to six.

MIKITA LEADS HAWKS

Stan Mikita provided the offensive punch for the Black Hawks, scoring two goals Saturday and getting another Sunday. Ab McDonald, Ken Wharram and Ron Murphy got the other Chicago counters.

Rookie Dave Keon and superstar Frank Mahovlich gave Toronto their twin wins.

Keon scored both goals Saturday night in Toronto and Mahovlich blasted two Sunday night as the Leafs got four goals in the third period to wrap up the victory.

Billy Harris and Johnny McMillan scored Toronto's other goals Sunday. Bill Gadsby and Ted Hampson got New York's efforts.

Montreal Canadiens and Boston Bruins split, Montreal winning 3-1 Saturday night in Montreal and Boston clipping the league leaders 3-2 Sunday in Boston.

PENALTIES NEAR RECORD

The Sunday night game was a wild, penalty-filled affair from the first few minutes, with a total of 32 penalties called by referee Dalton McArthur. The most penalties ever called in one game was 36, in a Toronto-Montreal struggle in 1953.

Major penalties were given to Jimmy Bartlett and Doug Mohns of Boston and Bill Hicke and Ralph Backstrom of Montreal.

Misconducts went to Bartlett and Backstrom.

Willy O'Ree, the only Negro to play in the NHL, picked up his first league goal Sunday and it proved to be the winning one.

Johnny Bucyk and Leo Boivin got the other Boston markers while Hicke and Henri Richard scored for Montreal.

The Canadiens' kid line—Hickey, Backstrom and Gilles Tremblay—handled all the scoring chores Saturday night.

Bronco Horvath spoiled Charlie Hodge's bid for a shutout with a third-period goal.

Combines down Kamloops Chiefs

KELOWNA (CP) — Kelowna-Penticton Combines started the New Year out in hot, hectic fashion here Monday, crushing Kamloops Chiefs 12-4 in an exciting Okanagan Senior Hockey League fixture.

The victory moved Combines into a first-place tie with Vernon Canadians.

About 750 fans, one of the best crowds here this season, saw the hometown team at its best as they skated hard.
