IMPORTANCE OF SUBJECT

man of the publicity committee of Victory Loan 1941, and Dr. Olga Jardine of Vancouver, laison officer of the Young Women's Christian Association, were heard briefly.

Mr. Youngs bespoke the support of the ladies for the Victory Loan campaign. It was not possible for all to enlist for active service but it was possible for all to assist in keeping the front lines supplied and intact through advancing money. It was essential that the money asked for should be supplied so that Canadian and British prestige should be upheld. What, for instance, would the people of United States think if Canada failed in this campaign? Primarily what was wanted was the money lying on deposit in the banks accounts. The money was there and it was needed. It was in the hands of the people to put it over. They should not be thinking of how little but how much they could give.

Dr. Jardine told of the activity of the Y. W. C. A. in the organizing of hostess houses in military centres in Canada. It was a work in which the federal government had asked the Y. W. C. A. to become interested. The matter as far as Prince Rupert was concerned had now reached a point where search was being made to find a suitable place in Prince Rupert for such a hostess house. The ladies and girls of Prince Rupert would be called upon to help as volunteer hostesses, senior and junior. When the hostess in charge came, it was hoped the ladies here would rally to her assistance.

Miss E. M. Earl, president of the Women's Canadian Club, was in the chair and there was a gathering of about sixty or so at the dinner.

The blessing was asked by Rev. (Captain) R. C. H. Durnford, area padre.

MORNING WEDDING

Miss Evelyn Marie Zarelli Becomes Bride Of Grant Coverdale Today

Rev. Father W. F. Lantagne was the officiating clergyman at the marriage in the Church of the Annunciation at 10:30 this morning of Evelyn Marie, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. Zarelli, to Grant Coverdale, only son of Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Coverdale of Vancouver.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a lace redingcote entrain over ivory satin. Her embroidered net veil cascaded in her wake from a halo and veil which she wore over her face during the ceremony. Her lovely bouquet was of roses and orchids.

The bride's elder sister, Mrs. E. H. Lovett of Vancouver, was matron of honor, wearing a dusky blue, triple sheer gown with pompadour hat and accessories matching. In her bouquet were rose pink carnations.

The bridesmaid, Miss Louise Zarelli, sister of the bride, was wearing a dusky rose, triple sheer frock. Her flowered hat with stiffened veil, matched her ensemble. She carried carnations and delphiniums.

Jack McNulty was groomsman and Stan Morin ushered.

During the signing of the register Miss Yvonne Riffou sang "Ave Maria," accompanied by Miss Marie Amadio, who played the nuptial music.

The Boston Cafe was the setting for the reception when the bride's mother, in a burgandy crepe gown and rosebud corsage, received the guests.

The bride's table, centred with a three-tier wedding cake, was graced by rosebuds and tapers. Mrs. L. Amadio and Mrs. G. Ciccone presided at the urns.

The toast to the bride was proposed by Father Lantagne.

For her wedding trip to Vancouver tonight the bride wore a tailored suit in beige with matching accessories.

The couple are very well known and popular in Prince Rupert and will have the congratulations and best wishes of many friends. The bride has lived here all her life.
