Yesterday's precautionary blackout ended at 7:30 last evening. Through a misunderstanding it had been announced earlier that the blackout had ended shortly after 10 o'clock in the morning. The turning on of the street lights as A. R. P. wardens were preparing to carry on a night patrol heralded the end of the blackout.

Canada at War 25 Years Ago

Oct. 10, 1917—Foreign Secretary Robert Lansing published evidence of Germany encouraging sabotage in the United States prior to that country's entry into the war. French in Belgium advanced east of Draebank, capturing Papegoed.

Red Shield Women Entertain Forces

The women of the Red Shield Auxiliary entertained the men of the services in the Salvation Army Citadel on Thursday evening. Brigadier and Mrs. J. T. Gillingham of Wrangell, Alaska, were in the city for the occasion. Dr. and Mrs. J. T. Mandy were also guests for the evening.

Table games were played after which Dr. Mandy showed very interesting moving pictures. Community singing and refreshments brought to a close a very enjoyable evening.
