Thinking of Christmas?

It seems hardly possible that Christmas time has rolled around again. But already we're beginning to think of lists and worry about choices. Wise people will shop early while stocks are full—and we hope you will do that.

Perhaps these suggestions will put ideas in your head and give you some helpful hints. They are items that make lovely gifts and are always very acceptable.

+ TOILETRIES . . . Soaps, Colognes, Perfumes, Sachets, Powders, Cosmetics.

+ GLOVES . . . Fabric, Kid, Doeskin, Brushed Wool, Bunny Fur Mittens.

+ LINGERIE . . . Panties, Slips, Bed Jackets, Nighties, Pyjamas, Nighty and Robe Sets.

+ HOSE . . . We've done the impossible in getting a large selection of her favorite hose for Xmas.

+ PURSES . . . Umbrellas, Hankies, Bags, Scarves, Turbans, Pictures, etc.

RIOTOUS ROMANCE

"Take a Letter," Breezy Picture, at Capitol Theatre

Office romance is said to reach a new high in the comedy "Take a Letter, Darling," co-starring Rosalind Russell and Fred MacMurray, which is due this week at the Capitol Theatre.

As a successful business woman who tries, unsuccessfully, to give love the business, the beautiful Rosalind Russell, head of a million-dollar advertising agency, hires MacMurray to placate jealous wives while she goes after their husbands' accounts. It must be told, to MacMurray's credit, that he doesn't like the job. But, having acquired the quaint habit of eating, and reluctant to break himself of it, he swallows his pride and does as he's told.

The situation is made to order for hilarity and from all accounts "Take a Letter, Darling" delivers the fun expected of it.

Macdonald Carey, erstwhile leading man to Gertrude Lawrence in "Lady in the Dark," appears as a tobacco magnate who hates women, but who succumbs to the lovely Rosalind's charms, just as her secretary does. With Robert Benchley in another funny characterization as Rosalind's silent partner, Constance Moore as the girl who makes Rosalind see green, and Cecil Kellaway as a genial drunk, "Take a Letter, Darling" is said to be one of the gayest Hollywood offerings to come out of the west in recent months.

Announcement

Restrictions placed upon us by the Wartime Prices & Trade Board compel us to announce we shall be unable to put on our "Christmas Special" this year.

This practice of sending a small box of smoked fish, typical of the dominant industry of Prince Rupert, has become increasingly popular and we are very sorry we shall have to disappoint our many customers this year.

After the war, we hope we shall again be able to make this special Christmas offer available to our many friends.
