Announcement

Restrictions placed upon us by the Wartime Prices & Trade Board compel us to announce we shall be unable to put on our "Christmas Special" this year.

This practice of sending a small box of smoked fish, typical of the dominant industry of Prince Rupert, has become increasingly popular and we are very sorry we shall have to disappoint our many customers this year.

After the war, we hope we shall again be able to make this special Christmas offer available to our many friends.

ROMANCE IS HILARIOUS

Don Ameche and Joan Bennett Head Cast of "Girl Trouble"

Don Ameche needed a valet and Joan Bennett wanted a job so they got together and the result was "Girl Trouble," the feature picture to be shown at the Capitol Theatre here tomorrow only. The story is said to be essentially a romance but there are at least as many hearty laughs as there are heart pangs throughout the merry misadventures.

Don plays the part of a South American plantation owner who is trying to interest an American tire magnate, hit by the rubber shortage, in his product. Incidentally, he also tries to interest the beautiful Miss Bennett. Circumstances prevent her from spurning his blandishments and, indeed, force her to stretch a point and pose as his maid.

Outstanding favorites are featured in support of the stars with Frank Craven appearing as the tire magnate, Billie Burke as a fluttering dowager, and Alan Dinehart.

Angus Macdonald and John Swanson are here this afternoon returning to Vancouver after a visit to the well known Alice Arm mine, the Esperanza, which may be reopened. Both Mr. Macdonald and Mr. Swanson are well known pioneer mining men of this district. The former has long been identified with the Esperanza and the latter was for years mine superintendent for the Granby Co. at Anyox.
