Shower For Miss Torjor Rysstad

Delightful Affair Held Last Evening At Seal Cove For Popular Bride-Elect.

Last evening at the home of James Taylor, Seal Cove, Miss Dot Flaten and Miss Jean Daizell were joint hostesses at a delightful shower in honor of Miss Torjor Rysstad, one of Seal Cove's most popular young ladies, who is leaving for the south shortly to be married.

The room was tastefully decorated in pink and white streamers and bells. A delightful luncheon was served and Miss Rysstad was the recipient of many lovely and useful gifts.

Those present were the Misses Torjor Rysstad, Violet Cavenaile, Cecile Cavenaile, Audrey Viereck, Peggy McKinnon, Ida Moorehouse, Margaret Cunningham, May Skinner and Mrs. Jackson, Mrs. D. Scott, Mrs. Sorenson, Mrs. K. Slatta, Mrs. Ida Ballinger, Mrs. William McLean, Mrs. George Viereck, Mrs. Don Eastman, Mrs. Harold Hampton, Mrs. McKinnon, Mrs. J. Storseth, Mrs. E. Skog, Mrs. Bart Hedstrom, Mrs. Chris Sather, Mrs. H. Johansen, Mrs. G. Geddes, Mrs. Newell, Mrs. King, Mrs. J. Murvold, Mrs. R. Skog, Mrs. W. B. Skinner, Mrs. O. Skog, Mrs. Joe Martin, Mrs. G. Sather and Mrs. Viereck.

CURTAILING LIQUOR

Editor, Daily News:

On returning from my occupation at sea to my home at Prince Rupert, my wife showed me the correspondence in the local newspapers in connection with the liquor situation.

I would like to express my agreement with the views of Dr. and Mrs. Mandy. It seems to me highly desirable that some restrictions should be placed on the sale of liquor. During the last war, the hours of sale in England were noon to 2 p.m. and 6 p.m. to 9 p.m., if I remember aright. Perhaps some such curtailment of the hours in which beer parlors may sell beer would be a step in the right direction.

The problem is not entirely one of beer parlors, of course, and I hope that the publicity given to the matter by the letter of Dr. and Mrs. Mandy may lead to steps being taken to greatly lessen the consumption of liquor whether obtained in beer parlors, liquor stores, canteens, officer's messes or other places.

Whifflets From The Waterfront

C.N.R. steamer Prince George, Capt. Edward Mabbs, arriving here tomorrow morning from Vancouver and Ocean Falls, will carry out the regular schedule to Stewart and back here Saturday evening when she will be withdrawn from ar dthe lobby from 6 a.m. to 6 up the run again with the scheduled sailing from Prince Rupert to Vancouver via Ocean Falls a week from Saturday night. Two weeks hence the Prince George will again be withdrawn from service for an even week between her arrival from Stewart on the night of April 18 and the sailing from here for Vancouver on the night of April 25. The steamer Prince Rupert will make mid-week runs from here to Stewart on Wednesday of next week and the Wednesday two weeks following, sailing from here at 3 p.m., making the calls at Ketchikan and Stewart and returning here Thursday nights southbound.

Among a capacity list of passengers aboard the steamer Princess Norah, which was in port this morning northbound from Vancouver to Skagway, were many Yukoners returning north for the summer, employees of the White Pass & Yukon route being among them. The Princess Norah was here from 8 to 11 a.m. Four disembarked from the vessel at this port and eight took passage from Prince Rupert.

Capt. W. H. Barrington of the Barrington Transportation Co., after having spent the winter in Seattle, was a passenger aboard the Princess Norah this morning bound for Wrangell where preparations will soon be started for the resumption of the season's steamship service on the Stikine River.

GRAND OLD LOVE TALE

"Smilin' Through," With Jeanette MacDonald, Showing at Capitol This Week-End.

The famous love story of "Smilin' Through," in another edition, this time in technicolor and starring Jeanette MacDonald, Brian Aherne and Gene Raymond, comes to the screen of the Capitol Theatre here as an outstanding offering for the end of this week.

Singing some of the most delightful music ever to reach the screen, the lovely Miss MacDonald has the dual part of the old-fashioned heroine, Moonyean, and her modern niece, Kathleen. As all know from the story and previous picturizations, it is the death of Moonyean on her wedding day to Aherne, who enacts the role of Sir John Carteret, which forms the basis of a story of love that endured for fifty years and conquered death. For the first time in their screen careers, Miss MacDonald and Gene Raymond, who is her husband in real life, appear together. Raymond plays the part of the passionate Jeremy Wayne and his young son, Kenneth. The love scenes between the two are stirring indeed.

Heading the supporting cast is Ian Hunter, who has the arduous task of aging fifty years; Frances Robinson, who goes through the half century cycle with Aherne and Hunter, Patrick O'Moore and seven-year-old Jackie Horne, who plays Miss MacDonald as a child.

On Good Friday wickets at the post office will be open from 10 a.m. until 12 noon, the lobby being opened from 6 a.m. until 6 p.m. On Easter Monday the wickets will be open from 8 a.m. until 12 noon and the lobby from 6 a.m. to 6 p.m.
