Fashion Model Elaine Bedard

Tops in Her Trade

Elaine's delicate features and slim silhouette make her a favourite with Canada's top commercial photographers. In addition she possesses that indefinable and elusive quality known to the trade as "flair", without which no model can make her way to the top.

A career as strenuous as it is glamorous, the work-day of a successful model would make the training schedule of many an athlete look like a stately minuet. Elaine Bedard is often called upon to do 3 or 4 fashion shows in a day. The ability to look cool and composed under immense pressure is a prerequisite.

Canada's highest paid model, whose picture has appeared in fashionable magazines throughout Canada, the United States and Europe, pert Montrealer Elaine Bedard, has made a successful career in a profession which each year attracts more and more young Canadians to try their luck at fame and fortune in the exotic world of haute couture.

Good health is as important as good looks and Elaine keeps herself in trim with her favourite sport—horse back riding. Miss Bedard appears frequently on Canadian television programs both as a model and as an actress.

Canada's top fashion model, Elaine Bedard demands and gets up to $50 an hour for her modelling services. Much of her wardrobe is designed by Canadian couturiers although she purchases originals from Paris and Rome. Plans for the forthcoming season include a fashion show in Japan.

GOOD REPRESENTATION OF CONGREGATION

United church annual meeting points up social service work

A good representation of the congregation of the First United Church gathered in the Joyce M. Facey United Hall Monday night to attend the annual meeting and to study, evaluate and plan for another year of service to the city.

William Dunn accepted the office as secretary and reports were presented which indicated that a small gain of 20 members had been made in membership.

MANY SERVICES

However it was pointed out that 55 baptisms were performed along with 34 weddings and 25 funerals.

The Stewards reported a small balance but also announced that there was a loan of $1,000 outstanding.

Dr. L. M. Greene, chairman of the Board of Stewards said that he was optimistic about the loan for there was every indication that this would be taken care of by the full support of the congregation.

A. D. Perley presented the budget which called for an increase of $1,000 over the preceding year so that work could be started on the new front of the church.

K. F. Harding stated that a larger program of leadership training was planned for in 1961 to enable teachers and leaders to be more effective in their volunteer undertakings.

It was announced that kindergartens were now operating very effectively with some 140 children attending daily at Facey United hall, First United Church and Friendship House.

NEW GROUPS ORGANIZED

Miss Wilma Sharpe, community worker, who was recently appointed by the Woman's Missionary Society to this area, said that the Canadian Girls In Training had been organized at Sunnyside; Explorers at Port Edward and a Friendship Club 61 was being established at Friendship House.

Donald Robertson, the supervisor of Friendship House reported that there has been much support from many groups in the city to enable this project to be of value to so many people.

"In 1960, the first full year of operation, 4,866 beds had been provided and 9,443 meals had been given. This could only be done by the hands of the entire community combining forces to help the ones who called for assistance," Mr. Robertson said.

Mrs. Roy Boychuk, president of the First United Church Woman's association, stated that a good year had been enjoyed and that during the year a new group was formed called "The Young Woman's association".

FUND SET UP

Mrs. T. A. Paavola, president of the new group gave an outline of its activities and pledged whole-hearted support to the Friendship House Kindergarten and the emergency fund set up to help those in need.

Mrs. R. H. Larson and Mrs. A. J. Bussanich reported an excellent year at Facey United hall with some $1,500 being raised to put an addition on to the building.

WOMEN COMMENDED

R. W. McBride gave full credit to the women and their work as he stated that the building would be completed shortly at a larger cost than first anticipated. He requested that monies up to $7,000 might be made available to finish the project.

The meeting agreed to accept a loan of $10,000 to be repaid in three years by the whole congregation.

Plans for a new Friendship House were also reported on by Mr. McBride.

Gratitude was expressed to the Rotary club for its support in this project.

During the enthusiastic session the directors asked to be incorporated in the Society's Act which will extend the field from which membership will be invited, to include the Anglican Church of Canada, the Native Brotherhood, the City Council, the federal government, the provincial government plus a representative from the community.

The work will continue under Mr. Robertson and James Jackson until the new building is completed, it was announced.

RESIDENCE REPORT

W. D. Stothert, chairman of the United Residence board, reported on the new venture being established in the former St. Joseph's Academy, with Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hill as director and matron.

"This will serve as a home for boys who have no other place to live while furthering their education as well as a receiving home for the social welfare department," Mr. Stothert said.

He said that the residence is equipped for 20 boys and also has two cots and four beds for the social welfare's purposes.

KINETTES THANKED

"We are deeply indebted to the excellent work being done by the Prince Rupert Kinettes in making the building attractive," Mr. Stothert said.

A hearty vote of appreciation and gratitude was extended to Mr. Perley who for four and a half years has given outstanding service to the church as treasurer. Mr. Perley, manager of the Royal Bank of Canada, leaves shortly to become the manager at the Kelowna branch.

Elections held saw Dr. G. W. J. Fiddes, Marcel Girardet, Harold Thomas, C. R. Roberts, and Herbert Dearden and Douglas Archibald, corresponding members, named for a five year term to the Session.

Elected to the Board of Stewards were H. G. Shuttleworth, Arthur Ogilvie, Scott McLaren, Mr. Stothert, J. C. Georgeson, Boyd Cook, Dr. Greene, W. A. Dibben, E. A. Williamson and T. M. Carscadden.

Re-elected on the Friendship House committee to conduct the work in hand until the new board can be established were Mr. McBride, Kenneth Warren, Dr. R. G. Large, Mr. Williamson, A. D. Ritchie, Mr. Perley, Dr. Fiddes, Mrs. D. W. Burnip, Mr. Bussanich and James Cicone.

Rev. Dr. R. W. K. Elliott, church minister, in his annual address said "The co-operation and patience of the Session, Board of Stewards, WAs and Sunday school staff with others in the congregation has made the year worthwhile and successful."
