ACTIVITIES OF Y.M.C.A. AND Y.W.C.A.

By DOROTHY GARBUTT, Hostess

I think everyone was pleased to have the "Y" dances resume Wednesday night, judging by the smiles of everyone. It was more or less of a reunion. Of course the PA system would choose that one night to die of old age or something but thanks to Mable Darling and another young lady who spelled her off at the piano the dancers had their music. The idea of stopping the dancing at 10:30 went over well with all but a few habitual late comers.

Welcome to the new crew of the new minesweeper in port. We hope they make as good use of the "Y" as the crew of the ship they replace. I know one lad, Whitey, left a broken heart or two or three behind.

Parties and dances galore on the Christmas program and none of them formals. It won't hurt to reiterate the program to date—Ontario Christmas party and dance, December 22; H.M.C.S. Chatham party and dance at the navy barracks, December 26; USO Christmas party and dance, December 28. Thanks to our dance calendar these are all nicely spaced and all junior hostesses, Red Cross Corps members and Cambrai Junior I.O.D.E members are invited. All will meet at the "Y" as usual.

The Service Wives' Club held its weekly meeting in the family lounge at the "Y" on Thursday. Cards were the order of the day. Prizes were won by Mrs. Newell, Mrs. Aylesworth and Mrs. MacGregor and Mrs. Berthelet won the raffle donated by Mrs. Morris. Next week there will be no meeting but members are asked to help fill the bags for the boys in hospital as well as for the children's party at Mrs. Cameron's house, 418 Seventh Avenue West on December 16. Remember the Children's Christmas party will be Saturday week and all names must be in by this Saturday, December 12. Leave name and ages of the servicemen's children under ten years of age with Mrs. Garbutt at the "Y."

TELKWA MAN PASSES AWAY

William Croteau Had Been in Bulkley Valley Thirty Years

SMITHERS, Dec. 11 — William Croteau, one of the oldest settlers in the Telkwa district, passed away in the Smithers Hospital on Monday night. He has been a farmer near Telkwa for over thirty years and was also in the real estate business there in the early days.

One son, Stuart Croteau, is in Smithers and also a brother from Nanaimo who arrived here a short time ago. Mrs. Croteau is at present in the United States.

The funeral was held in Smithers on Thursday afternoon.

GRENADE—POMEGRANATE

Grenade was taken from the French word for pomegranate, because of the resemblance in shape to the fruit.

Rebekah Dance Is Happy Affair

Fine Event Held in Oddfellows' Hall Wednesday Night

The Rebekah Lodge held a very enjoyable and successful dance in the Oddfellows' Hall Wednesday evening, about 150 being in attendance.

The hall was gaily decorated for the affair with red and green streamers bearing huge groups of many colored balloons suspended overhead. Gay buntings, tinsel and greenery throughout added quite a cheery Christmas effect to the whole setting. The fine orchestra of an Ontario regiment supplied the music and, as usual, left nothing to be desired by the dancers.

Supper was served at midnight after which much merriment was caused by the throwing of favors and release of balloons.

The committee in charge consisted of Mrs. F. D. Morrison, convender, assisted by Mrs. D. V. Smith, Mrs. A. Barbe, Mrs. E. Gardner, Mrs. D. Gell, Mrs. L. G. Hilder, Mrs. A. Peterson, Mrs. D. Owens and Mrs. N. Moorehouse. L. G. Hilder was a genial and energetic master of ceremonies

John Eyolfson was at the door and H. Eyolfson was in charge of the check room.

Bingo Night For Xmas Tree Fund

Successful Affair by Catholic Ladies Wednesday Night

A very successful bingo night was held by the Catholic Ladies on Wednesday. Mrs. J. L. Blain was general convener.

In charge of the bingo games were Mrs. E. Fitzpatrick and Mrs. L. Gillies, assisted by Johnny Commadina and E. Fitzpatrick. Mrs. J. Garon and Mrs. F. Riffou conducted the hot dog stand.

During the evening a drawing was made of $10 worth of theatre tickets donated by D. G. Borland. They were won by Nancy Owens with No. 900. A second prize of $5 worth of theatre tickets was won by Mrs. J. G. Johns wit hticket No. 303.

The proceeds of the evening will be used for the children's Christmas tree.
