WOTM names delegates to attend cancer dinner

Senior Regent of the Women of the Moose Mrs. Arnold Assman and chairman of the Social Services committee, Mrs. Gordon Ronson were named to attend the annual Cancer Society Campaign dinner to be held March 30 in La Gondola Cafe.

The announcement was made Wednesday night at the regular meeting of the WOTM in the Moose Temple.

During the business session it was also reported that three prizes of $5 each had been awarded to the local winners in the recent Canadian National Institute of the Blind Essay Contest and that essays had been published in the Daily News March 14. Essays have been forwarded to headquarters for further judging, it was announced.

Winners were Laraine Dickens, of the Annunciation High School and Tom Harding and Wayne Watmough of the Prince Rupert High school.

COMMITTEE ACTIVITIES

Proceeds from the St. Patrick's dance being held tonight by the Hospital committee in the Moose Temple will go towards supporting the committee's student nurse.

A "House Tea" is being held at the home of Mrs. Harry Nelson, March 23 by the Library committee with proceeds earmarked for the $100 student bursary fund.

The Membership committee "House Bingo" is planned for March 30 at the home of Mrs. Roy Boychuk. Everyone is invited to attend and bring a friend.

Mrs. Hazel McKenzie received a vote of thanks for the 18-cup tea pot she had donated to the chapter.

Mrs. Harold Britton and Mrs. Leslie Seale volunteered to visit the hospitals.

Welcomed to the meeting was Mrs. Ann Geddes, the chaplain of the Portland Canal chapter No. 16, Stewart, B.C.

An invitation was extended to all WOTM members to attend the Loyal Order of Moose "Tea and Bake Sale," Saturday March 26 in the Moose Temple, under the convenership of Ronald Vaselenak.

Lucky draw was won by Mrs. Paul O'Krainetz and raffle winner was Mrs. Stanley Raychuk.

Lunch served by Moosehaven committee, was followed by the showing of "Portrait of Prince Rupert."

G. W. Peterson, manager of Household Finance, leaves Sunday by CPA plane for Vancouver where he will attend an annual company meeting. He plans to return Wednesday.

Irish Fusiliers to stage St. Patrick's ball tonight

A gala evening has been planned for the first annual St. Patrick's Dance to be held tonight by the entire unit of "D" Company Irish Fusiliers of Canada (Vancouver Regiment) in the Armoury from 9 p.m. until 1 a.m.

A foliage of green streamers, off-set by shamrock's and the city's jubilee colors of gold and green will present an attractive setting for the cabaret affairs.

Dancing music will be provided by the Crescendos and there will be a buffet supper interlude.

Official host is Commanding Officer, Captain E. T. S. Moore.

Open to the public, dress is optional and tickets may be obtained from unit officers and men, or at the door.

Convener is S. R. Fowler and co-chairmen in charge of arrangements are Morley McIntyre, Sidney Bond and Jack Pearson.

Teen town club to hold 'rock 'n' roll' dance party

Rock 'n' Roll music provided by Casey Wilson and his Rangers, refreshments and a door prize are planned for the gay Teen Town club dance to be held tomorrow night in the Civic Centre auditorium from 9 p.m. until 1 a.m.

Plans for the funfare function were completed last night when the club held its regular meeting in the Centre Teen Room.

It was announced that meeting nights have been changed from each Friday night to every second Thursday night.

During the business session it was decided to hold election of officers with nominations submitted in a box in the Centre lobby no later than March 23.

Addressing the group, Civic Centre manager Jocab Vandenbrink told the members that when the membership is increased the club could operate itself and have a room of its own.

It was also suggested that there was a possibility of the club having its own juke box and table tennis.

In an effort to increase the activity of the club, more members are asked to join.

PERSONALS

Mrs. J. L. Kelly, superintendent of nurses at Prince Rupert General Hospital leaves tomorrow by Canadian Pacific Airlines plane for Vancouver to attend the Institute for Directors of Nursing from March 21 to 25, sponsored by the Registered Nurses of B.C. and the B.C. Hospital Insurance Service. Mrs. Kelly will visit in Nanaimo as guest of her brother-in-law and sister, Magistrate Lionel Beevor-Potts and Mrs. Beevor-Potts, for a few days before returning to the city.

AT ANNUNCIATION AUDITORIUM

CYO annual concert features Irish farce

Prince Rupert residents who enjoy Irish humor and a bit o' blarney will be treated to a delightful play entitled "Laughing Irish Eyes," tonight and tomorrow night when the Catholic Youth Organization presents its Sixth Annual St. Patrick's Concert in the Annunciation auditorium.

The three-act farce by Charles George, sparkles like a shamrock glistening in the morning dew and the plot is filled with laugh-provoking situations.

One interesting and mystifying situation after another keeps the audience in suspense with a cast of ten providing the entertainment under the direction of T. J. Cullen.

Taking roles are Margret Saunders, Kathleen Smith, Denis Mulroney, Heather Haldane, Kathy Saunders, Peter Gibb, Olga Zabudney, Joe Arseneau, Bob Oskey and Marilyn Procter.

Guest artist Michael Colussi will render accordion selections between the acts.

Time is 8 o'clock tonight and tomorrow night in the Annunciation auditorium.
