All Out For Canada

(Booth Memorial High School 1943 Graduating Class Song. Words by May Skinner. Tune, "We're Proud of Canada.")

We're Booth Memorial graduates
The Matrics of '43.
Now off to fight life's battles and
Victorious we will be, will be.
We'll make true loyal citizens
And freedom we shall always see,
We'll make a stand and keep our land
The blessed hav'n of liberty.
Our hearts are true, we're young and free
We'll win this fight for victory.
We're proud, dear Canada,
And steadfast as can be.

We're off, now Canada,
A part of thee we'll be.
We'll make our dreams become real themes
And careful we will always be
To guard your game, your fish-filled streams,
Your forests tall and mountains green.
We'll love and cherish, lend a hand,
To make your obvious beauty withstand
The hand of evil that prevails
In this our sorrowing war-torn world.
We'll fight for Canada
And Canada shall be free.

—MAY SKINNER.
