In Memoriam

SIMONDS—In loving memory of a dear husband and father, Earl Simonds, drowned January 9, 1959.

When the shadows of night are falling
And we are sitting alone,
There always comes a longing, dear,
For you could only come home."
Sadly missed by his wife and family. (5)

SIMONDS—In loving memory of a dear son and brother, Carl Fred Simonds, who was accidently drowned Jan. 9, 1959.

He didn't have time to say farewell,
Or we to say good-bye,
He was gone before we knew,
And only God knows why.
Please God forgive a silent tear,
A secret wish that he was here,
There are others, yes, we know,
But he was ours and we miss him so."
Always loved and remembered by Mother, Bob, Pearl, Arline, Elva and Janet.

Wife sues man for her salary

ADDIS ABABA (AP) — An Ethiopean woman brought suit against her former husband, saying he was in arrears in her salary.

The woman explained she had signed a contract to live a year with the man, at a salary of $10 a month. The man fell behind in the salary payments and now the year had elapsed and the woman made her formal claim in court. She won the case.

This is a common occurrence in Ethiopia today. A man can put a woman on the payroll as his wife by entering into what is called a "damoz" marriage.

Under this system, a couple may legally marry for a length of time specified in the contract they draw up. The minimum is one month and the maximum is determined by negotiation.

During the terms of the contract, the man must pay the woman a salary. At the end of the contract's term, the marriage automatically is dissolved without any divorce proceedings. The woman has no further claims against the man, unless he happened to be in arreas in the salary. Children born to such a union are legitimate.

The damoz system is only one of several kinds of marrige in this country, where polygamy is forbidden but sexual promiscuity common. Often infants less than a year old are married through negotiations between the parents of the babies. The fathers and mothers sign a contract which legally binds the infants in marriage.

Such marriages can be dissolved by divorce at the request of either party.

Car out of control

Damage amounted to about $300 Saturday when a car driven by Jerry John Beskorowiney, of 1539 Second Overlook, went out of control and ran into a ditch on Hays Cove Avenue.

Police said that Beskorowiney was not injured in the accident which happened at 3 a.m.

Investigation is continuing.
