SPRING FLOWER SETTING

St. Peter's church fund boosted by $200 from tea

Two hundred dollars will be added to the church fund following the successful "Spring Tea and Sale" staged Wednesday afternoon by the Afternoon Branch of the Women's Auxiliary to the St. Peter's Anglican Church, Seal Cove.

Guests were received by President Mrs. Harvey Leighton, following the opening by Mrs. Donold Chassels, wife of the church rector.

The hall was attractively decorated with profusions of daffodils, intermingled with spring-cut mauve flowers.

Individual tea tables were centred with primroses to enhance the pouring table daffodil centrepiece, flanked by purple-toned tapers.

Co-conveners were Mrs. H. V. Tattersall and Mrs. J. P. Kurdziel.

Presiding at the tea cups were Mrs. T. B. Black, Mrs. Rupert Greissel, Mrs. William McLean, Mrs J. A. Macdonald, Mrs. J. B. Rae and Mrs. Leighton.

Kitchen director was Mrs. James Mellor.

Serviteurs were Mrs. McLean, Mrs. Robert Kelsey, Mrs. Darrow Gomez and Mrs. Arthur Martin.

Mrs. John Denning was in charge of the home - baking table. Mrs. Victor Morrison in charge of the sewing booth, Mrs. Chassels directed the plant stall and Mrs. John Prince attended the surprise booth.

Cashier was Mrs. Edith Brewerton.

CWL rummage, bake sale tomorrow at Annunciation

Children and adults, winter and summer clothes and all types of accessories will be on sale tomorrow when the Catholic Women's League stages its annual spring rummage sale in the Annunciation auditorium beginning at 9:30 a.m.

Convened by CWL President Mrs. G. P. Lyons the function will also feature a home-baking booth, under the direction of Mrs. Joseph Cloutier, and Mrs. A. J. Beliveau.

Coffee will also be served under the direction of Mrs. William Bond.

Proceeds from the function are ear-marked for the provincial fund. The convention will be held in Prince George in August.

Library commission fetes member

(Special to The Daily News)

VICTORIA—Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Mainwaring were honored last week at an informal luncheon given by the members of the Public Library Commission in tribute to Mr. Mainwaring's keen interest in public library service in British Columbia and the many contributions he had made toward the promotion and improvement of libraries since he was first appointed to the Commission in 1949.

His fellow commissioners presented him with a copy of the limited edition of "The Journal of Norman Lee, 1898," recently designed and published by Robert R. Reid of Vancouver.

G. C. Hacker, of Abbotsford, expressed the regret felt by the members of the commission, who also include Miss Margaret Clay, Victoria; Mr. H. Norman Lidster, New Westminster, and W. S. Pipes, Vancouver, that it would not be possible for Mr. Mainwaring to accept re-appointment.

LONDON (CP)—Prince Charles has become a member of the junior section of the Zoological Society of London. The section, started two years ago, has 3,000 members from 11 to 18 years old.

TO SET OFF your heavenly tan — sparkling white arnel sharkskin in a bathing suit by Sea Nymph of Montreal. Wisp of the low-set skirt is pleated for saucy flattery. Back is elasticized for smooth fit and strap can be removed for sunning.

FLYING HIGH for summer perfect playtime — arnel-cotton striped blue denim. Here Junior Mates uses it for a pleated knee-tickler with cuffed overblouse. Set includes short sleeved blouse and slims, fashioned for spin by sea or air, picnics and gardening.

APRIL MAY BE A MONTH of caprice but fashion is ready for her whims. These two attractive girls wrap up in furs to shelter from chill winds, drive with the top down to catch the sunshine, deck their heads in flowers — as pretty as any spring bouquet. But, just in case of rain they are wearing this season's newest pretty swim caps.

Holiday time fun clothes

MONTREAL—A new description of Canadians might be "people with their heads up in the clouds"—judging by the literally soaring statistics on private planes in use.

While it has not yet come to a helicopter on every carport roof, a smart young gal needs to be ready with the right clothes to go up in the air—if her beau's a go-getter!

For a summer fun-time wardrobe that is as at home on land, sea as in the air, arnel coordinates are the all-inclusive tickets to carefree happy holidays. Mint new this year are multiple sets that are less to pack and more fun to wear. Included are skirts—slim, flared and pleated—shorts, bermudas, clam diggers, knee ticklers, culottes of all lengths, and a myriad of interchangeable toppers.

Dazzling white arnel sharkskin continues the ageless favorite, but the adventurous-minded will revel in a color riot of tangerine, azalea, citron, lilac, electric pink, acid greens and blues, creamy sundae hues, or the vibrant freewheeling prints.

Equally mad for color are coordinates in the new arnel sportswear fabrics. Look for the brisk denims, soft summer flannels, sailcloth, and the poplins for a change of texture. All have Arnel's well known soil-resisting, easy washing, hardly-any-pressing-needed features. Crease-resisting, they arrive ready for fun whether worn or packed.

Margaret decrees gaiety

LONDON (Reuters) — Princess Margaret said Wednesday that gaiety is "an essential part of Christianity."

The princess, who is president of the Church of England Youth Council, told the council's annual conference here of her visits to many British parishes.

"I have been encouraged," she said, "by the extent to which, in many places, young people of all kinds are taking part in the church and bringing fresh life to the Christian community by their vigor and sincerity — and gaiety which is to my mind an essential part of Christianity."

Her words were greeted with loud applause.

Donations to fire, camp, Cook fund made by UFAWU WA at meeting

The offering of donations to worthy causes highlighted the regular meeting of the Women's auxiliary to the United Fishermen and Allied Workers' Union last night when the group met in the Metropole Hall.

With president Mrs. Roy Mouland in the chair, the WA decided to give a donation of $50 to the Fire Relief Fund.

The group will also hold a bingo night next month with proceeds earmarked for the fund.

To be held in the Sons of Norway hall, Bingo chairman is Mrs. R. L. Gardiner.

A donation of $50 was also made to be given to a special fund for the survivors of the Cook family. John Cook, who was elected vice-president of UFAWU last month died suddenly in Vancouver.

A $10 donation was made to the Jubilee Camp fund. The camp near Vancouver, is sponsored by the UFAWU for children of the labor forces.

In other business Mrs. Victor Smith and Mrs. Ivan Adams sr., reported on the UFAWU convention held last month in Vancouver, as city delegates.

Their reports stated that great importance was placed on sea regulations to insure safety at sea for the fishermen.

Mrs. Nels Nelson, chairman of the curling canteen during the Fishermen's Bonspiel, announced that it was a most successful venture.

Mrs. Smith reported upon the Fishermen's Farewell Dance held April 21 in the Islander Hall, which she said was "not so successful."

Raffle donated by Mrs. Herbert Brian was won by Mrs. Albert Woodruff.

Serving refreshments were Mrs. Hector Yoemans, Mrs. Alvin Adkins, Mrs. Mouland and Mrs. Peter Ellingsen.

NOT CULTURAL

LONDON (CP)—Education officer Harold Hayward says British teen-agers are getting into "an anti-culture rut." Last year they spent £830,000,000 on cosmetics, records, clothes and soft drinks.
