SHORT SPORT

Halifax youngsters today are enjoying a modern, carefully-planned recreation program for which they largely thank Mayor J. E. (Gee) Ahern — himself a veteran athlete and sports columnist. With Mayor Ahern in the chair, city council recently approved for the first time the appointment of a full-time director of recreation for the city's young athletes. Without a dissenting voice the council's recreation committee approved Roy Smith, vigorous and trained young physical instructor for the job. Starting in October, Mr. Smith has already laid the ground work for a year-round program which will include swimming, baseball, track and indoor sports "and perhaps some music in band work."

Much of the attention to youthful sportsmen has come during Mayor Ahern's term. Starring in baseball as a heavy hitter and a competent outfielder, Gee took to the ice in winter with the old Halifax Crescents and held the reputation of being a tricky defenceman in the 1920s. As sports editor for a Halifax newspaper, Gee became known as a vigorous and outspoken writer and promoter of numerous "first" sporting events including the city's first 26-mile marathon; a 45-mile bicycle race and a swimming marathon. For some years before the war he managed his own publishing company. In 1942, he returned to sports writing to conduct the column "sportdom" in the Halifax Herald. But shortly after his election as mayor last spring he retired from the sports writing field.

Since Ahern became chief magistrate of the city, baseball diamonds on the Common have been levelled, grandstands have been erected for the first time and interest in minor sport, from which city athletes hope to recruit future senior squads, has increased. And, the new recreation director claims, police and juvenile court judges have already noticed a decrease in juvenile delinquency in the city.

Returning Service Personnel Records Are Being Sought

The Daily News is anxious to completely record the arrival of all service men and women returning home from the war. Accordingly, it is requested that information be made available to this office regarding the date of arrival home, the service with which the veteran has been identified, in what theatre of war, if wounded, ill, etc. If inconvenient to call at the office, the information may be written or telephoned in. Pictures would be particularly welcome. Street and Postal addresses and telephone numbers are also requested.

New Zealand Boasts Promising Fighter

AUCKLAND, N.Z. — Bob Murphy, the New Zealand welterweight boxing champion, who has accepted an offer by the English promoter, Jack Solomons, to fight E. Roderick, British champion, for the British Empire welterweight title, is considered in New Zealand the most promising boxer the Dominion has produced in recent years. He has had comparatively few bouts, but has won most of them easily. Boxing judges think he has the best left lead and left jab to the body ever seen in a New Zealand ring. He won a decision this year over Vic Patrick, Australian lightweight and welterweight champion. He will probably leave for England for the title fight about the end of the year, and proposes to visit America on his way back to New Zealand.

WILL HOLD BASEBALL PLAOFFS

The city baseball league, which struggled through its three-sided summer schedule with Savoys consistanly on the long side of the triangle, will stage a play-off series for the Orme trophy, symbolic of city championship during the next three weeks.

A meeting of the executive of the baseball association last night outlined the playoff plan, setting the games for Sunday afternoons, weather permitting. They feel that the playoffs can be completed within three weeks, given a break in the weather.

The schedule calls for Moose and Watts and Nickerson to meet in a "sudden death" encounter a week from Sunday the winner to meet the league-leading Savoys in a two-out-of-three schedule on following Sundays.

Executive members who attended the meeting at the Civic Centre were President W. D. Vance, Vice-President George Murray, Treasurer Alex Armstrong, W. D. Lambie, "Scoop" Bury, A. B. Taft, and Don Forward.
