Mrs. R. Swanson returned to the city on Tuesday night's train from a brief visit to Terrace.

J. E. Ormheim, well known fur dealer, after having spent the winter in the city and district, is leaving tonight for Vancouver where he will spend the summer.

Mrs. G. B. B. Buffam and young son, Frank, arrived in the city yesterday from Victoria to pay a visit with Mrs. Buffam's mother, Mrs. R. J. D. Smith, Third Avenue.

School accounts for the month of May totalling $7,962.38 were passed for payment at the regular monthly meeting of the school board last night. The figure included the monthly payroll.

Frank Skinner inquired at the meeting of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce last night as to whether Prince Rupert might be sharing in new ship building contracts being awarded to the Pacific Coast. No action was taken by the chamber in the matter.

Constable R. W. Strouts of the city detachment of the provincial police returned to the city yesterday from Victoria where he has been taking a four month's course.

The board of school trustees, at last night's meeting, received a sum of $24.64 from the Prince Rupert Labor Council being the proceeds of a collection taken at the recent May Day public meeting held in the auditorium of Booth Memorial School. The Labor Council asked that the money be used in purchasing sports equipment for the schools. An expression of appreciation will be made by the board to the Labor Council.

The board of school trustees has taken out from Parson, Brown Ltd., Mrs. J. R. Lacey, agent, an insurance policy for one year at premium of $66 to cover school pupils against injury to a total of $40,000 collectively or $20,000 in one case. The board, at its meeting last night, expressed itself as being interested in having the teachers also covered which they are not under the terms of the present contract.

Jack Deane, former chairman of the board of school trustees, had a letter before the board at its meeting last night in regard to the doctors' accounts for two pupils of Borden Street School who had met injury last year. Mr. Deane at that time having authorized the principal, S. A. Cheeseman, to call the doctor. Mr. Deane suggested that it was fitting for the board rather than Mr. Cheeseman presented the doctor bills to the parents for payment.

Canada's commercial flying men, travelling the continent from end to end, meeting people of all types who live under widely varying conditions, can bear witness to the great and still growing popularity of Nabob Green Label Tea. There is no place in Canada, along the transcontinental air ways or in the remotest outposts, where this expert blend of choice teas is not used and enjoyed; for here, indeed, is "tea as it should be."
