FOR RED CROSS—

CARNIVAL AT FOUR GROUP

Highly Enjoyable and Successful Affair Held Saturday Night

(By Dorothy Garbutt)

Group Headquarters came through with a laudable effort to help the Red Cross when last Saturday night they held a most successful "Frolic and Fun Fair." This was held in the Recreation Hall and there were rows of stalls in which attractive W.D.'s lured handsome airmen and willing guests into all sorts of games.

There was "Hermin the Vermin," the oracle of the East or the Punjab's "Mr. Anthony," who answered questions to the tunes of nickles and dimes. LAC. Hunt was responsible for this popular booth.

Going at top speed all the time was the hot dog stand under the management of Corporal Havard. Next to this was the mystic fortune telling booth—and did the sailors throng to this one!

The three lady mystics of the evening were Cpl. Morrison, L.A.W. Fenwick and L.A.W. Loughran. Flying Officer Graham and I had ours told together—It seems we are both very healthy but far from wealthy, that our wealth depends on our health and that we have the usual run of secret sorrows and disappointments in love. In short it looks as though we're Miss and Mrs. Average.

The shooting gallery was under the direction of Cpl. Bissett and was a particular drawing card for the men. Here one threw ping pong balls into the eyes, nose or mouth of a huge wooden head or threw rings on top of prizes or pennies into saucers floating in pans of water and containing nickles or dimes. One particular prize raised a great cheer when it was won by a sailor who had been tossing for for it with the Officer Commanding for half an hour or more.

Delicious milk shakes were served by Cpls. McFadyen and Murray assisted by AW1 Keen, AW1 O'Brien and AW1 Bolton.

There was also a stand for Red Cross donations.

All during the evening dancing was in progress, the music for which was supplied by the Port Edward "Revellers." This is a newly organized dance band which is willing to take service engagements.

Altogether it was a very jolly evening and a splendid sum was realised for the Red Cross.

Complete Shows at 1:00, 3:00, 5:00, 7:00, 9:00
Feature at 1:41, 3:41, 5:41, 7:41, 9:41
Coming Thur., Fri., Sat.—Mickey Rooney, Judy Garland in "GIRL CRAZY"

Carpenters' Social Night

A few members of the Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners Union gathered in the Carpenters' Hall on Eighth Street on Saturday night to enjoy an all-male social gathering. Those in attendance had an enjoyable time with whist and other card games being the order of the evening. Refreshments were also enjoyed.

Isolation Ended Marital Harmony

DOUGLAS, Isle of Man, Mar. 14 (AP)—Off the southwest tip of the Isle of Man is a rocky island known as the Calf of Man, about 800 acres large and mainly a bird sanctuary.

To the Calf of Man five years ago went Robert B. Mitchell, warden of the National Trust Bird Sanctuary. He liked the place. He wanted his wife to follow him there. But the isolation was too great for her. Now Mitchell has been awarded a divorce decree on the ground of desertion.

LONDON (AP)—In parts of London women fire guards now outnumber men by three to one.
