and Willie Stephens for the negative, that the barbarian was the happiest man were adjudged the winners, by Mr. C. V. Bennett.

A recitation by Arthur Manson, reading by James Mitchell, and story by Isaac White, followed, giving great pleasure to the appreciative little audience.

Principal Brady brought to a close a most delightful afternoon's entertainment, by relating to his pupils several most amusing and inimitably told reminiscences.

HEARD ON THE CORNER

S. M. Griffith's curtain speech must be part of the "stock" in trade.

Did you ever notice how flat a fellow's joke falls when he first takes a girl to the theatre. She is awfully nice, though, and laughs.

Several men are busily engaged by the city in scratching the dirt off the chicken ladder crossings. It was reported as paper goes to press, that the crossing at Second and Sixth Street had been found again, but this could not be verified.

Scene from Hamlet—Open trench. Hamlet (S.M.N.), gazing upon sundry typewritten pages, which he is about to bury. "Alas, poor by-law, I knew it well!"

How is it that some people would sooner pile their goods on the sidewalk than put them in a warehouse.

Geel! If St. Andrew had been twins.

Scene from Hamlet—Throne room of the city hall, Ald. B.-W., as the Queen; S.M.N., as Hamlet—"Hamlet, my son, thou dost anger the electors by thy mad prattlings and unwise actions."

St. Paul a Heretic

Montreal, Nov. 29.—When the case of Rev. Dr. Workman against the Wesleyan Theological College for alleged unjust dismissal owing to unorthodox views came up in the Court of Appeals an interesting episode occurred while C. H. Stephens, K. C., was presenting the case for Dr. Workman. "Would St. Paul be held up as a heretic in modern times?" inquired Justice Thénier from the bench. "Yes, my lord, I think he would be in the city of Montreal," Mr. Stephens flashed back.

Choicest liquors and cigars—Savoy.

BERNHARDT AT EMPRESS

On Wednesday and Thursday of next week the Divine Sarah Bernhardt will be seen at the Empress Theatre. Knowing that in the critical eyes of the camera all defects are noted, the "Divine Actress" plays her parts with that perfection which has made her the theatrical star of all time. It is only at considerable cost that the management of the Empress Theatre have been able to procure the actress, supported by a strong company in her greatest successes.

"HELLO BILL" PROVED TO BE A HUGE SUCCESS

Bubbling over with mirth for the space of two hours and a half a delighted audience packed the Westholme Opera House last evening, witnessing the performance of that funniest of farce comedies, "Hello Bill," by the Griffith Stock Company. The play itself which has to be seen to be described, has never failed wherever it has been produced to convulse an audience.

All the characters are excellently cast, and the versatility of this clever company was never better exemplified. The stage setting and appointments are of the highest order, the equal of the theatres in any of the lower coast cities.

Space forbids an extended notice of the individual players who are now becoming so well known to the public of Prince Rupert, that further praise is unnecessary.

This afternoon the popular matinee performance is sure to draw a crowded house.

Next week a particularly strong bill of plays is to be produced.

BELIEVE IN GIVING

Renworth & Jefferson and W. J. Hughes Give Valuable Prizes

There are at least two concerns in Prince Rupert who believe in the principle that "it is more blessed to give than to receive." Renworth & Jefferson, the progressive boot and shoe firm and Will J. Hughes, proprietor of one of Prince Rupert's most attractive dry goods stores have decided to distribute among their customers seventy-five dollars each in cash prizes. With every purchase amounting to $1 at either of these stores during the month of December, the purchaser will be given a numbered ticket which will entitle the holder to one chance on any of the prizes. A five dollar purchase gives five tickets. The distribution of tickets will start Monday morning and continue throughout the month of December. Details as to prizes will be found elsewhere in this issue.

Prairie Fire

Swift Current, Nov. 30.—Prairie fire is sweeping south to night over a territory forty miles wide, extending as far as the North Dakota line. It is sweeping farm buildings and everything else before it.

Montreal, Nov. 29.—Mrs. Jason Mason, said to be the largest woman in the world, died here today. Her weight was 780 pounds. Several months ago she became insane and her exploits of phenomenal strength when in a crazed frenzy had made her notorious. The ordinary walls of a room in the asylum failed to hold her and it was necessary to erect a round house, outside the main building of the asylum for her.

OBITUARY

Early this morning at the General Hospital, there passed away H. N. Raymond, an engineer, engaged under Archie McDougall, the contractor, who is doing the excavating of the waterfront for the drydock and yards at Hays Creek. The deceased, who had only been ill for a few days, was 48 years of age. The remains are in charge of E. L. Fisher, pending word from Vermont, as to the disposition of the body, from a son who resides in that state.
