FILM STAR PAYS ARMY HERE VISIT

Tops Fine Bill of Entertainment Presented to Service Men in Prince Rupert.

Lovely screen star Ingrid Bergman—she of "Intermezzo" and "Casablanca," whose latest picture is the great drama "For Whom the Bell Tolls" made three delightful personal appearances before service audiences—both American and Canadian yesterday afternoon and last evening and on each occasion the big naval drill hall was crowed to capacity. The talented 27-year old Scandinavian actress, who is well known as one of the major luminaries in the contemporary screen firmament, was accorded a great ovation as she presented three dramatic sketches, the highlight of which was a poignant scene from "For Whom the Bell Tolls" in which she is co-starred with Gary Cooper. She was assisted by Neil Hamilton, who acted as master of ceremonies for the show in which Miss Bergman was the leading figure.

Miss Bergman proved as completely charming in person as she does on the screen and one could not help being agreeing in admiration with Mr. Hamilton who had said in his introduction that she was his own favorite actress, possessing as she did in full measure the prime requisites of beauty, personality and intelligence. In addition to the scene from "For Whom the Bell Tolls", Miss Bergman and Mr. Hamilton did an odd bit "The Gift of the Magi," depicting a poverty-stricken young couple in a quandry over buying each other a Christmas present which resulted in the girl selling her beautiful hair to buy her mate a chain for the watch he had pawned to buy her gift, and another original tempermental item "The Affairs of John and Mary Thorndyke." The numbers were well suited to the talents of the tall and willowy actress who appeared in a becoming afternoon costume consisting of full black skirt with black bolero, fine-checked black and white blouse with red belt.

Miss Bergman explained that she and her party had had a strenuous trip through the north and that she was feeling the effects of a cold so would not attempt to sing, as she had done in other places. Prince Rupert was their last stand in this tour for the entertainment of the troops she said.

To the older movie fans the presence of Neil Hamilton was possibly of equal interest to that of Miss Bergman. This veteran screen star of such great pictures as "The Patriot" and others and whose latest appearance is as Shirley Temple's father in "Since You Went Away," besides acting as Miss Bergman's sketch companion and carrying the program as master of ceremonies gave a remarkable exhibition of dexterity in memeory.

Making a hit in lighter vein was pert little Joan Barton, formerly in the "Hour of Charm" radio program and now under moving picture contract to Paramount, who mingled with the boys in the audience,singing and reciting, her gesticulations with lips and eyes being a forte which kept them keenly interested and won vociferous applause for her efforts. One of the boys received a kiss and many others were envious.

Marvel Andre, interpreter of the Hawaiian dance, intrigued the service men with her hula number and also got a great hand. Persuasion of Sergeant Gregg to come up from the audience and don a grass skirt to be hula dancer's willing pupil gave a turn of fun to Miss Andre's act.

Fifth member of the party was Nancy Barnes, a talented younster, who played the accordion with skill and personality and who presided at the piano to give musical background to the entire show.

Commander Charles M. Cree, naval officer in charge here, conducted the opening of the show yesterday afternoon, expressing appreciation of the presence of the troupe here and then turning over to Neil Hamilton to carry on.

To the Health Seeker

Perhaps, a "Belief" exists that "everything has been tried and, failed"? Has "faith" subsided to the low ebb of accepting as a fact, the belief that a disease is incurable? Meanwhile, a vague misgiving persists that: Somehow, somewhere there must be an answer to incurability.

Chiropractically, the greatest handicap to health restoration is: So many cherish a traditional faith or belief to the bitter end. Meantime, a simple disease descends into an indefinite and complicated realm of incurABILITY. Thus faith and belief hinders, and denies, the natural self-curABILITY within themselves the rightful duty to remedy (meaning: to cure again).

Such statements, of disease, special or general are verified by an exhaustive survey. Over 93,000 persons turned, when disillusioned and disappointed, to Chiropractic (Nature) as a LAST resort.

Some 410 qualified Chiropractors raised no question as to the merits of faith, belief or, the competency of any remedy, to cure again. Nature had preordained that everything was incorporated within. Nature's OWN Remedy substituted incur-ABILITY for cure or marked improvement in 79,000 cases; or, 85% of tiresome, intangible disease names.

A critical reader may question this astonishing record. For the needy there are two basic considerations: The belief that a condition is obstinately incurable as, against the Chiropractic record with thousands of varied, incurable cases. Both cannot be right.

When faith and belief fails to move mountains, Mahomet must go to the mountain. Possibly, the earnest Health Seeker discerns, by the mountainous record, that everything has not been tried; that, high odds yet remain in his favor.

As Mahomet would resolve: If Chiropractic eventually, why not . . . NOW!
