Top bank officials in city for opening

Executives of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce and Prince Rupert Rotary Club will have an opportunity tonight to meeting two top British Columbia banking officials, both of whom are in the city for the opening of the new Canadian Bank of Commerce building tomorrow afternoon.

To be present at a Bank of Commerce dinner at the Broadway Cafe tonight with the Rotory and Chamber executives are John Murdock Buchanan, of Vancouver, director of the Canadian Bank of Commerce and Reginald G. Miller of Vancouver, assistant general manager of the Canadian Bank of Commerce.

Host for tonight's dinner will be local Bank of Commerce manager R. A. Morley.

Mr. Buchanan will cut the ribbon across the doors of the new bank building at the official opening ceremonies at 2 p.m. tomorrow.

One of British Columbia's leading businessmen, 63-year-old Mr. Buchanan is chairman of the board and president of the British Columbia Packers Limited, a director of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, a director of MacMillan, Bloedel and Powell River Limited and Pacific Coast Fire Insurance Company.

He is also a member of the advisory board of the Canada Trust Company and the Huron and Erie Mortgage Company, chairman of the Fisheries Association of B.C. and one of the Canadian commissioners on the International North Pacific Fisheries Commission.

Born in Steveston, B.C., Mr. Buchanan was the first student from Bridgeport High School to go to the University of British Columbia when it was housed in what is now referred to as "The Fairview Shacks." He graduated from UBC with a BA; eight years before the opening of the buildings at present in the Point Grey location.

He was briefly in the office of Peat, Marwick, Mitchell and Company, but went to B.C. Fishing and Packing Limited in March 1928, accepting the position of internal auditor, and later that year B.C. Fishing and Packing Limited was one of the parties to the large merger which brought B.C. Packers Limited into corporate form. Mr. Buchanan continued as internal auditor and in 1932 was appointed secretary - treasurer of B.C. Packers Limited. In 1935 he became general manager, in 1941 vice-president and general manager, in 1946 be became president succeeding H. R. MacMillan, who became chairman of the board. In 1956 Mr. MacMillan retired from this office and Mr. Buchanan was appointed to the position.

Born in England and educated in Halifax, N.S., Mr. Miller has been a banker for 42 years. He has acted in various capacities as widely scattered as St. John's, Newfoundland, Halifax, New York, Ottawa, Toronto and Vancouver.

He is president of the Vancouver Board of Trade, a Rotarian, vice-president of the B.C. division of the Canadian Cancer Society, a provincial councillor for the Boy Scouts Association and a member of the B.C. Research Council.

MRS. HARRY ROBB HEADS PRESBYTERIAN LADIES AID

Mrs. Harry Robb, has again taken over the leadership of First Presbyterian Church Ladies' Aid.

Past-president, she succeeds Mrs. E. G. Enwright, who was commended by Mrs. Robb for her successful year as head of the Ladies' Aid.

Also elected at the Tuesday night meeting, held at the home of Mrs. W. D. Sutherland, with Mrs. Enwright presiding, were Mrs. William Wasyk, vice-president; Mrs. Charles Love, secretary, and Mrs. John Frew, treasurer.

Business was taken up with final plans for the annual "Presbyterian Church Burns' Banquet", to be held January 25, in the church hall at 6:30 p.m.

Tickets may be obtained by telephoning Mrs. Robert Eby at 3417.

ACTIVE WINTER PROGRAM

J. M. Facey United WA elects Mrs. A. Bussanich

Newly-elected president of the J. M. Facey United Church Woman's association, Mrs. A. J. Bussanich presided at the first meeting of the year Monday night.

Also elected in the December meeting with Mrs. Bussanich were Mrs. Charles Roberts, vice-president; Mrs. A. R. Lockwood, secretary and Mrs. Kenneth Nickel, treasurer.

An active program of late winter plans were completed when it was decided to entertain the mothers of Sunday school children February 8 with an afternoon tea in the hall.

Also on the agenda will be the annual "Smorgasbord" to be held March 8 in the hall with Mrs. Roberts heading a convening committee of four.

Members were reminded that the First United church congregational annual meeting will be held January 30.

Refreshments served by Mrs. R. H. Larson and Mrs. Clyde Smith concluded the session.

Next meeting will be held February 20 in the hall.

E. F. Verwold to take over leadership

E. F. Verwold was elected president of the Senior Young People's Group of the First Baptist Church, Monday night when the church members held their annual meeting.

Mr. Verwold succeeds Arthur Jones, who was thanked for his many years of service to the youth group.

Others named to executive positions were Miss Pamela Painter, vice - president and Miss Beverly Carlsen, secretary-treasurer.

Named to the programming committee were Miss Mary White, Miss Aileen Ganton, David Owens and Philip Patrick.

Sonja Ladies re-elect Mrs. Strand

Mrs. Anton Strand was re-elected president of the Sonja Ladies Wednesday night at the group's first meeting of the new year, held at the home of Mrs. Jack Strand, with 14 members present.

On the executive with Mrs. Strand are Mrs. Jack Strand, vice-president; Mrs. Erling Wick, secretary; Mrs. Raynor Montgomery, treasurer; Mrs. Peter Lien and Mrs. R. C. Webber, sick committee and Mrs. Thomas Mulhern, publicity.

Taking top priority on the business agenda was the planning of the annual banquet to be held in the Sons of Norway Hall, February 18, with Mrs. Jack Strand convening.

Prize draws saw Miss Sharon Montgomery take the chair prize and Mrs. Webber, the lucky draw.

Next meeting will be held February 1 at the home of Mrs. Lien.

ICC re-elects John Barrazzuol, plans Venetian Night masquerade

Elections of officers and a "Night in Venice" fund-raising masquerade dance highlighted the first meeting of the year for the Italo-Canadian club of Prince Rupert.

John Barrazzuol was re-elected as head for the ensuing year.

His executives are Otto Sambol, first vice-president; Peter Presotto, second vice-president; Antonio Seccia, secretary; R. A. Giordano, treasurer and C. P. Balagno, Vernon Ciccone, Peter Ferraro and Lido Gaudagni, directors.

To help finance the completion of the fountain, it was decided to hold a "Venetian Night" masquerade ball, Saturday, February 11 in the Armouries. Open to the public the motif for the gala affair will be a night in Venice with prizes offered for best costumes. It was pointed out that no one will be admitted unless suitably costumed and masked.

"We have accomplished much in our first year but the future holds an even greater challenge with the club growing and becoming more conscious of its role in the community", Mr. Barrazzuol said in accepting his re-election.
