HUNDREDS TOUR RESIDENCE

Record crowd attends spring tea staged by First United Church WA

A record crowd of city residents continuously filled the United Residence Wednesday afternoon when the First United Church Woman's association held a tremendously successful "Spring Tea".

During the hours of 2 and 5 p.m. hundreds of persons toured the Residence, under the guidance of Miss Wilma Sharpe, Mrs. James Ciccone and Mrs. K. J. Warren.

Receiving at the door were Mrs. R. W. K. Elliott, wife of the church pastor and Mrs. Roy Boychuk, WA president.

Mrs. T. M. Carscadden was general convener for the affair which realized some $250 from tea, plant, home - baking and white elephant sales.

Proceeds are ear-marked for WA projects and the work of the United Church in Prince Rupert.

Profusions of daffodils which graced the two pouring tables and individual tea tables, were provided by Mrs. K. F. Harding, picked from her summer home on Digby Island.

Presiding at the tea cups were Mrs. D. R. Chassels, Mrs. Ivan S. Gamble, Miss Elaine Bulmer, Mrs. W. D. Stothert, Mrs. D. K. Cameron and Mrs. M. C. Girardet.

Mrs. R. A Morley directed the kitchen and supervised the serviteurs.

Plant table convener was Mrs. A. Donald Ritchie while Mrs. O. R. Green convened the home-baking table.

Mrs. Howard Haugan and Mrs. Ronald Wright convened the white elephant sale table, provided by the Young Woman's association.

Cashiers were Mrs. Lester Franklin and Mrs. Arthur Logan.

In charge of the baby-sitting service were members of the Young Woman's association.

Friendship ball tonight, 'Session' set for Sunday

Mrs. Joseph Haugan, Mrs. John Helgason and Mrs. Lily McIver were the recipients of carnation corsages following their enrollment into the Women of the Moose Chapter No. 211 Wednesday night in the Moose Temple.

Presided by Senior Regent Mrs. Thomas Thomas, Mrs. Ejvind Nielson, chairman of the membership committee, in charge of the night's program, gave a brief outline of the committee's work and made the corsage presentations to new members.

Members were reminded of the annual Canadian National Institute of the Blind meeting, to be held May 15 in the Temple, featuring a guest speaker and films.

The Senior Regent urged all members to attend and to bring friends to the CNIB meeting, which is sponsored by the WOTM.

It was announced that three graduate regents, Mrs. Kenneth Hardy, Mrs. William Pilford and Mrs. H. I. Phipps of the city chapter, will be admitted to the College of Regents at the session being held at Moosehart, June 10.

It was pointed out that there was a need for more members to help with the drill team and anyone wishing to join the group is asked to get in touch with Mrs. Cherrill McIntyre or Miss Alice Paulson.

Trade fair display wares of 37 countries

VANCOUVER (CP) — The wares of 37 countries went on public display here Wednesday as the second British Columbia International Trade Fair opened a 10-day stand.

Workmen stayed until the late night hours Tuesday putting the last touches of paint to display booths and buildings at the Pacific National Exhibition where 200,000 persons, including 7,000 buyers and purchasing agents from many world business centres, are expected to view the merchandise on show.

The displays range from a Mercury space capsule — the type in which a United States astronaut is expected to make the first U.S. space flight — to a 40-foot model of the ocean liner Rotterdam.

The wares range from tachia grass works from Formosa to motor scooters from Czechoslovakia, from the latest in Paris fashions to a seven-ton diesel locomotive.

The fair, organized and sponsored by the provincial department of trade and industry, has attracted goods worth more than $30,000,000, with 17 countries staging national governmental displays and 20 others represented by commercial exhibits.
