PASSING OF MRS. UNWIN

Esteemed Pioneer Woman of City Removed By Death On Sunday Afternoon

Death removed another of Prince Rupert's esteemed pioneers with the sudden passing at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon at her home on Moresby Avenue, Westview, of Mrs. Elizabeth P. Unwin, wife of John E. Unwin. She had been in indifferent health for some time but had been able to be out daily. It was while taking a stroll yesterday afternoon with her husband that she was seized, expiring soon after she reached home. Many friends will regret to learn of her death and will join in extending sympathy to Mr. Unwin as well to their only son and other relatives.

Mrs. Unwin was born seventy-two years ago in Kent, England, and came to Prince Rupert in 1910 with her brothers, marrying Mr. Unwin in this city before the last war.

Besides the widower, Mrs. Unwin is survived by one son, Staff Sergeant Jack Unwin, serving with the Royal Canadian Artillery overseas, five brothers — Alfred, Horace, Robert and Edward Shrubsall in Prince Rupert and Harold Shrubsall, also serving overseas, and two sisters —Mrs. William Miles in England and Mrs. Harry Solly in Australia.

Funeral arrangements are in the hands of B.C. Undertakers.

Veteran of Two World Wars Dies

Hanford M. Watson, veteran of two wars and an employee of the local dry dock for the past couple of years, passed away Saturday morning at the Prince Rupert General Hospital after a brief illness. He had come here from Edmonton and is survived by a widow and two children residing at 1006 Alfred Street. There is a boy six years of age and a girl seven.

Mr. Watson was born in Belfast, Ireland, and was fifty-seven years of age. He enlisted in the very early days of the First Great War and served in the front lines in France for the duration of that war with the Third Battalion. He enlisted with the Veterans' Guard in the present war and served for some time on the prairies.

The funeral will take place Tuesday afternoon under Canadian Legion auspices.
