Rally cars start on sixth leg

Drivers facing twisting roads

CALGARY (CP)—Drivers and navigators faced new problems of teamwork today as they headed into the Rocky Mountains and the sixth leg of their Trans-Canada auto rally.

Early starters were to rise in darkness and drive through almost 700 miles of twisting mountain passes, back into darkness before they reached Penticton.

An eight-hour stopover in Calgary followed a relatively easy 184-mile direct stretch from Edmonton Thursday evening, where the 93-car field passed through its fourth spot test.

The rally began with 106 cars in Montreal Sunday. By the time they reach Vancouver Saturday, they will have travelled 4,1000 miles over the longest rally course in the Western hemisphere.

The overall leader after standings were compiled at the Regina stop were Homer Trotter of Watertown, N.Y., and navigator R. Mollman of Ohio. They were without a penalty point in a Mercedes - Benz of Canada Limited factory-entered car.

Jack Young and Reg Hillary of Toronto were second, also with no penalty points, driving a Studebaker factory - entered Lark.

An accident Thursday north of Saskatoon led to the disqualification of a Ford Zephyr driven by Kenneth Charles Chambers of London, England, and navigated by Paul Cook of Saskatchewan.

Their car rolled into a ditch near Dalmeny, Sask., returned to the course with all its windows broken, but failed to reach Edmonton within the 1½-hour limit.

LEAD MANUFACTURERS

At Regina, before the dust-choked 500-mile stretch Thursday to Edmonton, Studebaker-Packard of Canada Limited led among entries by manufacturers with four penalty points.

The Ford Falcon entry had six demerits and the Ford Anglia group 20.

Gillian Field and Alice Ferguson, both of Toronto, led women entrants as far as Regina. They picked up no penalty points in their Citreon and were 11th in the over-all field.

Standings from the five spot tests along the route will be tallied formally in Vancouver and could serve to break any ties that occur in the results of general performances by the cars.

Rally officials said Thursday night a tie could easily result, since eight cars left Regina without an error, having passed their check points en route with near-perfect timing.

DRIVER DISQUALIFIED . . . The rugged Trans-Canada Rally was too much for this car. The immaculate white Mercedes-Benz 190SL driven by Francis Scharer and Joe Ambrozy of the U.S. bogged down at the Mosport Motor Racing Circuit 60 miles east of Toronto when it drove into mud chewed up by preceding cars. The car was disqualified from the test when a dozen course marshals had to step in to give a push. — CP Wirephoto

NHL bid dim

VANCOUVER (CP) — President Clarence Campbell of the National Hockey League said Thursday night in a telephone interview from Montreal, that plans for a new 8,500-seat arena has not enhanced Vancouver's hopes for an NHL franchise. Campbell said it was doubtful the league would ever expand to more than eight teams or establish a western division.

Tigers keep in step with Yankees as Mossi comes up with two-hitter

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Staff Writer

When Don Mossi finally had to give up because of arm trouble and missed the last two months of last season it appeared the longtime southpaw ace was washed up. That was one reason Detroit Tigers were overlooked in the pennant picks. At the moment, it looks like an oversight.

Mossie won his third without defeat Thursday night. He did it with a two-hit pitching job that beat Washington Senators 6-0 and kept the Tigers in a tie with New York Yankees for the American League lead.

The Yankees made off with a three-game sweep by beating Minnesota Twins 5-2. Baltimore, after scoring three runs in the ninth for a tie, beat Los Angeles Angels 8-7 on Ron Hansen's two-run single in the 13th. No other games were scheduled.

GOOD PERFORMANCE

Mossi, 331, walked three and struck out five in the best performance of his eight-year career, which has included a trio of three-hitters.

He had a no-hit game until Gene Green singled with two out in the seventh inning. The other hit, also a single, was by Willie Tasby with two out in the ninth.

NATIONAL LEAGUE

In three starts for Cincinnati, in which the Reds didn't score a run in 18 innings, Joey Jay lost three. But the young right hander finally won one Thursday night by pitching a one-hit National League shutout.

He barely missed a perfect game in a 4-0 victory over Philadelphia. The only hit by the Phils was a one-out single in the first inning by Johnny Callison. And the only other man to reach base for the Phils was Ruben Amaro, who drew Jay's lone walk, leading off the third inning.

After that Jay retired 18 in a row, with Amaro rubbed out as losing pitcher Art Mahaffey hit into a double play. He struck out seven.

The lone night game gave the Reds their fifth straight victory —four against the Phils—since plunking into the cellar last Sunday. Now fifth and back at .500, the Reds are 2½ games behind first-place San Francisco.

PADDED THEIR LEAD

The Giants padded their lead over idle Pittsburgh to a full game by rapping Chicago Cubs 9-3. Milwaukee grabbed third place from Los Angeles by beating the Dodgers 10-6 in 10 innings on Joe Adcock's grand slam homer.

LOS ANGELES (CP)—Los Angeles Dodgers and Philadelphia Phillies completed a surprise two-for-two trade Thursday night. The Dodgers sent classy centrefielder Don Demeter and shortstop Charlie Smith to the Phils and gained relief ace Dick Farrell and shortstop Joe Koppe in return.

MEET LEICESTER

Spurs make bid tomorrow for highly rated double

By PAUL WESTBROOK
Canadian Press Staff Writer

LONDON (AP)—Tottenham Hotspur embarks Saturday on its bid to become the 20th-century wonder of British soccer.

Not since the 1890s has a team won the Football Association Cup and the League championship in the same season. Now the mighty Spurs are within a whisker of performing this difficult double.

They have already won the league title and Saturday they meet Leicester City in the Cup final. Just about every soccer fan in Britain is waiting to see whether they can pull off the elusive double.

If glamor is the key to success the Spurs should win. They have been the team of the season, playing cultured soccer before packed grounds. They have lost only seven times in 47 outings. Their star-studded lineup is modestly valued at £200,000 on the transfer market.

HARD WORKERS

In contrast, few Leicester players would rate high cash offers and the side has never been noted for anything but hard work.

However, the Midlands have a reputation for upsetting the big guns. They are one of the few teams to have beaten Spurs in a league match this season.

In Spurs' favor is their ability to overcome tension. There will be plenty of it when 100,000 fans pack into the giant Wembley Stadium for the cup final, biggest even in the soccer calendar.

Comparing lineups Spurs are definitely superior. The side contains six experienced international players, ably led by skipper Danny Blanchflower.

LACKS FINESSE

Although Leicester lacks Spurs' finesse, its hard tackling is an excellent counter to cultured opposition.

The whole team practically revolves round skipper Jimmy Walsh, an experienced player adept at both attack and defence. Leicester's goals usually come from Welsh international centre-forward Ken Leek and leftwinger Albert Cheesebrough.

In defence Leicester is strong. The Midlanders' halfback line is only slightly inferior to that of Spurs. Goalkeeper Gordon Banks is an international class.

Tottenham has won the Cup twice, in 1901 and 1921. Leicester has never won the trophy but was the losing finalist in 1949.

Buckaroos halt late Totem rally to take lead in WHL final series

SEATTLE (AP)—A goal by Larry Leach into an open net broke the back of Seattle Totems' last-period rally and gave Portland Buckaroos a 5-3 victory before 4,414 fans here Thursday night in the Western Hockey League finals. Portland leads the best-of-seven series 3-2.

Buckaroos built up a 4-0 margin on a pair of goals in both the first two periods but the lead almost backfired.

With Portland on the defensive, the Totems opened up with a three-goal barrage that pulled them to within a single counter of the victors.

In desperation the Totems pulled netminder Bev Bentley in favor of a sixth attacker. It was then Leach took a pass from linemate Alfro Goodwin and scored.

Gordon Fashoway, Bill Davidson, Art Jones and Barney Krake split the Portland scoring in the first two periods. Ed Ehrenverth, Don Chlupka and Bill MacFarland scored for Seattle.

Portland, taking advantage of their scoring chances, climbed into a 2-0 lead in the opening period on goals by Fashoway at 2:01 and Davidson at 16:22.

Davidson's counter came while Seattle was shorthanded.

SCORED ON RUSH

In the second Jones made it 3-0 at 5:15 and Krake added another on a solo rush less than two minutes later.

Ehrenverth started the Totem's comeback bid, slapping in a rebound after a long drive by defenceman Les Hunt fell in front of the Portland net.

Two minutes later centre Rudy Filion gained control of another faceoff in the Portland end and set up MacFarland for his goal.

The victory pushed Portland to within one game of its first WHL championship. The Bucks re-entered professional hockey this season after an absence of a decade and finished in second place during the regular season.

TO OUR FRIENDS IN THE CANADIAN HALIBUT FLEET

We believe it is important to all fisherment that cold storage facilities operate on the outer coast of southeastern Alaska. We believe that competition for your fish is good for the fishermen and for the whole industry. We believe fish frozen in Alaska is a better product. We believe you start fishing with better bait and ice when you take if from us. We believe in the future of the fish business and the advantages of our area and that is why the Pelican Cold Storage Company owns and operates a plant at Pelican and another at Sitka.

At Sitka, Gay Helland is our manager. Gay succeeded Len Peterson, who retired in 1959. Gay is on the radio on 2512 kcs. and our Sitka station call is "KWA-65 Sitka Cold Storage." Give Gay a call before you get in and he will be on deck to take care of you when you arrive. Lennie Engstrom of Engstrom Brothers buys fish at Sitka and so do we. Between us, we represent Pick-Shapiro, the Co-op, Northern Products, Vita, Seaboard, McCallum-Legaz and other accounts. Our store manager, Charles King, has a wide range of groceries, meats, produce, gear, hardware and clothing. Customs, banking and phone services are conveniently available.

At Pelican, Bob Steele, our plant foreman, is on the job all the time and I make my headquarters there. We do not buy fish at Pelican but there are three good buyers on our dock who do: Fred Grant, for Engstrom; Jim Mars for Vita and New England; and Roy Torwick for Booth. Between them, they represent Pick-Shapiro, Booth, Vita, New England, the Co-op, Northern Products and other accounts. Our office manager, Bill Carr, and his wife Pat watch the radio and our Pelican station call is "KWI-64 Pelican." Our Pelican store manager is Frank Kuehn and Frank has the same big variety of store stock as we have at Sitka. Customs, banking, postal and airline services are available from Joe Sadlier and his wife Dorothy right next to our plant. This year we will have regular dial telephone service with the rest of the world on a 24-hour basis for the first time.

At both Pelican and Sitka we have FRESH stocks of octopus and herring bait and OLD stocks of ice. We constantly strive to improve our service and solicit your business on the basis of courteous, friendly treatment and fair dealing.

Good luck for 1961!

President,
PELICAN COLD STORAGE CO.
