YANK TITLE FIGHT—

EXCITEMENT RUNNING HIGH OVER McCANN-SMITH BATTLE FRIDAY

American soldiers here and in Alaska are keyed to fever pitch over the meeting Friday at Ketchikan of Billy McCann, Alaska welterweight boxing champion, and Ray Smith of Acropolis Hill.

The 700-seat arena there has long been sold out and at $3 a seat—a small fortune for any G.I.

That McCann is a tough, experienced fighter, is wide knowledge. But local fight experts, who have been studying Smith, Acropolis Hill welter champ and boxing coach, herald this boy as the brightest fight prospect seen anywhere in some time.

The high rating given Smith is not entirely due to the fact he is a Rupert Yank. This young soldier is a scientific boxer with speed and a powerful punch.

Anyone who can stand up against Canadian soldier Tommy Burns, claimant to the Canadian welterweight title, is a real fighter. Smith did better than that. He kayoed Burns, one of the smartest fighters on the Canadian coast.

From this victory, Smith went on to Ketchikan to flatten Red Knox, Alaska favorite, in two rounds.

With their best opposition to Acropolis disposed of, Ketchikan send a hurried call to the Alaskan champ, McCann, who has held the Alaskan welter crown since 1941.

McCann is being given a publicity build-up as a killer, with emphasis being placed on the terrific lacing he gave a former champ.

Smith, who has San Francisco ring experience behind him, is a quiet, good looking lad who bears no apparent battle scars. His easy movements and quick eye are the only indications of his ability when outside the ring. Inside the ropes he pleases the fans and gives his opposition trouble from start to finish.

Should Smith take the nod Friday in the scheduled 8-round bout, he will become the subject of widespread interest. Adding the Northern welter title to his present claim for Canadian welterweight title recognition may well place him in a spot to tackle the best fightdom has to offer.

Fighting on the same card Friday night will be Wellmond Wallace, Abram Lider and Urban Hernandez. Lider who is tangling with Red Knox, is also rated high as a fighter with a future.

So the boys on Acropolis Hill can follow the McCann-Smith battle, the fight will be broadcast long-wave over station KTKN, on the radio dial between 900 and 100. Pete Wambach, of the U.S.O. here, and Cpl. Art Sydney, of the local U.S. Special Service, will handle the broadcast. Pete will provide the background and color, while Art will give a blow-by-blow description. Both men are experienced sports announcers.

Speed is the essence of mobility but advance information to the enemy will defeat it. Be careful of your conversation.

SPORT FLASHBACKS

By the Canadian Press

REMEMBER WHEN Tonypandy Tommy Farr, Welshman who wasn't supposed to have a chance, stunned experts with his plucky 15-round showing against Joe Louis, heavyweight boxing champion, at New York seven years ago tonight. The champion had little difficulty winning the decision, but he couldn't stop the rugged challenger.

PLAN SERIES FOR CANADIAN ARMY CHAMPIONSHIP

Arrangements for a series to decide the Canadian Army softball championship of Prince Rupert area were made at a meeting in the Empress Club last night. In attendance were managers of the six competing teams, and Gordon Webb, of the Y.M.C.A. War Services, league secretary. Lt. Warburton, R.C.E., was chairman.

This series is only one of six military playoffs that will be staged in British Columbia. All games, except the finals, will be sudden-death fixtures and nine innings will be played instead of the usual seven. Gyro Park will be the scene of all the engagements.

First contests are slated for Sept. 6, when Coast Regiment plays Third Ack-Acks in the afternoon, and Barrett tangles with Second Ack-Acks at night.

Rangers and First Ack-Acks will meet Sept. 7. The best-of-three games finals are expected to start Sept. 11.

MEN'S SOFTBALL—

Port Edward Shut Out Barrett In First Game of Final Series

Realization of a pitcher's dream, to hurl a no-hit game in a championship series, was almost experienced by hurler Cuntz as he led the Port Edward Softball Club to a 11-0 victory over Barrett last night on the winner's home grounds.

Second game of the Area Softball League finals will be played at Barrett tonight.

One hit was all the usually hard-hitting Barrett nine could garner off the Port Edward moundsman. Meanwhile, the winners gained five runs in the first inning, another in the fourth and five more in the sixth, to win easily.
