PARCEL FATE ABOARD SHIP

"If you have ever seen pictures or read stories of Navy life, you will have a fair idea of the fate a parcel from home receives aboard ship," writes Chief Petty Officer William Murray of Prince Rupert in writing to the local Ladies' Orange Benevolent Association acknowledging a Christmas parcel he received from that organization.

"The parcel becomes practically public property. Some one is short a razor blade, a bar of soap, a cigarette, so wipe and there it goes. But it works both ways. I am as bad as the worst so I must include the members of the mess when I send my thanks.

"Unfortunately, we were on a little job that prevented us from receiving our mail in time for Christmas but, with all the Christmas wrappings, sweets, nuts and what not that were in evidence around the ship today, we had two Christmasses this year.

C.P.O. Murray wrote from H.M C.S. Prince Henry.

baseball was cut short due to an arm fracture. While stationed at Chatham Bruce developed a very extensive hobby and handicraft program and specialized particularly in Discussion Groups and other program features.

FRANK RYAN—Is in charge of movies in the Prince Rupert and Northern Area. From his office each year are sent out movie programs to be shown in approximately forty locations, with a total number of over 7000 showings. He has charge of the upkeep of 24 portable projectors and the other supplies needed to serve this large area. Frank was associated with the London Life Insurance Company Head Office before entering YMCA War Services 4½ years ago. Since that time he has been stationed at Windsor, Brantford, and finally Prince Rupert.

ED. SELYAN—Physical Director in the "Y's" modern gymnasium, and in charge of interservice sports for the Prince Rupert Area, has been Senior Supervisor at Terrace Army Camp for the past two and a half years. Ed is an able gymnast and has been closely associated with YMCA activities in Toronto since boyhood. Before entering YMCA War Services he was a member of the Senior Leaders Corps of the Toronto YMCA, and also numbers among his many accomplishments a feal flare for sports broadcasting.

MRS. ALLEN NOBLSTON—YWCA Hostess associated with the YMCA, deals specifically with the problems of Servicemen's wives and families. She operates a Room Registry and many scores of Service personnel have benefited by her ability to find a room or a home when one doesn't seem to exist in the crowded Prince Rupert Area. Mrs. Noblston is in charge of the "Y" Hostess Groups, which provides hostesses for the various service dances in the Area. Wife of an Army officer stationed on the continent, Mrs. Noblston has been active with the YWCA since the early stages of the war and was formerly stationed at the W.R.C.N.S. Barracks in Galt, Ont., and in many other stations across Canada.

MISS JEAN TRAVERS—Assistant Program Supervisor for the YMCA who was formerly with the Vancouver School Board. While a teacher, Jean specialized in music and physical education. She is a talented pianist, and was active at the Boundary Bay Hostess House, in church circles, and I.O.D.E. work before joining the YMCA War Services last summer. Until recently she has been stationed at No. 4 Group, R.C.A.F., and has given special attention to recreation and leisure time program for the R.C.A.F., W.D., C.W.A.C., and W.R.C.N.S. in their barrack areas.

MRS. HELEN WOODSIDE—Canteen and Cafeteria manageress, has been a resident of Prince Rupert for the past fifteen years. She has ably managed the canteen in the YMCA Moose Hall and is a friend of every service member in the Prince Rupert area. She is assisted by MRS. HEATHER BELISLE, formerly assistant manageress at the YMCA Servicemen's Cafeteria, who has devoted her wartime efforts to this type of service since her husband went Overseas with the R.C.A.F. three years ago. Other members of the canteen staff are Miss Anne McCormick, Mrs. Brescia, Mrs. Mabel Petersen and Mrs. Nettie Gadd.

Other members of the YMCA new building staff include Miss Mildred Hill, Area Office Secretary, who has been with the YMCA for the past year and a half, and Miss Mary Fisher, stenographer. J. R. Morrison, former Fire Chief for the City of Prince Rupert, is engineer for the new building, and will be assisted by J. More, A. Paavola and Mrs. E. M. Roland.

AIX LA CHAPELLE

The city of Aachen in Germany was called Aix La Chapelle by the French.

"HOLLYWOOD CANTEEN" IS COMING UP

"Hollywood Canteen," where the film folk entertain the people of the forces and transform themselves into real flesh-and-blood hostesses, dishwaters, waiters, busboys and janitors, is the setting for a moving, amusing film story of two war veterans, Bob Hutton and Dane Clark, in the picture which comes to the Capitol Theatre here this Thursday, Friday and Saturday. There is a pleasant romance with an attractive list of popular musicial numbers but the big feature is the procession of moving picture stars who are to be seen. Joan Leslie plays the romantic lead opposite Hutton.

The musical numbers introduced in "Hollywood Canteen" are "Sweet Dreams, Sweetheart," "You Can Always Tell A Yank," "What Are You Doing The Rest of Your Life," "The General Jumped At Dawn," "Gettin' Corns For My Country," and "Don't Fence Me In."

above the stage at the back, with steps leading down to the wings. A catwalk passes across the back of the stage, well above the sight of the audience, to connect the dressing rooms.

A check room with a vault for valuables is situated near the main door of the auditorium.

The upper floor is where the social part really gets down to business. The ladies are well cared for here, having a particularly attractive lounge room, sewing room, kitchenette and washroom at the McBride St. corner. A separate stairway leads from the ground floor near the women's entrance.

The women's game room, equipped with ping pong tables and other games faces the front of the building, separated from the men's game room by the library and the office of Miss Jean Travers, assistant program supervisor.

In the men's game room are a pool table, ping pong tables and other games. The men's lounge, with a fireplace, writing tables and easy chairs is at the western corner of the front of the building.

One necessity in such a building is adequate staff accommodation. As well as the offices of Mr. McIntyre, Mr. Selyan and Miss Travers, already mentioned, there is an office on the second floor, adjoining the men's lounge, for Don Forward, area YMCA director. Actually, Mr. Forward has two offices, one for his secretary and an inner sanctum which is the hub of area Y.M.C.A. activity. Frank Ryan, moving picture supervisor, has an office on the ground floor at the side of the building. From this office are dispatched all the films shown in service camps in northwest British Columbia.

A real service which will be appreciated by military folk is provided by a laundry and drying room where men who come from distant points can wash and dry their garments. An electric washing machine and rinse tubs are provided. The drying room contains steam piping to speed up the process. Spacious personal washrooms and showers are also available.

The eastern wing of the second floor contains staff quarters, three large bedrooms with two beds in each, and also a staff meeting room. These have an understandable seclusion from the rest of the building.

In the basement at the rear of the building is the heating plant, a coal fired low pressure steam boiler.

When the new centre opens tomorrow it will institute a new phase in the already excellent record of the Y.M.C.A. war services in Prince Rupert.
