Annunciation church scene of Basso-Lindstrom rites

Of wide interest in Prince Rupert and northern British Columbia was the lovely early evening wedding ceremony solemnized in the Church of the Annunciation April 15 when Miss Heather Maria Lindstrom became the bride of Ronald Joseph Basso.

The bridal principals, members of long-time city families repeated their vows before the altar adorned with bouquets of delicately tinted carnations, enhanced with flickering candlelight.

Rev. J. I. McMahon officiated at the 6 p.m. double-ring service for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Perkins and the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Basso, sr.

Walking up the aisle on the arm of her father, the bride was radiant in exquisite silk-organza. Fashioned in floor-length en train the gown was beautifully designed with silk embroidered floral sprays. The bouffant skirt featured back interest styled with a semi-bustle, accented with a tier of three silk-organza roses, which fell from a fitted bodice framed with a deep V-neckline and tiny cap sleeves.

Her elbow - length gloves matched her dress and gracefully securing her shoulder-length veil was a tiara of seeded pearls. The bride's jewellery was a pearl droplet and ear-ring set, gift of the groom and she carried a cascading bouquet of American Beauty roses.

In pretty contrast matron-of-honor Mrs. Joseph Gallant was wearing a short pink chiffon gown created with a voluminous skirt falling from a softly draped fitted bodice. A huge white picture hat and accessories en tone completed her ensemble and she carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

Best man was Joseph Gallant and performing ushering duties were Harry Basso and John Basso Jr., brothers of the groom and the bride's brother, Charles Lindstrom. Mrs. Denis Rowse was church organist.

At the reception in the Sons of Norway hall the bride's mother, receiving some 160 guests, was charming in a flowered sheath gown of tan tones and topped with a matching short jacket, off-set with beige accessories. Her corsage was of white carnations.

For the occasion the groom's mother chose to wear a black gown, styled with a peplum, and a spring straw blue hat. Her corsage was also composed of white carnations.

The bride's table, centred with a three-tiered wedding cake, was an attractive setting of white and pink tapers in copper holders and bouquets of iris intermingled with fern.

Erdman Hildebrand proposed the toast to his niece and was master of ceremony for the wedding party, highlighted by a long - distance telephone call from RCMP Constable and Mrs. Donald Johnston in Powell River.

Serviteurs were Misses Wanda McLean, Dorothy Hildebrand, Rosalia Perkins, Mae Perkins, Mrs. John Basso, Mrs. Harry Basso, and Mrs. Erdman Hildebrand.

Following a motor honeymoon trip through the Okanagan Valley, newlyweds upon their return at the end of the month will take up residence at 137 Fifth Avenue West.

Out-of-town guests here for the event were relatives of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Disher, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Disher, all of Vancouver; Mr. and Mrs. Larry Disher of Burns Lake; Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Godfrey of Terrace and Mrs. John Patrick of McBride.

2:30 P.M. AT CIVIC CENTRE

Sunday band concert to feature guest stars

A showcase of music designed for pleasant listening will be presented to the public Sunday afternoon when the Prince Rupert Civic Band stages its Spring Concert in the Civic Centre at 2:30 p.m.

Under the baton of new conductor, G. R. Sahlen, who took over when former band master, Joseph G. Arduini left the city in January, the band will present marches, overtures, waltzes and many well-known compositions.

The concert program will also feature a group of 10 guest accordionists and well - known city pianist Winnifred Rompf who will play "Rondo Capriccioso" by Mendelssohn and "Waltz Brilliante" by Moszkowski.

The first four band numbers will be "Under the Double Eagle," "Gold and Silver Waltz," "Under the Banner of Victory" and "The Holy City," a trombone solo featuring C. L. Heath with band accompaniment.

Selections to be played in the second part of the concert will be "La Sorella," "La Spagnola," "Sweet and Low" and "Battle Hymn of the Republic."

Following selections by pianist Winnifred Rompf the band will present "Standard of St. George," "Mighty Lak' a Rose," "Bandmaster Overture," "Simple Aveu," "La Boheme" and the concert march "Knights Bridge" to conclude the musical spring event.

WOTM pledges near $200

members told at session

Pledges have almost reached the $200 mark members of the Women of the Moose were told Wednesday night when the chapter held its regular meeting in the Moose Temple with Senior Regent Mrs. Thomas Thomas presiding.

In her report former deputy Grand Regent Mrs. John Kasper said that pledges were still coming in.

Mrs. Thomas announced that the building committee had held a meeting and plans for a new building were being worked on.

Mrs. Mae Ratchford and Mrs. Thora Stegavig were presented pink carnation corsages by the Senior Regent who also presented Mrs. Ratchford with a 25-year pin which she said was long overdue and also congratulated Mrs. Stegavig for being a member of 37 years standing.

Another presentation highlight saw Mrs. Morris Holmberg receive a belated wedding gift from the chapter.

A very interesting letter from the chapter's student nurse Jeanette Sparks was read by hospital committee chairman, Mrs. Matthew Garbelya.

In it Miss Sparks stated that she would be graduating from St. Joseph's Hospital, Victoria, in May and that she will be making a visit to Prince Rupert following her graduation.

Moosehaven membership and hospital committees will be in charge of the bingo for the next three weeks.

Norma Commins' name was drawn for the lucky box and Mrs. Albert Eveleigh won the Ray McMillan raffle.

The Senior Regent extended an invitation to the membership from the Loyal Order of Moose to attend the installation of officers tonight at 8:30 p.m. to be followed by a social and dance.

The homemaking committee served refreshments.

United church in radio panels

Beginning this Sunday, April 23, Prince Rupert radio listeners will be able to hear a cross section of Canadian leaders discuss in radio panels, the role of the United Church of Canada in Canadian policy making in four different programs.

Issues such as nuclear weapons for Canada, the crisis in the United Nations, feeding the world's hungry and the upsurge in Africa will be heard on "Religious Period" on the CBC Trans-Canada network.

The series will be carried on April 23 and 30 and May 7 and 14 and heard over radio station CFPR from 2 to 2:30 p.m. Pacific Standard Time.

"Should Canada Have Nuclear Weapons" will be the first subject in the series of four broadcasts with host Alexander Webster.

Gideons International celebrate golden jubilee

Sunday has been designated Gideon Sunday in Canada, when hundreds of members will be giving an account of their work in churches from coast to coast, as part of the association's golden jubilee celebrations.

An association of Christian commercial, business and professional men, the Gideons International in Canada was organized in 1911, 12 years after the foundation of the parent association was laid in Janesville, Wisconsin.

Best known for their work in the area of Scripture distribution, the Canadian association has placed over 750,000 Bibles in hotels, hospitals, schools, penal institutions, university residences and a number of sundry fields. In addition, more than 2,000,000 New Testaments, with the added books of Psalms and Proverbs, have been given to boys and girls in public schools.

Another important phase of distribution is carried on by the ladies' auxiliary who present white Testaments to nurses in training.

Fourteen years ago a Memorial Bible Plan was introduced, through which Scriptures are dedicated in memory of departed loved ones and friends. Over 50,000 Bibles are dedicated annually.
