

EDWARD LIPSETT Ltd.

Prince Rupert, B.C.

MERRY CHRISTMAS!

Something to Crow About'

From Us All. We Will Be Closed From Midnight Christmas Eve And Re-Opening Friday January 2nd

TONY'S SELF SERVE DRIVE-IN

Foot of Sixth near the Rupert Hotel

Phone 3359

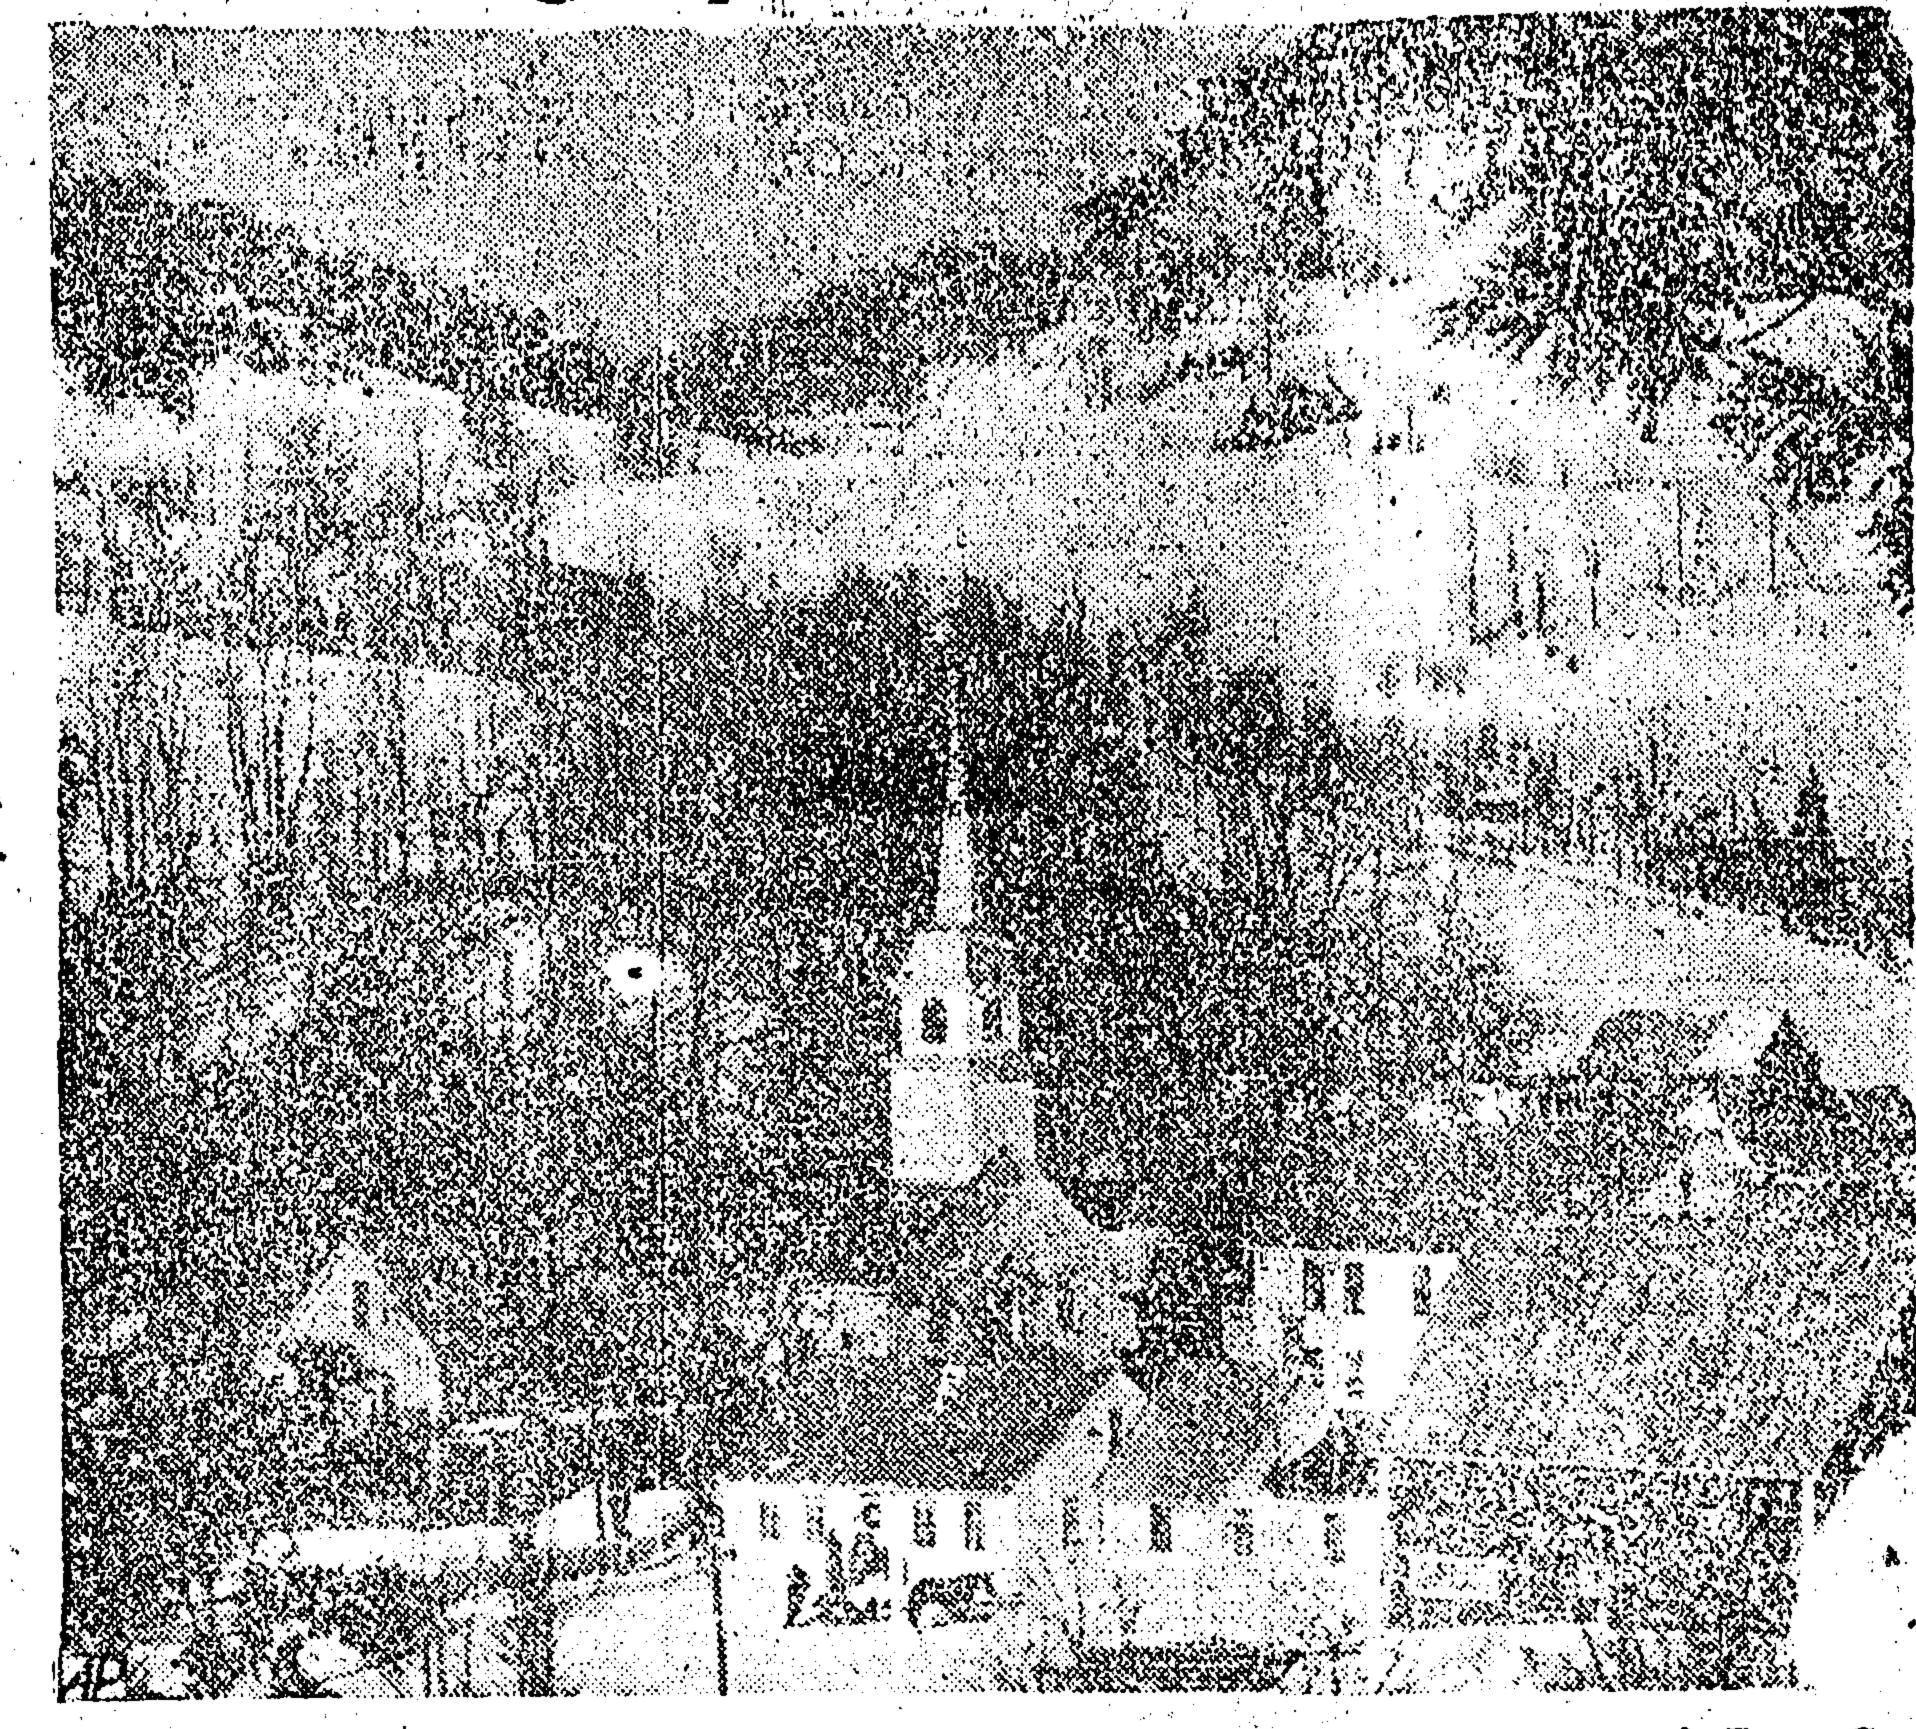

and mingle with the happiness in your heart, May the spirit of Christmas ever dwell with you.

Management and Staff of PRINTING Co. Ltd.

Photographers love East Corinth, Vermont By WALTER R. MEARS

Vt., shown here at its wintertime best. The picturesque church was built in 1840.

the palm trees grow, To watch their flock at night some shepherds stayed.

Then suddenly a brilliant light Your Saviour now is born in did glow, God's angel came and they were sore afraid.

In the fields of Bethlehem where "Be not afraid Good news I bring you down. It is for all the people living everywhere.

> David's town, He is Christ the Lord! Your sign is there.

> > case, a reasonable number of these animals is nec-health by cleaning up the less fit and the weaklings. The next urgent requirement is for some conform to the laws enacted for means of making the hunter

Just so long as there are those sneaking trophies home untagmals are left to live or die, then game animals are just as dead

The time is here again for that tions should now stop a moment pieces of outdoor equipment that raway without being cared for, you will probably be so turkey

Your scribe hopes that the man in red with the packsack

PRODUCTIVE HEN

will only deteriorate if stored late."

from the last trip.

essary to keep herds in proper

Outdoors with Marty

By ERIC S. MARTIN

Daily News Outdoor Columnist

grateful for. The coyote-wolf poisoning program has worked well, true there are occasional sightings of these predators being

VICTORIA (P)—British Colum- his benefit.

bians can look back over the to people of the province.

government house reads;

to the past 100 years.

many historic events.

tions to come.

rest homes, all of which, will pro-

"It has also been marked by of the province to be a people of great imagination with an out-

"My wife and I have travelled witness the many events, all of which have brought great pleas-

Christmas season I feel every-past year as one of individual cffort, co-operative effort and

CURTAIN CALL - Scomingly trying to scratch in a hard-to-reach place, this penguin is actually attempting a graceful bow after a clever performance in the water at the London body can look back, over the YOU ALL!

standing community spirit.

various communities.

oodwill throughout.

Christmas.'

great deal throughout

reported, largely because many more people are in the woods past year as one of "individual who will take "sound shots" by effort, co-operative effort and letting fly at moving (or was it goodwill throughout," says Lieu- | really moving?) brush, so long tenant-Governor Frank Ross in as certain gentry will make re-his annual Christmas message peat kills on large game by

The mesage, released from ged, so long as wounded ani-ing to a close and it has been law enforcement to get tougher throughout the province by some | The old days are gone, popu-

"This has taken the form of whether eaten or not, and take public parks, historic sites, just as long to replace; take only vide enjoyment to people of the yearly homily, all the Dads that present generation and genera- are making holiday preparatalent in art, literature, pag-shotgun MUST have the attenmany sporting events, and has during the weekend, clean and shown the present generation oil those valuable firearms and province during the past year to will be in order anyway!

cants and the reproduction of tion neglected since returning

"It has brought forth latent to remember that the rifle and swimming pools, civic centres, your legal and fair share!

special evnt to give recognition lation moves northwards, shot marked in each community on the pocketbook.

"The centennial year is draw- just so long can we expect game

To sum up a wonderful hunting year we have much to be

"Glory to God in the Highest," His peace declared; Good will to everyone an angel said and then His message so joyfully delivered to the men

He and the wondrous host returned to heaven again. then all the wondrous light was faded

And the night like every night The shepherds arose and then decided To go to Bethlehem and learn some more.

o a barn their steps they now directed And there in modest candle light they found carpenter from Nazareth and wife residing

With sweetest child in swaddling cloths around.

They told the joyful news the angels carried, Of the heavenly glory bright around

And how their hearts were sorely worried "Fear not" the angels said in friendly sound.

At all they'd heard had the shepherds great wondered But Mary kept it treasured in her heart.

'he happy shepherds thus the fact declared "It is just as the angel told us from the start." "God has kept his promise to our Fathers,

Christ is born in the fulness of His name, Our steps are light, our hearts are filled with joy

God's saving grace is a treasure we will claim." -ANDREW WASEND, Prince Rupert, B.C. Editor's note: Mr. Wasend is Better mark it down for sure more than 80 years old and wished his expression of Christmas joy to be published

"before" as he says "it is too stuffed that a sitting down job Pets benefit

DENVER M-A dog and two treats you right, and wishes A cats, pets of a 77-year-old woman slain in her home, will share VERY MERRY CHRISTMAS TO her $10,000 estate. Mrs. Carrie Osborne directed in her will that | the estate be placed in trust "to! TOKYO (M --- Pelping radio maintain and care for my pets "My wife and I wish each and Sunday claimed a specially fed as long as they shall live." Mrs. every one of you a very happy hen laid four eggs in one day Osborne was shot to death Dec. 14. Robert Morgan, 49, a roomer, 13 feeding at an experimental has been charged with her

EAST CORINTH, Vt. W. Take a bowl-shaped valley in the rolling hills of Vermont. Set a simple, white church in it and top the church with a shining steeple. Nestle a cluster of houses nearby. Then roll out a carpet

Now take this living Christmas card and put it two miles from a main highway and only some 25 miles from the state capital at Montpelier.

The photographers won't be long in coming. Just ask the 225 folks who live in this Vermont photographed village in New 1 England," according to Walter Hard Jr., editor of the Vermont Life magazine.

The great majority of the camera-carrying visitors are professionals.

The reason is East Corinth's picturesque church, homes and forested hills. Ask a photographer to get you a picture of the "typical New England village" and he probably will head for East Corinth.

An unknown photographer catapulted East Corinth to fame by taking a shot of the village from the hills nearby late in the 1930s and sold it to A. Devany, New York, photographic agency. began circulating.

Photographers started coming in droves after the first picture Although New Englanders are not renowned for hearty guffaws, pictures of their tidy village in advertisements have furnished villagers more than one meaning of Christmas make the season bright for you and yours.

The New York Central Railroad once published a view of a passenger car loaded with homebound Christmas travelers. The train window revealed view of East Corinth—which actually is 200 miles from the nearest New York Central tracks.

Wrathall's Photo Finishing

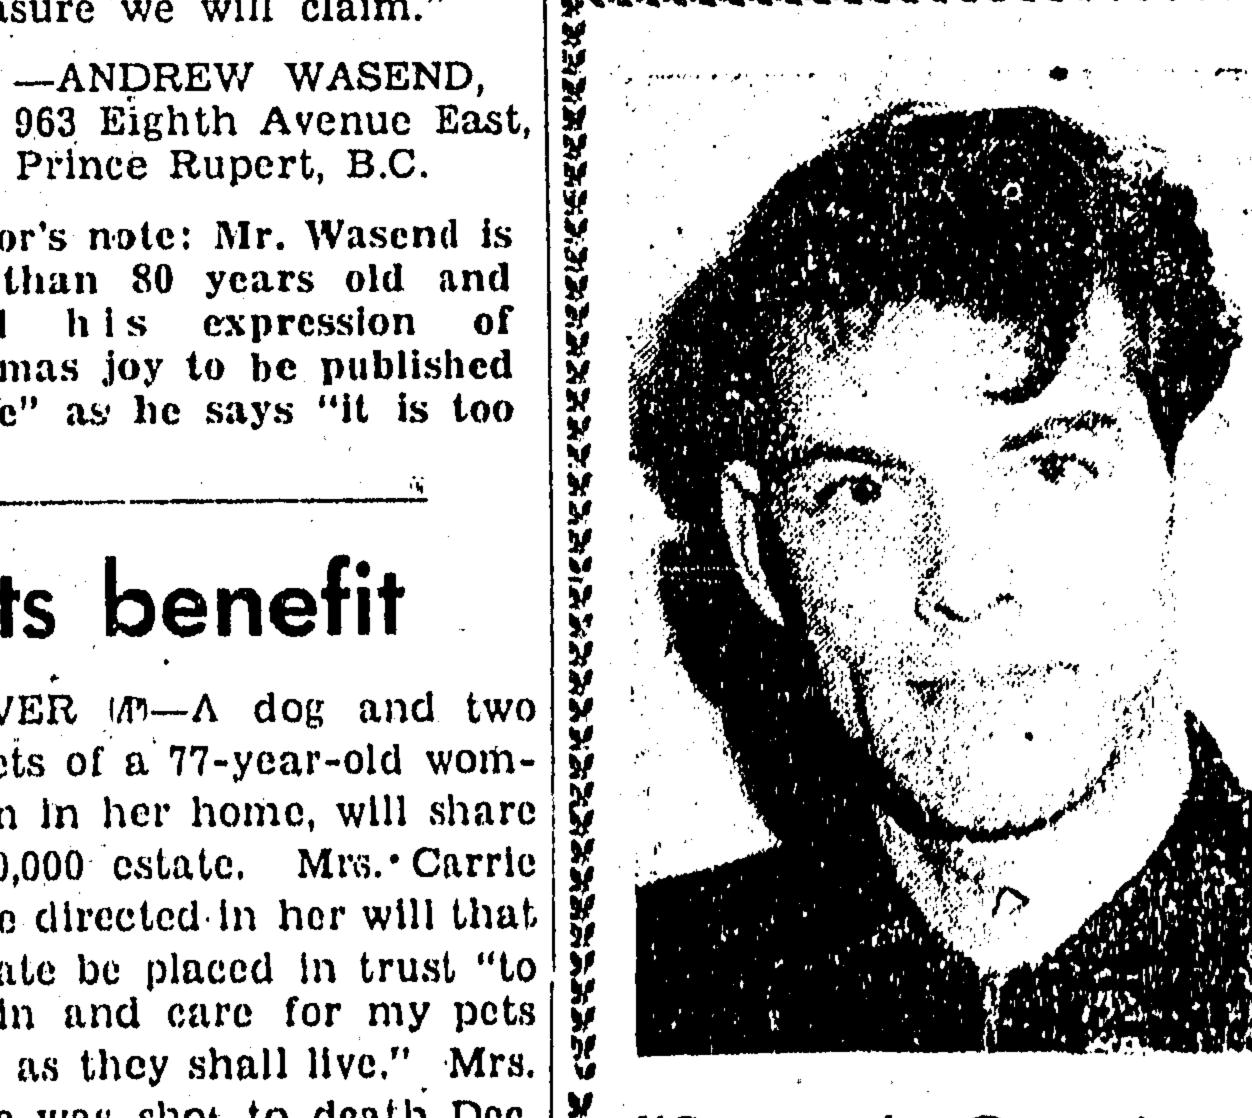

209 3rd Avenue PRINCE RUPERT Prince Rupert, Daily, News Wednesday, December 24, 1958

Advertising in The Daily News Brings Results

"Season's Greetings" Says FRED

Merry

Says BERT

'Vrolik Kerstseest' From ALBERT

"All These Good Wishes and More" From TONA

the Season" Says IKE

radio & electric