$200 EARNED FOR CHURCH

Ladies Aid tea, sale pleasant social event

A large crowd gathered in the bright and cheerful newly-renovated hall of the First Presbyterian church yesterday afternoon when the Ladies Aid held its "Easter Tea and Spring Sale".

Enhancing the satin wood walls, white ceiling and stage, decorated in apple blossom pink, were springtime shades of mauve and yellow festoons.

Individual tea tables were attractive with tiny centrepieces of pussy willows, lily of the valley, intermingled with Easter novelties while the pouring table was a graceful setting of mauve and yellow tulips, flanked by tapers en tone.

Convened by Mrs. Robert Tough and Mrs. William Sutherland, the function earned some $200 for church projects.

Rev. Ivan S. Gamble opened the event at 2 p.m. and receiving guests was Ladies Aid president Mrs. Harry Robb with Mrs. Gamble assisting.

Presiding at the pouring table were Mrs. James Hadden, Mrs. Isabella Rodger, Mrs. Alex McKinnon and Mrs. L. C. Eby.

Directing the kitchen was Mrs. E. J. Smith.

Cashier was Mrs. Lillian Williams and home - baking convener was Mrs. George Currie.

Mrs. Norman Moorehouse was in charge of the lovely array of aprons and attending the booth of Easter candies and baskets was Mrs. Nicholas Krook.

Attending the tea tables were serviteurs Mrs. Charles Love, Mrs. Johan de Greef, Mrs. J. N. Cummins and Mrs. Murdo MacKenzie

FOUR CITY MEN TO POUR AT LOOM TEA SATURDAY

Four well-known city men will preside at the tea cups Saturday, the first day of April, when the Loyal Order of the Moose stages its "Easter Tea and Bake Sale" in the Moose Temple.

Asked to pour are Mayor P. J. Lester; Ronald B. Finlayson, manager of Northland Navigation Company Limited; Gilbert J. Gaudry, manager of the Commercial Hotel and J. R. Ayres, managing editor of the Prince Rupert Daily News.

The hours for the affair are from 12 noon to 5 p.m.

Ronald Vaselenak is convener for the function with co-convener, Thomas Thomas.

To receive the guests will be Governor Kenneth F. Hardy.

Exciting door prizes are also being offered along with the large array of home-cooking.

Included in the prizes are a steam iron, lady's purse, picture plaques and fishing tackle.

CIVIC CENTRE NEWS

Centre Variety Show ready for April 7, 8

With just one week left until the Civic Centre Variety Show, April 7 and 8, the Centre classes are very busy in last minute preparations.

Anyone having children's felt or straw cowboy hats and who will loan them to Mrs. W. C. Peterson for use in the Variety show, is asked to telephone the Civic Centre at 4326.

Mostly all the junior and adult art and craft classes are now over. The instructors and program staff are getting work ready for the Art Fair. There will be a complete display of work from both junior and adult art classes. All parents are invited to see this display, and meet the instructors.

There will be no regular Monday or Tuesday Tiny Tot classes next week.

All Tiny Tots are to come Wednesday, April 5 for dress rehearsal.

There will be roller skating this Friday, March 31 in the afternoon at 2 p.m. for children of all ages.

Program for the shows will include the rhythm band, tumbling ballet dances, five separate groups of Tiny Tot numbers, junior square dancing, tumbling and trampoline displays.

Following an intermission there will be acts of tumbling, ladies keep fit, junior square dancing, judo, ballet dances, junior square dancing, ballroom dancing, ballet dances and trampoline.

The presentations of awards for rifle, juvenile basketball and floor hockey will also be made during the show.

GOOD FRIDAY AT PRESBYTERIAN

Church choirs unite to present "Cantata"

The combined choirs of St. Andrew's Anglican Cathedral and the First Presbyterian church are presenting the Sacred Cantata "Olivet To Calvary" by J. H. Maunder at the First Presbyterian church tomorrow, Good Friday, at 8 p.m.

Under the direction of Mrs. William C. Hankinson the choirs have been rehearsing to present the magnificent Cantata for public hearing tomorrow night.

Organist is Mrs. E. J. Smith.

Well-known city soloists taking lead parts are Mrs. H. G. Bird, soprano; David Ridsdale, tenor; James Kilgour and Rev. Ivan S. Gamble, baritone.

For more than 25 years the choirs of these two congregations have been combining to present special music for Good Friday.

Last year the service was held in the Cathedral.

The service of worship will be led by The Very Rev. George T. Pattison, Dean of Caledonia.
